ARIZONA CARDINALS

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team continues through its eighth different decade, the current one has to rank among the most memorable. The Cardinals captured back-to-back division crowns in 2008 and '09, won their first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history following the '08 season. The team has gone .500 or better in six of the last eight seasons - including three 10-win campaigns in that span - and entering 2015 has sold out all 93 games played at University of Phoenix Stadium since it opened in 2006.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinals vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill continues to have a regular presence at the Cardinals training facility and is a popular fixture at team events, charity functions and football activities. An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, Bidwill has been unable to avoid accolades in recent years for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since '03 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh. "When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "(He) was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

At its December 2010 commencement exercises at Northern Arizona University, Bidwill was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

Bidwill was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona in January of 1996. The region hosted the game again in February of 2008 when Super Bowl XLVII was played at University of Phoenix Stadium. It hosted its third title game in February of 2015 when Super Bowl XLIX was played and resulted in a record economic impact of $720 million.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy were married in September of 1960 and celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary in 2015. They are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

MICHAEL J. BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

NOTECARDS

- Since Bidwill took over as team President in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in six of eight seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted three double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20).
- Among his most prominent Cardinals accomplishments is the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. Since its opening in 2006, the team has sold out every game played there (93 straight heading into 2015).
- Michael was pivotal not only in helping Arizona land Super Bowl XLIX - the second in eight seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium – but also secured the 2015 Pro Bowl. Played a week apart earlier this year, the games delivered a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- In May of 2015, Michael was honored by the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau with its Vision Award for exceptional leadership. He became just the fourth recipient of the honor, joining former Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon as well as former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.
- In 2014, Bidwill received the Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry.
- This past May – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University of America's School of Law in Washington, DC and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

The Cardinals have been in the Bidwill family since Pro Football Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill purchased the team in 1933. Charles' son Bill handled day-to-day operations for decades before passing the torch to his son Michael, who joined the organization in 1996 after practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor.

CARDINALS LEADERSHIP: After initially serving as Vice President/General Counsel, Michael took over as team President in 2007 and in that time his influence over the club has been undeniable. Since '07, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in six of eight seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted three double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20). They have appeared in seven postseason games since 2007, matching the total for the team's entire history prior to that year.

The team's current popularity is best-reflected by unprecedented local television ratings for game broadcasts, which consistently rank as the most-watched shows in Phoenix. In 2014, Cardinals games were watched in more than 500,000 Valley homes on average and TV numbers were up 28% over 2013, the largest such jump in the NFL.

When asked about the team's current run of success, QB Carson Palmer told the Los Angeles Times in 2014, "It's easy to say it's the head coach or the GM. It's (Michael). And you would never know it. He doesn't want to be here when the media's here. He's not doing interviews left and right, but he's picked the right people to hire and he wants to win. He doesn't have a hand in every decision, cutting this guy, bringing in this guy. He's hired the right people and he knows it."

Two of the biggest hires came within a nine-day span in January of 2013. On January 8, he selected Steve Keim as General Manager and nine days later tabbed Bruce Arians as head coach. A long-time Cardinals scout, Keim has gone on to earn NFL Executive of the Year each of the last two seasons from Pro Football Talk and earned that same honor from The Sporting News in 2014. Arians, meanwhile, has captured numerous awards over the last two seasons. That includes Associated Press Coach of the Year honors in 2014, marking the second time in the last three years Arians received that award. Arizona's 21 victories over the last two seasons tie the franchise record for most wins in consecutive campaigns. Both were rewarded with contract extensions from Bidwill this past February.

"What we want to build is something that results in sustained success, year in and year out," said Bidwill last season. "I don't think you can just take a snapshot at a given point and say, 'We're finally there.' …We're always looking to the next Sunday."

Among Michael's most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was leading the effort that led to the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. The team has sold out every game played since the opening of the iconic stadium that has welcomed millions of Cardinals fans. The venue has also allowed Arizona to host two of the last eight Super Bowls, something that would have been impossible previously. After hosting Super Bowl XLII in 2008, the stadium not only staged Super Bowl XLIX in 2015 but also landed the Pro Bowl thanks to Bidwill's lobbying efforts. Super Bowl XLIX and surrounding events delivered an economic impact of $720 million, the highest for any Super Bowl on record and the largest for any special event in the state of Arizona.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO GREATER PHOENIX: In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as an influential leader in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development. From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a board member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. He is also one of 16 members of the Arizona Commerce Authority Board of Directors which the ACA says "unites some of the state's most powerful, proactive officials with its globally recognized leaders of business."

In May of 2015, Michael was presented with the prestigious Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, an honor bestowed just three times previously. "Michael has embraced Greater Phoenix's visitor industry and amplified its power. His proven civic guidance and emergence as a leader in the 'new Arizona' have helped our state make monumental strides as a preferred destination for visitors, job growth and future economic success," said Steve Moore, President and CEO of Visit Phoenix.

Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" in 2010.

NFL LEADERSHIP: Within the National Football League, Michael's influence has also increased exponentially in recent years. That was best exemplified in December of 2014 when he was selected to chair the league's new Conduct Committee. Formed to ensure that the league's Personal Conduct Policy remains current and consistent with best practices and evolving legal and social standards, the committee will review that policy at least annually and recommend appropriate changes with advice from outside experts. Bidwill brings unique perspective and experience to the Committee, as he was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix from 1990-96, specializing in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Michael also chairs the league's Security and Fan Conduct Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities, and has also been a member of the league's Business Ventures Committee since 2007. In December of 2012, he was appointed to the board of the National Football League Foundation which is dedicated to improving the lives of those touched by the game of football – from players at all levels to communities across the country. In March 2014, the NFL Foundation approved a five-year, $45 million grant to USA Football to support the growth of youth football. An additional $25 million from the NFL Foundation has been committed to new health and safety projects over three years. The Foundation also has committed $1 million in annual grant funding to provide athletic trainers to high schools in underserved areas across the country.

BACKGROUND: Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In May of 2015 – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University's School of Law and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico. He is also a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership, according to the Air Force, "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders about how missions can best be accomplished in their respective areas." Michael additionally is a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004.

MICHAEL BIDWILL HONORED WITH VISION AWARD

Michael Bidwill was honored last May with the Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau (Visit Phoenix).

Bidwill became just the fourth individual to receive the rarely-presented Vision Award, which recognizes exceptional leadership. The three previous recipients were Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon and former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

"This recognizes Michael's ongoing leadership for the benefit of the entire Greater Phoenix area—not just for his role in bringing two Super Bowls to Arizona, but for all he has done to place Greater Phoenix into the national rotation for mega sports events," said Steve Moore, President and CEO of Visit Phoenix. "Michael has embraced Greater Phoenix's visitor industry and amplified its power. His proven civic guidance and emergence as a leader in the 'new Arizona' have helped our state make monumental strides as a preferred destination for visitors, job growth and future economic success."

RON MINEGAR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ron Minegar is beginning his 16th season with the Cardinals after joining the organization from Disney Sports in 2000.

In his current position, the 56-year old Minegar is responsible for developing the club's strategic plan and overseeing all aspects of the Cardinals business operations. He serves as the team's primary negotiator on all broadcast agreements, training camp agreements, concessionaire contracts, ticketing agreements and retail merchandise contracts. Additionally, Minegar was a part of the project team during the design and construction of University of Phoenix Stadium and works closely with the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority and the stadium's facility management firm on business and operational issues.

Minegar also serves as Chief Operating Officer of Rojo Hospitality Group LLC, which took over the food and beverage contract at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2010. Additionally, he serves in the same capacity for Rojo Event Management LLC. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Industry. For that group, he serves as the Vice Chairman of Marketing for the Board's Executive Committee, serves on the Finance Council and is past Chairman of the Energy Committee. He also serves on the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors as well as the Fiesta Bowl Finance Committee after he was appointed in the spring of 2015.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Minegar served as Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Anaheim Sports, Inc., a division of the Walt Disney Corporation. Originally hired to direct marketing and sales for the Anaheim Angels, Minegar ultimately assumed the additional responsibility of overseeing the marketing and sales efforts for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

Minegar began his sports career with the La Crosse, WI franchise of the Continental Basketball Association serving as team President and representing the club's ownership on all league issues from 1985 to 1990. He was a two-time "Executive of the Year" recipient in the CBA as a result of the team achieving league attendance records and a CBA championship. From 1991-1995, he served as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Minnesota Timberwolves and the Target Center. Minegar left the Timberwolves to assist in the start-up of the Minnesota Moose, an expansion franchise in the International Hockey League. In his role as Vice President of Business Operations, he developed the organization's overall business and operational plan and oversaw the launch of the wildly popular Moose logo that resulted in record league merchandise and promotional sales. Upon the announcement of the NHL's return to the Twin Cities in 1997, Minegar assisted in the relocation of the IHL franchise to Winnipeg, Manitoba, then became CEO of Diamond Sports Group and was involved in acquisition projects within minor league baseball, basketball and hockey.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin- La Crosse in 1981 and in 1984 earned a master's degree in Business Administration from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, Minegar resides in Phoenix. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children: daughter, Jenna, and son, Craig.

CARDINALS TAKE HOME THREE AWARDS AT 2015 NFL HONORS

The Cardinals had three winners at the 2015 NFL Honors held the night before Super Bowl XLIX at Phoenix Symphony Hall. Head coach Bruce Arians was named Associated Press Coach of the Year, wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald won the inaugural Art Rooney NFL Sportsmanship Award and former defensive coordinator Todd Bowles was the AP Assistant Coach of the Year.

It marked the second time in three years Arians has been awarded NFL Coach of the Year honors (Indianapolis, 2012) and he became the first coach in NFL history to be named Coach of the Year multiple times in a three-year span with multiple teams. In 2014, Arians led the Cardinals to an 11-5 record and a berth in the postseason. Arizona's 11 wins tied the franchise record for a single season, and combined with the Cardinals 10-6 record in 2013, Arians joined Don Coryell as the only coaches in franchise history to lead the team to back-to-back 10+ win seasons. Arians is the only coach in Cardinals history to do so in each of his first two seasons with the team and he has more wins (21) than any coach in franchise history through their first 32 games with the team.

Fitzgerald was selected in a vote of his fellow NFL players. He receives a $25,000 donation from the NFL Foundation to a charity of his choice and was also presented "The Art Rooney Trophy," which represents the important role that sportsmanship plays in the game and how NFL players that demonstrate integrity and honor on the field serve as role models for other players at all levels. The award was established this year and was named in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr. It will be presented each year to an NFL player who demonstrates on the field qualities of great sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for opponents, and integrity in competition.

Bowles, who was hired as the new head coach of the New York Jets after the conclusion of the 2014 season, won the first ever AP Assistant Coach of the Year after coaching a Cardinals defense that ranked fifth in the NFL allowing just 18.7 points per game in 2014. He led a defense that sustained a number of key losses before and throughout the season but helped the Cardinals match their highest win total in a single season (11) in franchise history.

NOTECARDS

- After 15 seasons working within the Cardinals personnel department, was elevated to GM on January 8, 2013.
- Named Sporting News 2014 NFL Executive of the Year and has earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).
- During his first two seasons as GM the Cardinals posted a 21-11 record, tying a franchise record for wins in back-to-back seasons (1974-75, 1975-76).
- In his first 24 months as GM (January of '13 through December of '14), Keim executed 410 roster moves. Keim made 217 roster moves in 2014 as the team posted an 11-5 record and tied the franchise mark for wins in a season despite 21 players missing 109 total games due to injury.
- Of the seven GMs hired in January of 2013, only Keim and Carolina's Dave Gettleman had their teams in the postseason in 2014.

Steve Keim was promoted to General Manager on January 8, 2013 after 15 seasons in the Cardinals organization. After putting together a team that tied the franchise record for wins in back-to-back seasons, Keim received a contract extension in February of 2015 that will keep him with the team through the 2018 season.

In two seasons since his promotion, the Cardinals have posted a 21-11 record and Keim has developed into one of the league's most highly respected GMs. Following the 2014 campaign when Arizona tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned a spot in the postseason, Keim was named the Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year in a vote of NFL coaches and team executives. He has also earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).

In his current role, Keim has worked tirelessly to build the Cardinals roster. During his first year as GM in 2013, he executed 193 roster moves as he helped lead one of the greatest one-year turnarounds in franchise history. Following a 5-11 season in 2012, the Cardinals finished with a 10-6 record in '13. That five-win improvement equaled the best one-year turnaround in franchise history in a 16-game season (4-12 in '97 to 9-7 in '98).

Keim was even busier last season, as he dealt with a roster that was littered with injuries from top to bottom. With 21 different players missing a total of 109 games due to injury, including 14 games by QBs Carson Palmer and Drew Stanton, Keim made 217 roster moves as the team tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned the team's first postseason berth since 2009.

The 42-year old Keim originally joined Arizona in May, 1999 as a college scout in the east. He was promoted to Director of College Scouting in 2006, Director of Player Personnel in 2008, and then was promoted to Vice President, Player Personnel in May, 2012.

In his time with the team, Keim and the Cardinals have been commended for their successful draft classes, especially in recent years. Pro Bowlers Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, Calais Campbell and Justin Bethel were acquired through those drafts, as were standouts such as Michael Floyd, Tyrann Mathieu, Rashad Johnson and Andre Ellington. Last season's draft class included S Deone Bucannon and WR John Brown. Bucannon earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie team after appearing in all 16 games and registering 75 tackles, two sacks, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble, while Brown established an NFL rookie record with four game-winning TD receptions.

Another area in which Keim has had particular success is in securing free agents. During his tenure as GM, the Cardinals free agent signings include: QB Drew Stanton, DT Frostee Rucker, CB Jerraud Powers, and O-linemen Jared Veldheer and Ted Larsen. This past offseason, Arizona signed three-time Pro Bowl G Mike Iupati, D-linemen Corey Peters and Cory Redding, and LBs Sean Weatherspoon and LaMarr Woodley.

Of the 53 players on the Cardinals roster at the end of last season, 40 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM, and Arizona will enter the 2015 season with 26 of the team's draft picks on the roster.

Keim attended Red Land High School near Harrisburg, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in Communications from North Carolina State 1995. A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November, 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named third team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Chandler, AZ with his wife, Kimberly, daughter Sloane, and sons Carson, Brady and Warner.

KEIM PRODUCES WINNING RESULTS

The Cardinals are coming off back-to-back 10+ win seasons in the first two years of Steve Keim's tenure as GM. As soon as he was elevated to the position in January of 2013, Keim began re-shaping the roster. The overhaul during his first two years was dramatic – and resulted in a 21-11 record. During his first 24 months as GM, Keim made a total of 410 roster moves, including 217 moves in 2014 as the Cardinals tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned a spot in the postseason.

MAKING HIS MARK ON THE ROSTER

- Of the 53 players on the Cardinals final 2014 roster, 40 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM.
- Of the 41 players who started a game for Arizona last season, 30 were brought in by Keim.
- Arizona's final 53-man roster last season featured 17 players who were either drafted by Keim or signed as rookie free agents (12 draft picks, 5 rookie free agents).
- Of the 16 draft picks for the Cardinals between 2013-14, 13 remain with the team. Of the Cardinals 7 draft picks in 2014, 6 appeared in multiple games.
- In addition to the contributions made by 2014 free agent signings such as LT Jared Veldheer, G/C Ted Larsen, DT Tommy Kelly and CB Antonio Cromartie, Keim added young talent in S Deone Bucannon and WR John Brown (NFL Draft) and K Chandler Catanzaro (rookie free agent). Bucannon earned PFWA All-Rookie honors at safety while Brown (four game-winning TD catches) and Catanzaro (17 consecutive FGs to start his career) went on to establish NFL rookie scoring records.
- Of the Cardinals 310 points scored in 2014, 244 were scored by players brought in by Keim.
- Of the 310 points scored, 176 were scored by players not with the team in 2013. That includes 150 points by rookies Chandler Catanzaro (114), WR John Brown (30) and RB Marion Grice (6). Arizona's 150 points scored by rookies in '14 represented the third-best total in the NFL behind only Philadelphia (210) and Tampa Bay (187).

NINE DAYS – TWO GREAT HIRES

Within a nine-day span in January of 2013, Cardinals President Michael Bidwill hired Steve Keim as General Manager (Jan. 8) and Bruce Arians as head coach (Jan. 17).

In the two seasons since the Cardinals have gone 10-6 and 11-5; those 21 wins tie the franchise record for most wins in consecutive seasons. Keim has been named NFL Executive of the Year by multiple outlets each of his first two seasons as GM and in 2014 Arians earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors for the second time in three years. Both individuals had multiple years on their original contracts but were rewarded by Bidwill with extensions this past March.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Bruce Arians was named the Associated Press 2014 NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Cardinals to an 11-5 record and a berth in the postseason.

It marks the second time in three years Arians was awarded NFL Coach of the Year honors (Indianapolis, 2012) and he became the first coach in NFL history to be named Coach of the Year multiple times in a three-year span with multiple teams.

Arians also became the 11th coach in NFL history to win the award multiple times and the sixth to be honored with multiple teams. He also became one of just five coaches in NFL history to earn AP Coach of the Year honors twice in a three-year span.

Arizona has also compiled a 13-3 record at University of Phoenix Stadium in two seasons under Arians, with only Denver (15-1), New England (15-1) and Seattle (14-2) featuring better home records during that span. Arizona finished the 2014 regular season with a 7-1 record at home. The seven wins were the most for the franchise in a single season since 1925 (11).

In 2014, the Cardinals tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned the team's first postseason berth since 2009 despite 21 different players missing a combined 109 games due to injury, including 14 games by QBs Carson Palmer and Drew Stanton. Another sign of the Cardinals resilience under Arians is the team's NFL-leading 17 come-from-behind victories over the last two seasons. After establishing a franchise single-season record with eight come-from-behind wins in 2013, Arizona upped that mark last season, tying the Pittsburgh Steelers for the NFL lead with nine come-from-behind victories.

During his first season with the Cardinals in 2013, the team finished with a 10-6 record after winning seven of its final nine games. Arizona doubled its win total from 2012 and the five-win improvement equaled the best single-season turnaround in team history in a 16-game season. Among all-time Cardinals coaches, only Norm Barry (11 in 1925) had more wins in his first season than Arians. Offensively, the team's overall league ranking improved from 32nd to 12th while the defense went from 12th to 6th and finished #1 against the run. Arizona's 379 points scored in 2013 tied for the fifth-best total in franchise history. The 1,351 rushing yards allowed were the fewest ever by a Cardinals team in a 16-game season.

INDIANAPOLIS: Arians came to AZ after one season with the Colts. In addition to offensive coordinator, he served 12 games as interim head coach while Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia. Arians was selected as the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Colts to a 9-3 record and a playoff berth while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.

Indy's nine-win improvement (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history. The Colts went through the 2012 season without consecutive losses and were 9-1 in games decided by one score or less.

IT TAKES TWO YEARS WITH B.A.

Bruce Arians has a well-earned reputation for turning things around quickly wherever he has coached. He solidified that reputation with the job he did with the Cardinals in 2013 when Arizona posted a five-win improvement over their 2012 record during Arians' first season in the desert (5-11 to 10-6).

Arians completed the turnaround last season, continuing a remarkable streak that has continued at nearly every stop of his coaching career. Prior to coming to Arizona, Arians had coached with five different NFL teams - and four made the postseason in his first two seasons with the team. The Colts (2012) and Steelers both made the postseason in Arians' first season, while the Browns, Chiefs and Colts (1999) made the playoffs in his second year.

After the Cardinals finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and secured a spot in the postseason in 2014, Arians has now made the postseason within two years of his arrival with five different teams.

When Arians First Hit The Postseason

- Arizona Cardinals: Second Year (2014)
- Indianapolis Colts: First Year (2012)
- Pittsburgh Steelers: First Year (2004)
- Cleveland Browns: Second Year (2002)
- Indianapolis Colts: Second Year (1999)
- Kansas City Chiefs: Second Year (1990)

Arians helped the Colts rank 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) in total offense and 7th in passing (258 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS LLC. The Colts completed 65 passes of 20 yards or more that season, ranking third in the NFL (Detroit-67, New Orleans-66).

Rookie QB Andrew Luck, the first overall selection in the 2012 draft, made the Pro Bowl and set NFL rookie single-season records for the most passing yards (4,374), most attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six). He also set the NFL single-game rookie record for most passing yards (433, 11/4 vs. Miami). Luck finished third on the NFL's rookie list for TD passes (23) and set the franchise record for rushing TDs by a quarterback (five). His passer rating of 76.5 also was a franchise rookie record. He led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger.

PITTSBURGH: Prior to Indy, Arians spent eight seasons with the Steelers, five as offensive coordinator (2007-2011) and three as wide receivers coach (2004-2006). During his tenure as offensive coordinator, the Steelers recorded a 55-25 record, tying the Packers for the second-best mark in the NFL in that span. Pittsburgh won three AFC North Division titles, two AFC Championships and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLIII over the Cardinals. Arians was also part of the Steelers Super Bowl XL win as the team's wide receivers coach.

Arians was instrumental in the development of Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, helping him become the second-youngest quarterback to win two Super Bowls (26 years, 336 days). In 2007, Roethlisberger was selected to his first Pro Bowl and broke Terry Bradshaw's team record for touchdown passes in a season (32). Roethlisberger also finished that season with a team-record passer rating of 104.1.

In 2009, the Steelers offense became the first in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Santonio Holmes, Hines Ward) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. The team also broke franchise records for passing first downs (210) and passes completed (351).

Arians also helped Hines Ward develop into one of the top receivers in the game. In his eight seasons with Arians, Ward was selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl and was named Super Bowl XL MVP after finishing with 123 receiving yards and a touchdown. Ward also became the Steelers all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and TDs. In 2010, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history and fifth in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards.

In his first season in Pittsburgh (2007), Arians helped the Steelers rank third in the NFL in rushing (2,168 yards) and running back Willie Parker finished fourth in the league with 1,316 rushing yards that season, earning a Pro Bowl selection.

MORE NFL COACHING CAREER: Prior to joining the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons (2001-2003) as offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2002 under his guidance, the Browns scored their most points (344) since 1987 and also improved in virtually every major offensive category.

INCREDIBLE INTERIM IN INDY

- Named the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year after serving 12 games as Indy's interim head coach while Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia.
- Was named both "Coach of the Year" and "Assistant Coach of the Year" by Pro Football Weekly & the Pro Football Writers of America, becoming the first individual to win the awards in the same year.
- Arians and Pagano shared "Coach of the Year" honors from the Maxwell Club in Philadelphia and were named "AFC Coach of the Year" at the NFL 101 Awards in Kansas City.

- Led the Colts to a 9-3 record in his 12 games and helped Indianapolis clinch a playoff berth while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.
- Led the Colts to a 9-3 record in his 12 games and helped Indianapolis clinch a playoff berth while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.
- Indy's nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.
- Rookie QB Andrew Luck set an NFL rookie record with 4,374 passing yards en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

In his first of what would be two stints with the Colts, Arians spent 1998-2000 as the team's quarterback coach, working under offensive coordinator Tom Moore. Arians tutored Peyton Manning in his first three seasons in the league and helped him earn Pro Bowl nods in his second and third seasons (1999-2000). In 2000, Manning set then team single-season records for passing yards (4,413), completions (357), 300-yard games (5), and touchdown passes (33). The 33 TD passes broke the mark established by Johnny Unitas in 1959.

Arians' first job in the NFL was with Kansas City as the team's running backs coach for four seasons (1989-92). With the Chiefs, Arians tutored running back Christian Okoye, who was selected to two Pro Bowls (1989, 1991). Okoye led the league in both rushing attempts (370) and rushing yards (1,480) during the 1989 season and also rushed for 1,031 yards in 1991. Arians spent the '96 season in New Orleans as the Saints tight ends coach.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Arians began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater and then was elevated to running backs coach. From 1978-80, he coached RBs and WRs at Mississippi State before moving within the SEC to Alabama where he worked under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He coached Crimson Tide running backs for two seasons (1981-82) before becoming one of the youngest head coaches in Division I history when Temple University hired him in 1983 at the age of 30. He spent six seasons (1983-88) coaching the Owls but was let go following the 1988 season. Eight stops and two-plus decades later he became a head coach again when he earned the job in Arizona in 2013.

PERSONAL: As a collegiate quarterback at Virginia Tech (1972-74) Arians was voted the team's MVP as a senior. He finished his college career with 78 completions on 174 attempts for 1,270 yards, six touchdowns and eight interceptions in addition to rushing for 539 yards and 14 touchdowns on 135 carries. Arians set a school single-season record for rushing TDs by a QB with 11 in 1974, a mark that was tied by 2014 Cardinals draft pick Logan Thomas in 2009.

A native of Paterson, NJ, Arians grew up in York, PA where he met his wife, Christine. The couple has two children - son, Jake, and daughter, Kristi Anne – as well as a granddaughter, Presley.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2013, Bruce and Christine Arians created the Arians Family Foundation (AFF) with the goal of helping to prevent the abuse and neglect of children. Through her work as a family-law attorney, Christine has worked with Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) to help ensure that children involved in the court system as a result of abuse or neglect by their families received the help they need. With the motto "A Voice For Children," Bruce and Christine carry on the work they both hold so close to their hearts—helping provide a future for children to live in where they feel safe and loved.

During its first year, the foundation developed a number of cornerstone events, including the Annual Georgia Celebrity Golf Classic. The inaugural event was held in June of 2013 at Great Waters Gold Club in Reynolds Plantation, GA. The event marked its third year when the Georgia Celebrity Golf Classic was held in June of 2015 at the Oconee Golf Course in Reynolds Plantation.

In November of '13, the AFF held its first annual Putt Putt 4 Purpose Celebrity Golf Challenge at Golfland in Mesa, AZ, in which Cardinals coaches, players, and many others played rounds of putt putt golf to help support the foundation.

With golf again serving as a backdrop, the first annual Arizona Celebrity Golf Classic was held March of 2014 at Westin-Kierland Resort in Scottsdale, AZ. The event, which is aimed at raising money to train new CASA personnel to help support the 10,000+ kids in foster care in Maricopa County, returned in March of 2015 and was held at Talking Stick Resort & Golf Club in Scottsdale.

In April of '14, the AFF held its inaugural Superhero Walk-Run at Kiwanis Park in Tempe, AZ. Participants were encouraged to dress up as their favorite superhero for a 5K fun run and walk to benefit CASA and the child welfare system in Arizona.

The AFF expanded again in 2015, holding the inaugural Arians Family Foundation Fundraiser Dinner on June 8 at Steak 44 in Phoenix.

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/21/13 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offense.
- Enters his 37th season as an NFL assistant. Only Tennessee's Dick LeBeau (43rd season) has more experience among active NFL coaches.
- One of three individuals (Dick LeBeau and Dante Scarnecchia) who were honored with the 2015 Paul "Dr. Z" Zimmerman Award by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA). The award is given for lifetime achievement as an assistant coach in the NFL.
- During Moore's 36 seasons in the NFL, his teams have earned 23 postseason appearances, 14 division titles and four Super Bowl appearances (three wins).
- Combined with 13 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level and one year in the World Football League, Moore enters his 51st year of coaching in 2014.
- Has coached Hall of Famers Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris, Mike Webster, Barry Sanders, Marshall Faulk, Randall McDaniel and Cris Carter.
- Under his guidance, a total of 23 different NFL players have earned a combined 62 Pro Bowl selections.
- During his time as an offensive coordinator in the NFL, his players have led the league in rushing yards (3x), receiving yards (3x), passing yards (2x), yards from scrimmage (2x), receptions (3x), receiving TDs (once), passing TDs (3x) and passer rating (3x).
- In his first season with Cardinals in 2013, Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for 5th in franchise history.
- Coached Peyton Manning for 13 seasons (1998-2010), helping him set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns and 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and set an NFL record with four of his five Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09).
- Only four times in NFL history has a team had two players record 100+ receptions in a single season. Moore served as the offensive coordinator for two of those teams—Indianapolis, 2009 (Reggie Wayne, 100; Dallas Clark 100) and Detroit, 1995 (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108).
- His 1999 unit had Manning with 4,135 yards, running back Edgerrin James with 1,553 yards and wide receiver Marvin Harrison with 1,663 yards, marking only the second NFL offense ever with 4,000-1,500-1,500 performers. The only other team to do that was Detroit in 1995 and their offensive coordinator was Tom Moore.
- In May of 2014, was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition of his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

One of the league's most experienced assistant coaches, Tom Moore enters his 37th NFL season and third in Arizona after he joined the team as assistant head coach/offense on 1/21/13. With a career that dates back to 1961 at his alma mater, the University of Iowa, Moore enters his 51st season as a coach in 2015.

Moore came to Arizona in 2013 after spending the 2011 season as an offensive consultant with the NY Jets and the final five weeks of the 2012 campaign in the same capacity with the Tennessee Titans.

In 2013 with the Cardinals, QB Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for 5th in team history and finished ranked 12th in the NFL. Larry Fitzgerald was selected to his eighth Pro Bowl after having 10 TD receptions. Last season, Palmer became the first Cardinals quarterback to win each of his first six starts in a season since Jim Hart (1974). Palmer improved his record to 16-6 as the Cardinals QB, the best record for an Arizona QB in his first 22 games with the team in the modern era.

From 1998-2010, Moore helped coordinate a record-breaking offense in Indianapolis that was among the NFL's most prolific attacks over that stretch. After 12 seasons as the offensive coordinator (1998-09), Moore served as the team's senior offensive assistant in 2010. During those 13 seasons, the Colts offense ranked among the NFL's top five in nine different seasons, five times it led the league in third down conversions, eight times it ranked in the NFL's top three in scoring and seven times it ranked first in fewest sacks allowed. The passing attack ranked in the top five 11 times and never finished lower than sixth during that span. The Colts produced the 10 highest net yardage seasonal totals in club history and topped 5,000 total yards in a franchise-record 13 straight seasons. The club set a franchise seasonal record with 429 points in 2000, then bested the mark in 2003 (447) and again in 2004 (522). Indianapolis amassed 400+ points in 10 of the 13 seasons Moore was with the team. The club scored 522 points in 2004, then the fifth-highest seasonal total in NFL history, while the Colts set a club single-season mark with 66 touchdowns. The Colts boasted a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season seven times (1999-2001, 03-04, 06-07), becoming the first team in NFL history to accomplish the feat in three consecutive seasons (1999-01). Under Moore's watch, nine different players from the Colts offense combined for 37 total Pro Bowl selections.

Moore arrived in Indianapolis the same season as Peyton Manning (1998), and under his tutelage Manning went on to earn 11 Pro Bowl selections, six first-team All-Pro nods and became one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history. In their 13 years working together, Manning set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns, 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and won an NFL-record four of his five career Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09). He is the only player to have 3,000+ yards and 25+ touchdown passes in his first 13 seasons, and he led the NFL in passing yards twice, in passing TDs three times, and in passer rating three times. He started the first 208 regular season games of his career, the most in NFL history by any player, and Manning became the only player in the Super Bowl era with 11 double-digit victory seasons and the only player with nine straight seasons with 10+ starting wins.

He threw for 4,000+ yards an NFL-record 11 times and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with 63 300-yard passing performances. In 2004, Manning posted one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a quarterback, throwing for 4,557 yards and establishing then-NFL records with 49 touchdown passes and a 121.1 passer rating. During his time with Moore in Indianapolis, Manning produced the 13 best seasons in franchise history in completions and yards, the 12 best seasons in attempts, 12 of the 13 best seasons in completion percentage and 13 of the 15 best seasons in touchdown passes.

Also during Moore's tenure with the Colts, wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Reggie Wayne became the two most prolific pass catchers in team history and one of the most formidable tandems in the NFL. Harrison went to eight straight Pro Bowls (1999-06), surpassing 80 receptions and 1,100 yards in all eight of those seasons, including an NFL single-season record 143 catches in 2002. He was a finalist for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2014. Wayne, who joined the Colts as the team's first round pick in 2001, developed into one of the NFL's best WRs with seven straight seasons of 75+ catches and 1,000 receiving yards from 2004-10 and was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (2006-10). Moore also coached running back Edgerrin James from 1999-2005, as James set Colts franchise records with 9,226 yards, 64 rushing TDs and 49 100-yard games on his way to four Pro Bowl selections (1999-2000, 2004-05). James and Harrison topped 100 yards in their respective categories in the same game 22 times, the most by any tandem in NFL history. In 2000, Manning (passing yards) and James (rushing yards) led the NFL in their respective categories, marking only the second time in NFL history (1937, Washington QB Sammy Baugh and RB Cliff Battles) one team had the passing and rushing champion. Manning (11), Harrison (8), Wayne (5), Jeff Saturday (5) and James (4) earned multiple Pro Bowl bids during Moore's tenure. James also won two NFL rushing titles (1999, 2000).

Moore entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1977 where he coached for 13 seasons. In that span, Moore coached wide receivers

(1977-82) before assuming the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (1983-89). He helped lead the Steelers to victories in Super Bowl XIII (35-31 over Dallas) and Super Bowl XIV (31-19 over Rams). During his six seasons as wide receivers coach in Pittsburgh, Moore coached future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth, both of whom earned multiple Pro Bowl selections under Moore. As offensive coordinator, Moore also helped tutor future Hall of Famers including Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris and center Mike Webster, who went to the Pro Bowl five times during Moore's tenure. In seven seasons at the helm of the Pittsburgh offense, the team piled up over 5,000 yards four different seasons.

Following his tenure in Pittsburgh, Moore joined the Minnesota Vikings (1990-93), serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks (1990), assistant head coach/offensive coordinator (1991) and wide receivers coach (1992-93). It was under Moore's guidance that future Hall of Famer Cris Carter earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 1993 after setting then-career marks for receptions (86) and receiving yards (1,071). He then joined Detroit as quarterbacks coach (1994) before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1995-96). During that three-year span, Barry Sanders ran for nearly 5,000 yards (5.2 yard avg.). In 1995, Detroit led the NFL in total offense (6,113 yards) and became the first NFL team to have two receivers post 100+ receptions (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108). The 3,174 combined yards by Moore and Perriman set the NFL single-season record for receiving yards by a tandem. Herman Moore posted career-highs in receptions (123), receiving yards (1,686) and receiving TDs (14). Following his tenure in Detroit, Moore spent one season in New Orleans as the Saints running backs coach (1997).

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Iowa, serving as the freshmen team coach from 1961-62. Following a two-year stint serving in the United State Army (1963-64), where he coached a division team in Korea and the post team at Fort Benning, GA, Moore served as offensive backfield coach at Dayton from 1965-68.

He then worked as offensive coordinator at Wake Forest (1969) and offensive backfield coach at Georgia Tech (1970-71) before assuming the offensive backfield position at the University of Minnesota (1972-73). Following one season (1974) in the World Football League with the New York Stars as an offensive assistant, Moore returned to the University of Minnesota as offensive coordinator from 1975-76.

After earning All-America honors as a quarterback at Rochester (MN) High School, Moore played at Iowa (1957-60), winning a Big 10 title in 1958 and earning a share of another in 1960. He earned a bachelor's degree in History at Iowa and a master's degree in Guidance Counseling at Dayton. In 2005, Moore was inducted into the Rochester, Minnesota Sports Hall of Fame. In May of 2014, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition of his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Moore and his wife Emily, have two children, daughter, Terry, and son, Dan.

NOTECARDS

- Promoted to Cardinals defensive coordinator on 2/4/15 after spending the past two seasons coaching Arizona's outside linebackers.
- Under his guidance with the Cardinals, OLB John Abraham was selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl, and first as a linebacker, after he led the team with 11.5 sacks in 2013, the most sacks by a linebacker in a single-season in team history; OLB Alex Okafor led the Cardinals with eight sacks in 2014 after only playing in 13 games.
- Spent one season in Indianapolis (2012) and coached OLB Robert Mathis to his first Pro Bowl at OLB and his fifth selection overall.
- First worked with Colts head coach Chuck Pagano as a defensive assistant at the University of North Carolina when Pagano was the defensive coordinator and Butch Davis was the head coach.

James Bettcher enters his third season with the Cardinals and first as defensive coordinator after he was promoted on 2/4/15. He spent the past two seasons coaching Arizona's outside linebackers after originally joining the Cardinals staff on 2/5/13. The 37-year old Bettcher is in his fourth season in the NFL after coaching the Colts outside linebackers in 2012.

Last season, he tutored OLB Alex Okafor who had a team-leading eight sacks in just 13 games. Arizona's defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The Cardinals defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, Bettcher helped coach a Cardinals defense that collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history, while also finishing with the NFL's sixth-ranked overall defense and featuring the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351). OLB John Abraham was selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl, and first as a linebacker, after he led the team with 11.5 sacks in 2013, the most sacks by a linebacker in a single-season in team history.

In 2012, Bettcher worked as the special assistant to Colts head coach Chuck Pagano and 2012 NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians, who served as interim head coach for 12 games while Pagano was receiving treatment for leukemia. Bettcher worked with the Colts outside linebackers, helping Robert Mathis earn a selection to his first Pro Bowl at OLB and his fifth selection overall. The Colts improved from 2-14 in 2011 to 11-5 in 2012, tied for the third-largest turnaround in NFL history and earned a Wild Card berth in the AFC playoffs.

Prior to joining the Colts, Bettcher spent nine years in the college coaching ranks. In 2011, he served as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator at New Hampshire, and he coached the NCAA FCS leading tackler and 2011 Buck Buchanan Award Winner (FCS National Defensive Player of the Year) Matt Evans. He also helped the Wildcats rank in the top 20 nationally in both punt return and punt coverage.

Bettcher coached defensive ends and special teams at Ball State in 2010, where he helped tutor Robert Eddins who led the team in sacks and earned All-MAC honors. From 2007-2009, Bettcher worked as a defensive assistant/defensive graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina, coaching linebackers and special teams and helped the 2009 team finish sixth in the nation in overall defense. At UNC, Bettcher worked with future NFL Pro Bowler Robert Quinn in addition to linebackers Bruce Carter and Quinton Coples. In 2006, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University, working with the secondary and special teams units.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of St. Francis (IN) from 2003-05 as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach. He also worked with the strength and conditioning staff and was the head track coach in 2003-04. During his stint at St. Francis, the Cougars made three trips to the NAIA playoffs, including two national championship game appearances.

During his playing career at St. Francis as an offensive lineman, Bettcher was a three-time NAIA All-America Scholar, a three-time Mid-States Football Association Scholar, a two-time NAIA Coaches All-America choice and a two-time Don Hansen's All-America selection. He earned all-conference honors three times and was the recipient of the Silver Helmet Award for leadership, coachability and performance on the field in 2002. Bettcher was also a five-time track All-America choice for the Cougars, where he placed second in the shot put at the 2001 NAIA Championships.

Bettcher, a native of Lakeville, IN, was inducted into the University of St. Francis Hall of Fame in 2012. He and his wife, Erica, have one son, Colton.

HAROLD GOODWIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Michigan
HOMETOWN: Columbia, SC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 12/3
DOB: November 14, 1973

NOTECARDS

- Named Cardinals offensive coordinator on 1/21/13 after working as the Indianapolis Colts offensive line coach in 2012.
- The 2015 season will be the ninth consecutive season Goodwin has worked under Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians after previous assignments with Pittsburgh (2007-11) and Indianapolis (2012).
- During his first season with the Cardinals, Arizona's offense—ranked 32nd overall in 2012—improved 20 spots to 12th overall in 2013. The Cardinals totaled 379 points on the year (tied for 5th in team history) and piled up 5,542 net yards of offense (also good for 5th in franchise history).
- In 2012, Goodwin helped the Colts to a nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5), which matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.
- Played collegiately at Michigan on the offensive line (1992-94) before beginning his coaching career with the Wolverines as a student assistant (1995-96) and a graduate assistant in 1997.
- Brother, Jonathan, plays center for the New Orleans Saints.

Harold Goodwin enters his third season with the Cardinals as offensive coordinator after he was hired on 1/21/13. He joined the Cardinals in 2013 after working one season as the offensive line coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2012) and five seasons (2007-11) as an offensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, Goodwin helped lead a Cardinals offense that ranked 12th in the NFL, totaled 379 points (tied for 5th in franchise history) and collected 5,542 net yards of offense (5th in team history). QB Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, rookie RB Andre Ellington totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (552 rushing, 371 receiving) and WR Larry Fitzgerald earned his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after having a team-high 10 touchdowns.

Last season, Palmer became the first Cardinals QB to win each of his first six starts in a season since Jim Hart (7) in 1974. Palmer improved to 16-6 as the Cardinals quarterback, the best record for an Arizona QB in his first 22 games with the team in the modern era.

As offensive line coach with the Colts in 2012, Goodwin helped an Indy offense that finished 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS, LLC. Rookie QB Andrew Luck threw for the most passing yards (4,374) by a rookie in NFL history and had an NFL rookie record six 300-yard passing games. He also led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger. Indy's nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history. Rookie RB Vick Ballard ran for 814 yards in 2012, the sixth-most rushing yards by a rookie in Colts team history.

While with the Steelers as an offensive assistant, Goodwin worked closely with the offensive line, which consistently helped produce one of the NFL's top rushing attacks. During his tenure in Pittsburgh, the Steelers averaged 118.5 rushing yards per game. He helped the Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII and advance to Super Bowl XLV. In 2010, Goodwin assisted in the development of rookie center Maurkice Pouncey, who started all 16 regular season games, earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and was named to The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie teams. Pouncey was the first Steelers rookie to start his first NFL game since Marvel Smith in 2000. Pouncey earned Pro Bowl selections in both of his seasons working with Goodwin.

Goodwin got his start in the NFL with the Chicago Bears, spending three seasons as assistant offensive line coach (2004-2006). During that span the Bears ranked 10th in the NFL averaging 117.5 rushing yards per game. While coaching the Bears, he faced off against his brother, Jonathan, in the 2006 NFC Championship Game. Jonathan was a reserve lineman with the Saints at the time.

Prior to joining the Bears, Goodwin was the offensive line coach at Central Michigan from 2000-2003, where he worked with future pros Eric Ghiaciuc and Adam Kieft. Goodwin also served as assistant head coach in 2003.

Goodwin began his coaching career at Eastern Michigan where he spent the 1998 season overseeing tight ends and offensive tackles. In 1999, he transitioned to coaching the offensive line. A native of Columbia, SC, Goodwin was a guard at Michigan (1992-1994) and played two seasons (1993-94) before a knee injury ended his career.

Following his playing days, he stayed in Ann Arbor and spent the next two years (1995-96) as a student assistant before serving as a graduate assistant with the Wolverines in 1997 when Michigan won the national title. During that time, he worked with an offensive line which featured future seven-time Pro Bowler Steve Hutchinson, along with 2001 first round pick Jeff Backus and 1999 second-round selection Jon Jansen.

Goodwin's brother, Jonathan, is a center in the NFL who has played with both the San Francisco 49ers and the New Orleans Saints where he was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010.

Harold graduated from Michigan in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management/Communications. He and his wife, Monica, have three children, daughters Kylee and Miya and a son, Bryson.

- Played running back and safety at Alabama under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Jones started his coaching career as a graduate assistant (1981-82) at Alabama in Bryant's final two years as the head coach.

Amos Jones begins his third season as special teams coordinator with the Cardinals after joining the team on 2/5/13. In his first two seasons with the Cardinals, Jones helped Justin Bethel earn consecutive Pro Bowl selections as a special teams player after he led the team in special teams tackles in both 2013 (21) and in 2014 (18). Bethel also had three blocked field goals in the past two seasons and was named Special Teams Player of the Week and Special Teams Player of the Month (December) in 2014.

In 2013, punter Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line and his 45.7-yard punting average ranked as the third-best single-season total in franchise history. Last season, undrafted rookie kicker Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a new franchise rookie record with 114 points on the season and was also twice named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. Punter Drew Butler tied for the NFL lead with 34 punts inside the 20-yard line (Donnie Jones) and the Cardinals kickoff coverage unit finished fourth in the league with an average opponent drive starting at the 20.6-yard line. PR Ted Ginn Jr. was selected as Special Teams Player of the Week following his game winning 71-yard punt return in the Cardinals Week 2 win in New York.

Jones came to Arizona in 2013 after working with Pittsburgh for six seasons, the first five as assistant special teams coach and then as special teams coach in 2012 after he was promoted just prior to the beginning of the season. In 2012, the Steelers featured kicker Shaun Suisham, who was 28 of 31 on field goals, and kick returner Chris Rainey, who had 1,035 kickoff return yards, the third-most in a single season in team history.

With the Steelers, Jones was instrumental in the development of Antonio Brown, who in 2011 set a franchise record with 2,048 all-purpose yards, with 1,062 of those yards coming on returns. Brown returned his first career touchdown on a punt return for 60 yards and registered an 89-yard kick return for a touchdown as well. Dating back to 1941, he became one of just three Steelers players with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown in a season. Brown finished the 2011 season with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a returner.

In 2009, the Steelers were the NFL's top kickoff return team with a franchise record 1,581 return yards. Stefan Logan had a team record 1,466 kickoff return yards, breaking the previous team record of 1,306 yards by Ernie Mills in 1995. Jones also coached the Steelers to the NFL's top kick coverage unit during the 2008 season. The units were led by Anthony Madison, who led the team with 25 special teams tackles, and Patrick Bailey, who was named the Steelers' Rookie of the Year for his outstanding work on special teams.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Jones spent three years at Mississippi State as special teams/linebackers coach (2004-05) and outside linebackers coach (2006). Under Jones' guidance, three linebackers earned freshman All-SEC recognition and two punters earned all-conference honors. Jones spent the 2003 season at James Madison University where he served as the Dukes tight ends and special teams coach. Prior to James Madison, Jones coached running backs and special teams for four years (1999-2002) at the University of Cincinnati. At Cincinnati, he helped All-American placekicker Jonathan Ruffin earn the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000. During that same span, punter Adam Wulfeck earned All-Conference USA honors, and Jones coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. He helped the Bearcats reach three bowl games (2000-01 Motor City Bowl, 2002 New Orleans Bowl) during his tenure at Cincinnati.

A veteran assistant coach at the high school, collegiate and professional level, Jones worked one season as an assistant coach with British Columbia of the Canadian Football League (1997), helping guide them to a Western Division playoff berth. He also coached linebackers at Tulane University for two seasons (1995-96) after spending the 1992 season at the University of Pittsburgh as kicking game coordinator.

A former player at Alabama (1978-80), Jones played safety and running back under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant with the Crimson Tide. He got his start in coaching under Bryant at Alabama as a graduate assistant from 1981-82. He then made the second of his two coaching stints with the Crimson Tide as special teams coach in 1990-91 under head coach Gene Stallings. In 1990 under his guidance, Alabama had the nation's top-rated percentage kicker (Philip Doyle).

Between his two assignments at Alabama, Jones served under head coach Bruce Arians at Temple University (1983-88). He coached tight ends (1983-85) and the defensive line (1986-88) at Temple, while also coordinating the Owls special teams.

A graduate of Alabama with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education and a minor in History, Jones was a member of the 1978 and '79 Tide teams that went 23-1 and earned back-to-back SEC titles, National Championships and Sugar Bowl crowns. Jones later earned his master's degree in Secondary Education from Alabama. Jones and his wife Stacey, have four children, daughter Samantha and sons Joshua, Nathan and Jeremy.

COACHING ASSISTANT/SPECIAL TEAMS

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/3
HOMETOWN: Birmingham, AL
DOB: July 23, 1976

Anthony Blevins enters his third season with the Cardinals after he joined the team as a coaching assistant/special teams on 2/14/13.

He came to the Cardinals after spending the 2012 season at his alma mater, the University of Alabama-Birmingham, as cornerbacks coach following three seasons at Tennessee State (2009-11) coaching special teams and cornerbacks. He also worked at the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2008 coaching cornerbacks while serving as recruiting coordinator.

Over the past two seasons with the Cardinals, Blevins helped special teamer Justin Bethel get selected to consecutive Pro Bowls after leading the team in special teams tackles in each season. In 2014, he coached rookie kicker Chandler Catanzaro as he tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a new franchise rookie record with 114 points.

Last season, punter Drew Butler tied for the NFL lead with 34 punts inside the 20-yard line (Donnie Jones) and in 2013, punter Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line and his 45.7-yard punting average ranked as the third-best single-season total in franchise history.

He was a part of the NFL's minority summer coaching internship program with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011, the Cardinals in 2010 and the Chicago Bears in 2008.

Blevins was a three-year letter winner at UAB as a cornerback for the Blazers (1995-98). He played professionally for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League (1999), the Birmingham Steeldogs of AFL2 (2000) and for the Birmingham Thunderbolts in the XFL from 2000-01.

He began his coaching career as the secondary coach and team community liaison at Meadowcreek (Gwinnett, GA) High School in 2003-04. From 2005-07 he served as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State, helping coach wide receivers and defensive backs for the Bulldogs while also assisting special teams.

A native of Birmingham, AL, Blevins graduated from UAB in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in Sociology and also earned a master's in Instructional Technology.

BRENTSON BUCKNER

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Clemson
HOMETOWN: Charlotte, NC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 15/3
DOB: September 30, 1971

Veteran NFL defensive lineman Brentson Buckner enters his third season with the Cardinals and third year as an NFL assistant after joining the team as defensive line coach on 2/5/13.

A second-round pick (50th overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Clemson, Buckner played in 174 games (127 starts) in his 12-year NFL career with Pittsburgh (1994-96), Cincinnati (1997), San Francisco (1998-2000) and Carolina (2001-05). He had 31 sacks, two interceptions, five forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries in his career.

In 2014, Buckner helped defensive end Calais Campbell earn his first Pro Bowl selection after he led the defensive line and finished second on the team with seven sacks. The Cardinals defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. In his first year as an assistant coach in 2013, the Cardinals defense finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history. Campbell had a career-high nine sacks and joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett as Pro Bowl alternates.

As a member of the Steelers, Buckner started all 16 games during the 1995 regular season and all three playoff games in helping the Steelers reach Super Bowl XXX, which was played at Sun Devil Stadium. After three years with Pittsburgh, he was traded to Kansas City in 1997, but was waived by the Chiefs and claimed by Cincinnati prior to the season.

He signed with the 49ers as a free agent in 1998 and spent three seasons in San Francisco, setting a career high with seven sacks in 2000. He went to Carolina as a free agent in 2001 and played the final five years of his career with the Panthers. In 2003, he was a part of one of the league's top defensive lines alongside defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker and defensive tackle Kris Jenkins. The group helped lead the Panthers to Super Bowl XXXVIII, the first Super Bowl appearance in franchise history. In that year's NFC Championship Game, Buckner had 1.5 sacks in a 14-3 victory at Philadelphia.

After retiring from the NFL following the 2005 season, Buckner entered the high school coaching ranks in his hometown of Charlotte, serving as the defensive coordinator at Victory Christian High School and then as head coach at Northside Christian Academy (2008-09). He served as a training camp coaching intern with the Steelers for three years (2010-12) and was named the head coach of the Charlotte Speed of the Professional Indoor Football League in July 2012, but the team folded before playing a game.

Born in Columbus, GA, Buckner played collegiately at Clemson (1990-93). A three-year starter, he left ranked third in school history with 22 sacks and fourth with 46 tackles for loss. He helped the Tigers to an ACC Championship in 1991 and a nine-win season in 1993, which was capped off by a 14-13 win over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl when he had 13 tackles and was named Defensive MVP. In 2013, Buckner was named to the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame Class.

RICK CHRISTOPHEL

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: Austin Peay
HOMETOWN: Reading, OH
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/3
DOB: October 27, 1952

Veteran collegiate coach Rick Christophel (KRIS-tuh-fell) enters his third season with the Cardinals and third year in the NFL after he joined the team as tight ends coach on 2/5/13. Christophel came to the Cardinals after spending the previous six years (2007-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay State University.

With the Cardinals in 2013, Christophel helped Arizona's offense finish 12th overall in the NFL and score 379 points on the year, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history. Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense that season were also good for fifth in team annals.

While at Austin Peay, Christophel led the Governors to a 7-4 record in his first season at the helm (2007) becoming the first Austin Peay head coach since his mentor Watson Brown (1979) to win seven games in his initial season. The seven wins represented the highest total by a Governors scholarship program since the 1984 team went 7-4 and their 5-3 Ohio Valley Conference record were their most league victories since 1980.

Prior to his stint as the head coach at Austin Peay, Christophel amassed more than 25 years of experience as a college assistant. He spent 12 years (1995-2006) at the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he served in a variety of roles at the school. He began his tenure in 1995 as offensive coordinator/running backs coach before coaching the team's wide receivers from 1996-98 where he tutored junior receiver Darrius Malone, who set the school's single-season record with an average of 22.1 yards per catch. In 1997, he coached quarterback Kevin Drake, who became the first offensive player in UAB history to go to the NFL when he signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals.

In 1999, Christophel worked with the Blazers offensive tackles and tight ends before serving as wide receivers coach in 2000, also taking on the title of director of football operations that year. In 2001, Christophel began the first of two stints as defensive coordinator at UAB, helping the Blazers defense lead the country in rushing yards allowed (57.3 ypg), ranking fifth nationally in total defense (265.9 ypg) and finishing 16th in scoring defense with (18.7 points per game). From 2002-03 he stepped away from coaching, serving as senior associate athletics director at the school.

He returned to the sideline in 2004 working with both the offensive and defensive line before becoming the assistant head coach/defensive line in 2005 and serving as the defensive coordinator for the second time at the school in 2006.

Prior to working at UAB, Christophel coached wide receivers at Mississippi State for four seasons (1991-94). From 1993-94, he worked alongside Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, who was the offensive coordinator for the Bulldogs at the time. During Christophel's tenure at Mississippi State, he coached three future NFL receivers – Eric Moulds, Olanda Truitt and Willie Harris. The Bulldogs played in three bowl games during that span as well (Liberty Bowl-1991 and Peach Bowl-1993 and 1995).

He coached at Vanderbilt for five seasons (1986-90), holding various titles including offensive backs coach (1986-88), defensive coordinator and middle linebackers coach (1989) and assistant head coach and offensive backs coach (1990).

Before working at Vanderbilt, Christophel coached quarterbacks and running backs at Rice (1984-85) and was the quarterbacks/tight ends coach at Cincinnati in 1983. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas State University in 1982 and coached running backs at Austin Peay for three seasons (1979-81). He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Austin Peay (1975) and was an assistant coach at Highlands High School (Fort Thomas, KY) from 1976-78.

Christophel was a four-year starter on the Governors football team (1971-74). A two-time captain, he played safety in his first season before switching to play quarterback for his final three years. His brothers, Rob and Randy, also played quarterback at Austin Peay.

He received a bachelor's degree in Business in 1975 and a master's in Education from Austin Peay. A native of Reading, OH, Christophel and his wife, Connie, have three daughters, Chrissy, Carrie and Sara, and seven grandchildren.

DARRYL DRAKE

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: Western Kentucky
HOMETOWN: Louisville, KY
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 12/3
DOB: December 11, 1956

Darryl Drake enters his third season with the Cardinals and 12th year as an NFL assistant after he joined the team as wide receivers coach on 2/5/13. He came to Arizona in 2013 after coaching wide receivers the previous nine seasons (2004-12) with the Chicago Bears.

With the Cardinals in 2013, Drake coached wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who was selected to his eighth career Pro Bowl after collecting 10 touchdowns, becoming one of just nine players in NFL history with at least 10 TDs in five different seasons. He also helped second-year receiver Michael Floyd to his first 1,000-yard season (1,041 yards) while collecting a career-high 65 receptions. The Cardinals offense finished 12th in the NFL and Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense were good for fifth in team history.

In 2012 with the Bears, Drake tutored Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who set Chicago franchise records with 118 catches for 1,508 yards to go along with 11 TDs. Marshall finished second in the NFL in both receptions and receiving yards behind Detroit's Calvin Johnson. Throughout his tenure in Chicago, Drake helped develop young talent at the wide receiver position, including Johnny Knox, Earl Bennett and Devin Hester. In 2011, Knox finished second in the NFL in receiving average (19.6 ypc) a year after finishing fifth in the NFL at 18.8 yards per reception. In 2009, Knox's 45 receptions tied for the most ever by a Bears rookie wide receiver, tied for third all-time by a Chicago rookie and was seventh among NFL rookies.

In 2009, the Bears were tied for the fewest dropped passes in the NFL with just 20. During Chicago's Super Bowl run in 2006, the Bears led the NFL by hauling in 95.9% (282 of 294) of the catchable balls thrown their way. The 12 drops by Chicago's receivers that season equaled Buffalo for fewest in the league.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2004, Drake coached for 21 seasons at the collegiate level. He spent six seasons (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach at the University of Texas, also adding the title of associate head coach on Mack Brown's staff prior to the 2003 season. At Texas, Drake guided three different Longhorn wide receivers to first-team All-Big 12 honors and directed three of the most productive receiving duos in Texas history. While coaching the first three 1,000-yard receivers in the school history, the Longhorns averaged nearly 10 wins a season. Drake mentored first-round draft pick Roy Williams, who finished his Texas career as the leading receiver in school history with 251 receptions for 4,017 yards (16.0 yards per reception) and 37 touchdowns. He also coached Wayne McGarity, a fourth-round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1999.

Prior to working at Texas, Drake spent one season (1997) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor after five seasons coaching wide receivers at Georgia (1992-96). During his time with the Bulldogs, Drake tutored some of the top receivers in the SEC, including NFL Pro Bowler Hines Ward.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, as a graduate assistant (1983-84) and spent nine seasons with the Hilltoppers, working with the wide receivers for four seasons (1985-88), the secondary for two years (1989-90) and serving as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1991.

Drake starred as a wide receiver for WKU in 1975 and during the 1977-78 seasons. He helped the Hilltoppers to an 8-2 record and the Ohio Valley Conference Championship as a senior and was a member of their 11-2 OVC Championship squad that played in the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1975.

Following his collegiate career, Drake spent time in training camp with the Washington Redskins (1979) and Cincinnati Bengals (1983) in addition to playing one season with the Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1981). The Louisville, KY, native earned his bachelor's degree in 1980 and a master's degree in 1984 from Western Kentucky.

Drake was an All-State performer in football and an All-American in both track and field and basketball at Flaget (Louisville, KY) High School. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, Felisha and Marian and two grandchildren.

LARRY FOOTE

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Michigan
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 14/2
DOB: June 12, 1980

Former Cardinals linebacker Larry Foote enters his first season as an assistant coach after joining Arizona's coaching staff in charge of inside linebackers.

He joined the Cardinals coaching staff after playing in the NFL the past 13 years, including last season with Arizona when he started 15 games and led the team with 105 tackles to go along with two sacks and a fumble recovery. It was his fourth career 100-tackle season. Foote helped Arizona's defense allow just 18.7 points per game in 2014, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games.

Foote is a two-time Super Bowl winner (XL, XLIII) who played 11 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-08, 2010-13) and one season with the Detroit Lions (2009). He began his career with the Steelers as a fourth-round (128th overall) pick in the 2002 NFL Draft out of Michigan and spent his first seven seasons in Pittsburgh where he started all 16 games in five straight seasons (2004-08). He set a career high with 123 tackles in 2005.

A Detroit, MI native, Foote played for his hometown Lions in 2009, starting 14 games and recording 99 tackles and two sacks before re-signing with the Steelers in 2010, where he played four seasons prior to joining the Cardinals in 2014.

In his 13 seasons, Foote played in 187 games (134 starts) and recorded 912 tackles (631 solos), 25 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions. He also appeared in 17 postseason games (11 starts), starting each postseason game for the Steelers en route to his two Super Bowl wins.

Foote played in 48 games (28 starts) in four seasons at Michigan and finished his career with 212 tackles (145 solos), 11 sacks and 44 tackles for loss, which ranked fourth in school history. He also had three INTs and 18 passes defensed and received the Roger Zatkoff Award as the team's top linebacker in 2001. As a senior, he was a first-team All-American selection by Football News, a second-team selection by The Sporting News and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus first-team all-conference selection. Foote was a first-team All-Big Ten choice by the league's coaches as a junior in 2000 and earned second-team honors from the media. He played in every game during his freshman and sophomore seasons. He majored in Physical Education in the division of Kinesiology.

He was a PrepStar Magazine High School All-American at Pershing (Detroit, MI) High School and earned all-state honors as a senior. Foote was rated the No. 2 player on the Detroit Free Press Fab 50 list after recording 377 tackles, 39 sacks and 52 tackles for loss and scoring 18 defensive TDs during his career. He played tight end in addition to linebacker and strong safety and caught 72 passes for 998 yards and 22 TDs. Foote and his wife, Jonelle, have four sons, Treyveion, Larry, Trammell, and Mason and one daughter, Jalyn.

KEVIN GARVER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Birmingham, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/3
DOB: July 28, 1987

Kevin Garver enters his third season with the Cardinals and third year in the NFL after joining the team as an offensive assistant on 2/5/13. He assists Daryl Drake in coaching the Cardinals wide receivers.

In 2013, the Cardinals offense totaled 379 points, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history while also collecting 5,542 net yards of offense, also good for fifth in team annals.

Garver joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous six years working for the University of Alabama football program under head coach Nick Saban, where he was part of a staff that won three national championships in four years (2009, 2011-12).

He began working with the Crimson Tide football team as a student assistant in February 2007 after the arrival of Saban and spent three seasons in that role. In 2008, the Tide went undefeated during the regular season and played in the SEC Championship Game, and the following season they went 14-0 and won the BCS National Championship Game.

Garver then spent the next two seasons as a graduate assistant at Alabama, helping the Tide win their second BCS National Championship Game in 2011.

In 2012, Garver moved into an offensive analyst position and helped Alabama become the first team since Nebraska in 1994-95 to win back-to-back consensus national championships. They ranked second in the SEC and 11th in the country with 38.7 points per game, and quarterback A.J. McCarron led the nation with a 175.3 pass efficiency rating.

He graduated from Alabama with a bachelor's degree in Marketing in 2009 and then earned a master's degree in Marketing in 2012. Garver and his wife, Julie, have a son, Jackson and daughter, Savannah.

STEVE HEIDEN

ASST. SPECIAL TEAMS/ASST. TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: South Dakota State
HOMETOWN: Rushford, MN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 14/3
DOB: September 21, 1976

Veteran NFL tight end Steve Heiden enters his third season with the Cardinals as an assistant coach after he joined the team as assistant special teams/assistant tight ends coach on 2/5/13.

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, the Cardinals offense totaled 379 points, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history while also collecting 5,542 net yards of offense, also ranking fifth in team single-season annals.

After playing in the NFL for 11 seasons (1999-2009), Heiden entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as tight ends coach at Concordia University in St. Paul, MN.

A third-round selection (69th overall) of the Chargers in the 1999 NFL Draft out of South Dakota State, Heiden spent three years in San Diego (1999-2001) before being traded to Cleveland where he played eight seasons with the Browns (2002-09). Over his NFL career, Heiden played 148 games with 83 starts and totaled 201 receptions for 1,689 yards and 14 TDs.

With the Browns, Heiden played two seasons (2002-03) under Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, who was Cleveland's offensive coordinator at the time. In 2004, Heiden set a career high with five touchdown receptions, which included a franchise-record-tying three TDs in one game (@ Cincinnati, 11/28/04). He enjoyed his most productive season statistically in 2005 when he started 13 games and recorded 43 catches for 401 yards.

A native of Rushford, MN, Heiden played college football at South Dakota State and totaled 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and eight touchdowns. He earned first-team All-North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors as a senior in 1998 and was voted second-team All-American by The Sports Network. He is one of only 28 players in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft.

Heiden and his wife, Jessica, have two daughters, Madison and Presley.

ROGER KINGDOM

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
HOMETOWN: Vienna, GA
DOB: August 26, 1962

A two-time Olympic Gold Medalist in the 110-meter hurdles in 1984 and 1988, Roger Kingdom enters his second year with the Cardinals as an assistant strength and conditioning coach after he joined the team on 3/6/14. Kingdom is a former world and American record holder and one of only two runners to ever win consecutive Olympic titles (Los Angeles, Seoul) in the 110-meter hurdles.

He joined the Cardinals in 2014 following 10 years at California University of Pennsylvania as the Director of the Track & Field and Cross Country programs after he was hired in 2004.

Kingdom is a five-time United States outdoor champion (1985, 1988-90, 1995) and won gold medals at the Pan American Games (1983, 1985), the World Cup (1989) the World University Games (1989) and the Goodwill Games (1990). He set a world record of 12.92 seconds in the 110-meter hurdles in Zurich, Switzerland in August of 1989, a mark that would last until 1993.

He was named the 1989 USA Track and Field Athlete of the Year, the 1989 Jesse Owens International Amateur Athlete of the Year and the Track and Field News 1989 Athlete of the Year. Kingdom retired from active competition in 1998.

During his tenure at California University (PA), Kingdom mentored a handful of All-Americans as well as several Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) indoor and outdoor champions including 14-time PSAC Champion and two-time All-American Brad Rager who excelled in the 200 and 400-meter dashes and Brice Myers, a six-time NCAA Division II All-American and six-time PSAC champion in the 110 meter hurdles.

In 2006, Kingdom and the Vulcans hosted the PSAC Championships for the first time in program history and in 2008 the men's team posted its best finish in school history at the indoor league championships.

A Vienna, GA native, Kingdom was inducted into the USA Track and Field Hall of Fame in 2005. He has also been inducted into the USTAF Georgia Hall of Fame in 2011, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 2002. He got his first taste of the NFL as a volunteer strength and conditioning intern with the Cleveland Browns under current Cardinals strength and conditioning coach Buddy Morris in 2002-03.

Kingdom attended the University of Pittsburgh on a football scholarship and played two seasons while also excelling on the school's track team where he won the NCAA outdoor national championship in the 110-meter hurdles in 1983 and the NCAA indoor national championship in the 55-meter hurdles in 1984.

He graduated from Pittsburgh in 2002. As a student at Vienna (GA) High School, Kingdom won the state title in the 120-yard hurdles, high jump and discus in 1980 and 1981 and was twice selected as the Outstanding Track and Field Athlete in the state of Georgia. Kingdom and his wife, Mary, have three daughters, Jierra, Cierra, and Carina.

FREDDIE KITCHENS

QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Gadsen, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 10/9
DOB: November 29, 1974

Former Alabama quarterback Freddie Kitchens enters his ninth season on the Cardinals coaching staff and third in the role of quarterbacks coach after his appointment to the position on 2/5/13. He previously served as Arizona's tight ends coach for six seasons after joining the team on 2/6/07.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. His offensive coordinator as a senior in 1997 was current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians. Upon his departure, he ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1995 Citrus Bowl and the 1997 Outback Bowl.

Last season, Palmer became the first Cardinals quarterback to win each of his first six starts in a season since Jim Hart (7) in 1974. Palmer improved to 16-6 as the Cardinals quarterback, the best record for an Arizona QB in his first 22 games with the team in the modern era.

Following an offseason in 2013 where he fell ill during an OTA practice on June 4 that required immediate emergency surgery at the Arizona Heart Institute due to an aortic dissection, Kitchens recovered in time for the first day of training camp and helped a Cardinals offense that finished 12th in the NFL. Quarterback Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards and became the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Palmer also had 24 TD passes and completed 362 passes while leading the Cardinals offense that had 5,542 net yards, the fifth-most in franchise history.

In 2012, Cardinals tight end Rob Housler had 45 receptions for 417 yards. In franchise history, only two TEs (Jackie Smith and Freddie Jones) had more catches in a season than Housler did in 2012. In 2011, Kitchens oversaw a group of tight ends that contributed 65 receptions for 712 yards and four touchdowns. In 2007, Kitchens' tight end trio of Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick and Troy Bienemann helped the Cardinals finish with the fifth best passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most by the Cardinals since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second-best red zone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

Kitchens began his NFL coaching career in 2006 with the Dallas Cowboys after seven years of coaching in college. With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games. He went to the NFL after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a Mississippi State single-season record with four TD receptions.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas (2001-03) and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. Cobbs went on to play five seasons (2006-2010) in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins collecting 580 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns. During his first two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tigers staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He returned to his hometown in April of 2015 when he was one of four individuals inducted into the Etowah County Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters, Bennett and Camden.

STUMP MITCHELL

RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: The Citadel
HOMETOWN: Kingsland, GA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 23/12
DOB: March 15, 1959

A standout running back and return specialist for nine seasons with the Cardinals (1981-89), Lyvonia "Stump" Mitchell enters his third season as Arizona's running backs coach and 14th overall as an NFL assistant after being hired on 2/5/13.

In 2013, Mitchell helped coach a group of Cardinals running backs that featured rookie Andre Ellington, who totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (652 rushing, 371 receiving), becoming just the fifth rookie in team history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage. His 5.53-yard rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts and was the highest average for any rookie in team history and the highest for a Cardinals running back since John David Crow (5.85) in 1960. Combined with veteran Rashard Mendenhall (687 yards and eight TDs), the 2013 season marked the first time since 1988 that the Cardinals had two players with 600+ rushing yards in a season.

Mitchell joined the Cardinals in 2013 after working as the head coach at Southern from 2010-12, before being re-assigned within the program following a 0-2 start to the '12 season. Prior to his tenure at Southern, Mitchell spent two seasons as the running backs coach and assistant head coach for the Washington Redskins (2008-09). During his first season with the Redskins, he oversaw the NFL's eighth-ranked rushing attack, and Clinton Portis, who was selected to the Pro Bowl that season, had 1,487 yards, which at the time was the second-highest single season total in franchise history. He also tutored FB Mike Sellers who joined Portis in the Pro Bowl in 2008.

He began his NFL coaching career in 1999 and worked nine years as the running backs coach for the Seahawks under head coach Mike Holmgren. Mitchell coached a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his first seven seasons with Seattle (Ricky Watters and Shaun Alexander). Under his tutelage, Alexander was a three-time Pro Bowler and was named 2005 NFL MVP after leading the NFL with a franchise-record 1,880 rushing yards and setting a then-NFL record with 28 TDs (NFL-record 27 rushing TDs, 1 receiving TD). In 2004, Alexander led the NFC with 1,696 rushing yards and 20 TDs. During the 2003 season, Alexander made his first career Pro Bowl after rushing for 1,435 yards, and in 2002, he had 16 rushing TDs. Alexander's backfield teammate, fullback Mack Strong, was also voted to the Pro Bowl in 2005 and 2006 under Mitchell's guidance.

Mitchell joined the Seahawks following three years as head coach of Morgan State University (1996-98). He originally joined the MSU staff in 1995 as offensive coordinator before being promoted the following year. Under Mitchell's tutelage, the Bears boasted a rushing attack that averaged 148.9 yards per game in 1997.

A ninth-round selection (226th overall) by the Cardinals in the 1981 NFL Draft, Mitchell spent his entire nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals. He currently holds the franchise record with 11,988 all-purpose yards and ranks second all-time in rushing yards (4,649), punt return yards (1,377) and kickoff return yards (4,007), while also adding 1,955 career receiving yards. Mitchell's 42 career TDs are tied for the 10th best total in team annals. Mitchell posted 14 100-yard rushing games in his career and finished with a 4.7-yard rushing average, which ranks as the second-highest career mark in team history. He had a 5.6-yard rushing average in 1981 (31 for 175 yards), earning All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly, who also awarded him All-NFC honors as a kickoff returner in 1984.

In addition to his success on the field, Mitchell was also honored with the Chuck Drulis Award in 1982 and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1984 for his work in the community.

Mitchell's coaching career began in the spring of 1991 when he served as running backs coach for the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF). He then worked as the head coach at Casa Grande (AZ) High School (1991-94), where he led the team to the state playoffs in his second season.

BUDDY MORRIS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: South Park, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 5/2
DOB: September 29, 1957

Buddy Morris enters his second season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 3/4/14. Previously with the Cleveland Browns from 2002-04 where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, Morris returned to the NFL in 2014 after working at the collegiate level for 19 years.

A native of South Park, PA, Morris has an extensive background in strength and conditioning dating back to his first job at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, where he began his coaching career in 1980 in the first of his three stints with the Panthers. He worked under head coach Jackie Sherrill from 1980-89 and aided in the development of future NFL Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Rickey Jackson, Chris Doleman and Russ Grimm. During that period, Morris helped train 13 first round NFL draft picks and 15 first-team All-Americans.

Morris specializes in workouts that focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility.

After working as the wellness director for the Horizon Hospital System in Sharon, PA from 1989-97, Morris returned to Pittsburgh and worked from 1997-2001. During his second tenure at Pitt, the Panthers made three bowl appearances: the 1997 Liberty Bowl, the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. Morris also developed the moniker for the Panthers strength and conditioning program, "The Pitt Iron Works." In 2009, Muscle & Fitness Magazine name Morris' gym one of the 10 toughest in America.

Morris then joined Butch Davis and the Cleveland Browns for three seasons before working at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its Director of Sports Performance. After one season in Buffalo, he went back for his third stint at Pitt under head coach Dave Wannstedt where he worked from 2007-10. The Panthers made the 2008 Sun Bowl and the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl during that period.

Following his third stop at Pitt, Morris and his family opened a private gym in Buffalo called the New York Sports Center where he worked with athletes at all levels through personal training, group fitness classes and injury rehabilitation.

Morris worked with Roger Kingdom, the Cardinals assistant strength & conditioning coach and 1984 and 1988 Olympic gold medalist in 110-meter hurdles. He also helped develop NFL Hall of Fame running back Curtis Martin and Pro Bowl guard Ruben Brown while both were at Pitt.

He graduated from Pittsburgh in 1980 after lettering for four years (1977-80) in track and field. Morris is married to Monica and he has two daughters, Kara and Claire, and two stepsons, Fred and Troy.

TOM PRATT

PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

COLLEGE: Miami (FL)
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 37/3
DOB: June 21, 1935

Veteran assistant coach Tom Pratt enters his third season with the Cardinals as pass rush specialist and 37th season in the NFL after being hired on 2/5/13. Only Tennessee's Dick LeBeau (43rd season) has more experience among active NFL coaches. After starting as a coach at his alma mater, the University of Miami, in 1957, Pratt enters his 44th season as an assistant coach in 2015.

Pratt, who began his professional coaching career with Kansas City in 1963, helped the Chiefs win AFL championships in 1966 and 1969 and reach Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV. He has coached four players who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Buck Buchanan, Derrick Thomas, Curley Culp and Warren Sapp). He is also the only current coach in the league to own the distinction of coaching in the NFL in six different decades – '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s, '00s and '10s and is the only active NFL assistant to have coached in the American Football League.

Last season, defensive end Calais Campbell was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the defensive line with seven sacks. Arizona's defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The Cardinals defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

In 2013, Pratt helped a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history. Campbell had a career-high nine sacks and joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett as Pro Bowl alternates.

Pratt returned to coaching in 2013 after spending the previous three years as a defensive coordinator consultant with IMG Academies in Florida, helping to train draft eligible players for the NFL. Prior to joining the Cardinals, his last job in the NFL was the assistant defensive line coach with the Chiefs in 2000, helping out while defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz was being treated for cancer. That was Pratt's third different stint with Kansas City (1963-77, 1989-94 and 2000).

During his first stop with the Chiefs (1963-77), Pratt had a hand in molding some of the finest defensive performers to ever wear a Kansas City uniform. In the 1960s, when he served as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram, the Chiefs defensive front helped the club win its lone World Championship in 1969 with a 23-7 victory over Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

Hall of Fame tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp combined with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown to form arguably the finest defensive line in the AFL's 10-year history. Buchanan, who passed away in 1992, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990, and Culp was selected as a member of the 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame class.

After his initial 15-year stay in Kansas City, Pratt coached the defensive line with the New Orleans Saints (1978-80) and Cleveland Browns (1981-88) before returning to the Chiefs for another six seasons (1989-94) under Marty Schottenheimer. While in Cleveland, he worked with defensive tackle Bob Golic, who was a three-time Pro Bowl selection (1985-87), and defensive end Reggie Camp, who had 14 sacks in 1984 and accumulated 29.5 sacks from 1984-86.

In his second stint with the Chiefs as defensive line coach (1989-94), Pratt tutored the late Derrick Thomas, a 2009 Hall of Fame inductee. Even though Thomas was listed as a linebacker, he played the Chiefs "rushbacker" position in 1993 and worked with Pratt on the defensive line. Thomas made his fifth straight Pro Bowl appearance that season as Kansas City advanced to the AFC Championship Game. Defensive end Neil Smith also flourished under Pratt, recording four straight Pro Bowl berths under his guidance (1991-94), while defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua earned first-team Pro Football Weekly All-Pro honors in 1990.

Pratt spent the 1995 season as defensive line coach with Tampa Bay, tutoring Hall of Fame defensive tackle Warren Sapp in his rookie season, before coaching at the United States Coast Guard Academy in 1997. He then spent two years (1998-99) as a football ambassador in Osaka, Japan for the Asahi Challengers in the Japanese Company League of American football. He returned to work with the Challengers for the 2000 season as they won the Japanese Super Bowl. He also served as a consultant at Kyoto University in Japan from 2002-04.

He played linebacker collegiately at the University of Miami from 1953-56 where Stram was an assistant coach at the time. Pratt earned All-American honors in 1956 and was inducted into the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 1991. After graduating from Miami in 1957 with a degree in Education, he stayed at his alma mater as an assistant for four years (1957-60). He then coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from 1961-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City in 1963.

Pratt and his wife, Hope, have three children, daughters Kendra and Shana, and son Tyler, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

NICK RAPONE

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Virginia Tech
HOMETOWN: New Castle, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/3
DOB: April 25, 1956

Long-time college coach Nick Rapone (ruh-pone) enters his third season with the Cardinals and third year in the NFL after he joined Arizona as defensive backs coach on 2/5/13.

Rapone, a veteran of 36 seasons as a coach, including 30 as a collegiate assistant, joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous seven years (2006-12) at the University of Delaware as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Last season, cornerbacks Patrick Peterson and Antonio Cromartie were both selected to the Pro Bowl. It was Peterson's third consecutive Pro Bowl selection at cornerback and Cromartie's third straight Pro Bowl and fourth of his career in his first season in Arizona. The Cardinals defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. Arizona's defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

With the Cardinals in 2013, Rapone helped a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and forced 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

At Delaware, Rapone was a part of two NCAA national runner-up teams, including the 2010 season when he helped the Blue Hens to a 12-3 record and a share of the Colonial Athletic Association title. For his coaching efforts that season, Rapone was named the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year. That season his defense led the nation in scoring (12.1 ppg), ranked fifth in total defense (280.7 ypg) and was 12th in rushing defense (105.3 ypg). The secondary included four All-CAA performers, including All-American selections Anthony Walters and Anthony Bratton at safety. The Hens also ranked ninth in the nation in passing efficiency (102.7), and the team's 21 interceptions were the third-highest total in the nation at the FCS level.

Rapone helped the Blue Hens to another outstanding season in 2007 when Delaware went 11-4 and advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS title game with quarterback Joe Flacco. The Blue Hens captured the Lambert Cup Trophy as the top team in the East and was named the ECAC Team of the Year.

A native of New Castle, PA, Rapone was an All-State receiver at New Castle High School prior to attending Virginia Tech where he was a four-year letterman for the Hokies (1974-77). While at Virginia Tech, he played with Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians in 1974 when Arians was a senior and Rapone was a freshman. Arians then served as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played for the Hokies.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1979 where he worked with the secondary for two seasons before serving as defensive backs coach at East Tennessee State (I-AA) from 1981-82. He reunited with Arians as part of his staff at Temple, coaching the Owls secondary for six seasons (1983-88) while also serving as defensive coordinator from 1985-88.

He returned to Pitt as defensive backs coach for four years (1989-92), doubling as defensive coordinator in 1992. Rapone then became the head coach at his alma mater, New Castle High School, for two seasons (1993-94). He returned to the college game in 1995 at then Division I-AA University of Connecticut under head coach Skip Holtz, serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for four seasons and helping the Huskies to the I-AA playoffs for the first time in school history in 1998. That squad was ranked No. 7 in the final The Sports Network Top 25 poll and was led by a defense that forced 29 turnovers on the season.

Rapone then returned for his second tenure at Temple and served as defensive backs coach and kickoff coverage coach for seven years (1999-2005). The Owls were one of only eight teams in the nation to rank in the top 20 in total defense in both 2001 and 2002.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Education from Virginia Tech in 1979 and his master's degree in Education from Pittsburgh in 1981. Rapone has two daughters, Johanna and Mary.

KEVIN ROSS

CORNERBACKS

COLLEGE: Temple
HOMETOWN: Paulsboro, NJ
DOB: January 16, 1962

Former Pro Bowl defensive back Kevin Ross begins his third season with the Cardinals as cornerbacks coach after he joined the team on 2/5/13. A 14-year NFL veteran as a player, Ross enters his 10th season as an assistant coach after previous jobs with Oakland (2010-11), San Diego (2007-08) and Minnesota (2003-05). In Arizona, Ross reunited with head coach Bruce Arians under whom he played as a team captain during his senior season at Temple in 1983.

Last season, cornerbacks Patrick Peterson and Antonio Cromartie were both selected to the Pro Bowl. It was Peterson's third consecutive Pro Bowl selection at cornerback and Cromartie's third straight Pro Bowl and fourth of his career. Arizona's defense allowed just 18.7 points per game, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The Cardinals defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267).

In 2013, Ross helped the Cardinals defense finish as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and force 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions, which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Ross coached safeties with Oakland (2010-11) helping the Raiders record 30 interceptions in two seasons. His tenure in Oakland followed one season as an assistant for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League (2009).

From 2007-08, Ross assisted coaching defensive backs with the San Diego Chargers. In 2007, the Chargers led the NFL in INTs during both the regular season (30) and postseason (six). The 30 INTs in the regular season were the most by a San Diego defense in 38 years and it marked the first time a Chargers defense ever led the NFL in interceptions.

Ross began his NFL coaching career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002 at training camp as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Program. In 2003, he worked as the Vikings assistant secondary coach where he stayed through the 2005 season. In his first year in Minnesota, the Vikings were second in the NFL with 28 INTs. In his second season, the Vikings advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoffs.

He played defensive back in the NFL for 14 seasons (1984-97) and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. Ross was selected by Kansas City in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft and made an immediate impact with the Chiefs as a rookie when he posted a career-high six INTs to earn consensus All-Rookie honors. He played 11 seasons with Kansas City (1984-93; 1997), earning Pro Bowl selections in 1989 and 1990. He also played two seasons in Atlanta (1994-95) and one with San Diego (1996). He retired following the 1997 season with 1,142 tackles, 38 INTs and two touchdowns. Ross was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Ross spent four years coaching high school football at Camden High School (1999-00) and at Woodrow Wilson High (2001-02) in his native Camden, N.J.

Ross was an All-State and all-conference linebacker and running back at Paulsboro (N.J.) High School and a four-year letterman at Temple (1980-83). While at Temple, Ross appeared in 39 games and totaled 249 tackles with 13 INTs. Ross has three daughters, Celia, Cherrelle and Kassidy, and two sons, Jovair and Kevin, Jr.

BOB SANDERS

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Davidson
HOMETOWN: Jacksonville, NC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 15/1
DOB: December 5, 1953

Veteran assistant coach Bob Sanders enters his first season as linebackers coach with the Cardinals after he was hired on 2/4/15. He comes to Arizona after spending the past two seasons coaching the same position with the Oakland Raiders. Sanders is entering his 37th season as an assistant coach, including his 15th year in the NFL.

With the Raiders in 2014, Sanders helped tutor rookie linebacker Khalil Mack as he collected 84 tackles, four sacks, four passes defensed and one forced fumble while starting all 16 games. Mack was selected as one of the finalists for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. In 2013, Sanders oversaw a linebacker corps that featured three new starters – Kevin Burnett, Nick Roach and rookie Sio Moore. Roach, who played every snap at MLB that season, set career highs with 152 tackles and 5.5 sacks and was named to the USA Today All-Joe Team, while Moore garnered PFWA all-rookie honors after totaling 4.5 sacks.

Prior to coming to Oakland, Sanders spent four seasons with Buffalo, having joined the Bills as defensive line coach in 2009 before coaching outside linebackers the next two seasons (2010-11) and taking over all of the linebackers in 2012.

Sanders coached in Green Bay for four seasons (2005-08), including the last three years as defensive coordinator. He started with the Packers as defensive ends coach (2005) for one season and was named by Mike McCarthy as the new head coach's first defensive coordinator, a role he held from 2006-08. During his final Packers season in 2008, Green Bay paced the NFL with six INTs returned for touchdowns and tied for the NFC lead with 22 interceptions. In 2007, Green Bay ranked sixth in scoring defense, 11th in total defense and 3rd in opponent third-down-conversion percentage, posting a 13-3 record and earning a spot in the NFC Championship game, and in 2006, Green Bay led the NFC with 46 sacks.

His first NFL coaching position came with the Miami Dolphins for four seasons (2001-04) as linebackers coach. While in Miami, Sanders coached Zach Thomas, helping Thomas to three straight Pro Bowl selections.

A college assistant for 22 years, his final collegiate job was at the University of Florida, where he helped three Gators (Jevon Kearse, Kevin Carter and Huey Richardson) earn first-round selections in the NFL Draft. Sanders spent 11 years in Gainesville (1990-2000) and held six coaching titles, ranging from defensive line to linebackers. He also spent one season as assistant head coach and nine years as assistant defensive coordinator. Florida led the SEC in sacks in four straight years (1996-99) and Sanders helped the Gators to five conference crowns and the 1996 National Championship during his tenure.

Prior to coaching at Florida, Sanders spent five seasons at Duke (1985-89), the first four as outside linebackers/defensive ends coach, and the final campaign as co-defensive coordinator/outside linebackers. In sharing the defensive reins in 1989, he helped the Blue Devils to an 8-4 season and their first Atlantic Coast Conference title since 1965.

Sanders coached for two years at Richmond (1983-84) and three seasons at East Carolina (1980-82). His first collegiate position was as a part-time coach for head coach Pepper Rodgers at Georgia Tech in 1978, sandwiched between three years (1976-77, 1979) of coaching at the high-school level.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Sanders played on the defensive side of the ball at Davidson College (1972-75) and earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science. Sanders and his wife, Kathie, have three children, Lindsay, Sarah and Robby.

LARRY ZIERLEIN

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Fort Hays State College
HOMETOWN: Lenora, KS
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 11/3
DOB: July 12, 1945

Larry Zierlein (ZURL-line) enters his third season with the Cardinals and 11th in the NFL after he joined the team as assistant offensive line coach on 2/5/13. He previously coached in the NFL as the offensive line coach with Pittsburgh (2007-09), the assistant offensive line coach with Buffalo (2006) and the offensive line coach with Cleveland (2001-04).

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, the Cardinals offense finished 12th overall in the NFL and scored 379 points on the year, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history. Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense last season were also good for fifth in team annals.

While in Pittsburgh, Zierlein helped the Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII after ranking third in the NFL in rushing with 2,168 yards in 2007. Running back Willie Parker finished fourth in the league with 1,316 rushing yards that season, earning a Pro Bowl selection, while guard Alan Faneca was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl. The Steelers had two 1,000-yard backs in three seasons with Zierlein in charge of the offensive line (Parker with 1,316 yards in 2007 and Rashard Mendenhall had 1,108 yards in 2009).

Prior to his one year in Buffalo, Zierlein helped Cleveland's offense average 4.1 yards per rush and 104.4 rushing yards per game in 2003. During his stops in both Pittsburgh and Cleveland, Zierlein worked under then offensive coordinator Bruce Arians.

Zierlein, who has 40 years of coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional level, spent four seasons as offensive line coach for the University of Cincinnati (1997-2000). He helped Cincinnati set a Conference USA rushing record with 215.5 yards per game in 1997, and his 1999 offensive line set a school record by allowing just eight sacks, the fewest in the nation that year, despite having four first-year starters.

In addition to his tenure at Cincinnati, Zierlein had two stints as the offensive line coach at Tulane (1995-96; 1988-90), spent two seasons at LSU (1993-94) and served as offensive line coach at the University of Houston (1978-86) for nine seasons.

Zierlein worked as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in 1991-92 and as an assistant coach for the Washington Commandos of the Arena Football League in 1987. He also coached the offensive line with the Hartford Colonials in the United Football League in 2011 and the Sacramento Mountain Lions in 2012.

In addition to coaching, Zierlein also served in the United States Marine Corps from 1966-68, including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam (1967).

A 1971 graduate of Fort Hays (KS) State College after playing defensive end, Zierlein began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant/linebackers coach. After two years at Fort Hays State, he spent six years at the high school level, coaching at Abernathy (TX) High School from 1972-74 and Lamar Consolidated (TX) High School from 1975-77.

A native of Lenora, KS, Zierlein and his wife, Marcia have three children, sons Lance and Mike and daughter Nicci, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

TERRY McDONOUGH

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Terry McDonough begins his third season with the Cardinals and second as Vice President, Player Personnel after being promoted in January, 2014. In his current role with the Cardinals, McDonough oversees both the college and pro personnel departments while assisting with player contract negotiations.

Entering his 24th year of scouting in the NFL, McDonough joined the Cardinals in 2013 as an Eastern Regional Scout after spending the previous 10 years with the Jacksonville Jaguars, including his last four seasons as the team's Director, Player Personnel. He joined the Jaguars in 2003 and was promoted to Director, Player Personnel in January, 2009. In that role, McDonough scouted the top collegiate players throughout the nation as well as the top free agent prospects each year.

This offseason, McDonough was named to an advisory council for the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship, a new NFL program to encourage former players to pursue a career in professional scouting. The fellowship is named in honor of longtime Steelers personnel director Bill Nunn and former NFL player and front office executive John Wooten.

A Boston, MA native, McDonough began his NFL scouting career as an intern with San Francisco in 1989, a season in which the 49ers went 14-2 in the regular season and beat the Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV. Following his graduation from Massachusetts with a degree in Sports Management, he was named player personnel director of the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1990. While with the Dragons (1990-92), McDonough handled a variety of personnel assignments, serving as the team's West Coast scout and helping each team prepare for the WFL draft. McDonough toured NFL and CFL training camps to grade potential WFL players. The 1991 Barcelona team finished with a 9-3 record, losing the league title to London in the World Bowl. The following season, the Dragons captured the European championship.

In 1992, McDonough was hired by the Cleveland Browns as a southeast area scout, and he moved to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996. With the Ravens, McDonough served as the eastern college supervisor for three years under the direction of General Manager Ozzie Newsome. During McDonough's tenure with the Ravens, the team won Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 season.

McDonough was all-conference as a running back at Hingham (MA) High School in football as well as in baseball, and he also lettered in basketball before he transferred to Bridgton Academy.

He is the son of the late Will McDonough, the longtime sports reporter and columnist for The Boston Globe who also worked at CBS Sports and NBC Sports. He is also the brother of Phoenix Suns general manager, Ryan McDonough, and his other brother Sean McDonough, is the play-by-play man with ESPN covering college football and basketball as well as professional baseball, hockey, golf and tennis. He was previously on air for CBS Sports and was the television voice of the Boston Red Sox.

McDonough and his wife, Lynette have three children, daughter, Caroline, and sons, Patrick and Brendan.

MIKE DISNER

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Mike Disner (pronounced DIZZner) enters his third season with the Cardinals after being hired as Director, Football Administration in February, 2013. He joined the Cardinals from the NFL Management Council where he worked for four years as Labor Operations Manager (2012) and Labor Operations Coordinator (2009-11).

Disner has an extensive background and experience in salary cap regulations and player contract compliance. While at the NFL Management Council, he was an integral part of negotiations in helping to develop the most recent Collective Bargaining Agreement. He also helped develop the rookie system, managed the salary cap reconciliation process and developed analytical tools to assist clubs in decision-making processes.

Prior to working for the NFL Management Council, Disner worked with the New England Patriots for two years after beginning his professional career as a scouting assistant in 2007. He interned with the Patriots for two summers (2005 and '06) while working on his degree in Economics which he received from Williams College (MA) in 2007.

During the 2014 offseason, Disner was selected to Forbes "30 Under 30" list, honoring 30 athletes or executives 30 years or younger making a mark in the sports industry.

The West Bloomfield, MI native played baseball at Williams College where he was a two-year starter as a pitcher. Disner and his wife, Gail reside in Chandler, AZ.

QUENTIN HARRIS
DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Former Cardinals safety Quentin Harris begins his eighth season in Arizona's scouting department and third as Director, Pro Scouting after being promoted in May, 2013. Originally hired in June, 2008 as a pro scout, Harris was first elevated to Assistant Pro Personnel Director in 2010. A free safety for four seasons with the Cardinals (2002-05), Harris began his scouting career in 2008 after finishing his NFL playing days with the Denver Broncos in 2007.

Harris was signed by the Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent in May, 2002 out of Syracuse and appeared in 54 games over four seasons, including six starts. He led the Cardinals in special teams tackles for two consecutive seasons (19 in 2004, 24 in 2005) before signing as a free agent with the New York Giants in 2006. After being waived by the Giants following training camp, Harris was signed by the Broncos later that season and appeared in six games.

He finished his NFL career with 50 tackles (42 solos), a sack, an interception, five passes defensed, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and 58 special teams tackles in 60 career games (six starts).

Harris was a four-year starter at free safety for Syracuse where he finished his Orange career with 327 tackles (183 solos), four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 10 interceptions in 42 career games. Harris left Syracuse ninth in school history for career interceptions while also being chosen as an honorable mention All-American, first-team All-Big East conference selection and a second-team choice from the conference's coaches as a senior in 2001.

Harris was an honorable mention All-America selection at Wyoming Seminary Upper School in Kingston, PA and received a bachelor's degree in Information Studies from Syracuse in 2001.

Harris and his wife Tara have a daughter, Aliyah, and two sons, Amani and Elijah.

DRU GRIGSON
DIRECTOR, COLLEGE SCOUTING

Dru Grigson begins his third season as Director, College Scouting after being promoted in May, 2013. He is entering his eighth season with the Cardinals after originally joining the team as an area scout in June, 2008 following one year with the Montreal Alouettes (CFL) as a scout.

Grigson was promoted to a regional scout in 2010 in charge of scouting the eastern half of the country after previously scouting the central and southeast regions during his first season with Arizona and scouting the Midwest and eastern sections in his second season.

A Highland, IN native, Grigson played linebacker and defensive end at New Mexico State from 1997-99 before transferring to the University of Northern Iowa in 2000. He finished his collegiate playing career at William Penn University in 2002 and recorded 54 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and two pass deflections.

Grigson signed as a rookie free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 2003 and attended training camp with the Ottawa Renegades of the CFL in 2004.

Prior to joining the Alouettes in 2007, he was a volunteer scout for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005-06 and worked with his brother, Ryan, the former Director of Player Personnel for the Eagles and the current GM of the Indianapolis Colts.

Grigson is a certified strength and conditioning coach and has trained NFL prospects. He assisted the Northwestern University speed and strength program in 2004. Grigson graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in 2002 and resides in Chicago, IL with his wife, Jennifer, and their daughter, Mia and son, Kaz.

MALIK BOYD
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Malik Boyd enters his 11th season in the Cardinals scouting department and second as Assistant Director of Pro Scouting after he was promoted in May, 2014. Prior to that promotion, he worked as the team's Western Regional Scout after being elevated in 2013. He originally joined the Cardinals in June, 2005 as an area scout and was first promoted to a regional scout with the in 2008.

He began his scouting career with Indianapolis in 2003 and spent two years with the Colts. In his current role with the Cardinals, Boyd evaluates current NFL players and top college prospects while also assisting in the advance scouting of future opponents and helping to coordinate free agent workouts.

In February, 2014 Boyd was named the NFC Scout of the Year by the Fritz Pollard Alliance in a ceremony at the NFL Combine in Indianapolis, IN.

A Houston, TX native, Boyd attended Southern University where he played defensive back and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling/Psychology in 1994. He went on to play for the Minnesota Vikings (1994-95), the New Orleans Saints (1996) and was with British Columbia in the CFL (1997). Serving as a nickel back during his rookie season with the Vikings, Boyd led all non-starters with 42 tackles and an interception.

After his playing career was finished, Boyd served as the defensive backs coach at his alma mater Smiley High School in Houston, TX from 1999-2001. During that span Boyd worked as a scouting intern with the Vikings in 2001. He also worked in the private educational sector for IntraCare North Hospital where he was responsible for programs and interactive curriculum for high school students in drug therapy.

Boyd and his wife, Varinia, reside in Phoenix, AZ with their daughters, Makenzi and Madeline, and sons, Xavier, Joshua, Jacob, and Edward.

MATT CARACCIOLO
FOOTBALL OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

Matt Caracciolo enters his fourth season with the Cardinals as Football Operations Coordinator after being hired in June, 2012. Caracciolo joined the Cardinals after spending the previous seven seasons with the New England Patriots, the last six years (2006-11) as Director of Football Operations. With the Patriots, he worked with the NFL as the team's point of contact for all football logistical efforts surrounding their trips to Super Bowl XLII and XLVI in addition to their game in London in 2009.

Caracciolo's responsibilities with the Cardinals include managing day-to-day football operations, training camp, mini-camp operations, budgets, football rules compliance and also directing the team's travel.

Caracciolo joined the Patriots in 2005 as a football operations assistant after spending the 2003 and 2004 seasons with the Miami Dolphins as a scouting intern. He previously served as an operations graduate assistant at Syracuse (2001-03) while earning a master's degree in Higher Education.

The Oceanside, NY native played two seasons at Ithaca College where he also received a degree in Sports Information and Communications in 2001. His brother, Pete, is the Director of Team Travel/Football Operations with the Oakland Raiders. Caracciolo and his wife, Kelly, reside in Scottsdale, AZ.

DEBBIE POLLOM
COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

In her current role, she assists in the day-to-day operations of the college and pro scouting departments, including coordination of the draft room.

Pollom joined the Los Angeles Rams as a player personnel assistant in 1992 and stayed in that role until she was named Director of Scouting Administration prior to the 2001 season.

She began her career as a player personnel assistant with the Memphis Showboats of the USFL in 1983. She then worked for the Chicago Blitz in 1984 before working for the Cleveland Browns from 1984-89. Pollom was also a Pro Scouting Assistant for New England for two seasons (1990-91) before joining the Rams.

She has a bachelor's of arts from Evergreen State College (Olympia, WA). Pollom is the daughter of longtime personnel scout Norm Pollom (Los Angeles Rams, Buffalo Bills) and sister of the late Mike Pollom, a scout for the New England Patriots from 1987-2001. She has one son, Nicholas.

WESLEY GOODWIN
ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Wesley Goodwin begins his first season with the Cardinals as assistant to the head coach after he was hired in February, 2015. He comes to the Cardinals after spending the last six seasons at Clemson, including the past two years as a defensive analyst.

While at Clemson, Goodwin was in charge of all defensive breakdowns and opponent scouting, assisted with on-campus recruiting, worked as an assistant camp director, and also served as an assistant NFL liaison.

He began his tenure at Clemson in 2009 as a graduate assistant for two years, working with the defense in 2009-10. In 2011, Goodwin was elevated to defensive research development, and in 2013, was elevated to a defensive analyst. He was a promoted to a full-time coach in charge of the secondary in the month leading up to the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl. In 2014, his final season at Clemson, Goodwin helped the Tigers defense finish as the top ranked unit in the country in total defense, third down conversion defense, first downs allowed, and tackles for loss, while being in the top five in many other statistical categories.

Goodwin began his coaching career at his alma mater, Mississippi State as a student assistant in 2006-07 and worked as a graduate assistant in 2008. A native of Grove Hill, AL, Goodwin graduated with a degree in Business Administration from Mississippi State in 2007 and earned an MBA from Mississippi State in 2009.

CHRIS CULMER
WESTERN REGIONAL SCOUT

Chris Culmer enters his seventh season with the Cardinals and second as Western Regional Scout after being promoted in May, 2014. Beginning his 16th season in the NFL, Culmer came to Arizona in June, 2009 as an area scout in the west after working the previous nine seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (2000-08). His primary area of responsibility with the Cardinals is cross checking player evaluations for the western half of the country.

Culmer began his NFL career in 2000 with the Seahawks as a scouting assistant and was promoted to Pro Scout in 2004. While in Seattle, the Seahawks went to the playoffs five times, including four consecutive NFC West Division titles and appeared in Super Bowl XL. As a Pro Scout, Culmer was responsible for the advance scouting of Seahawks opponents while also evaluating players in all professional leagues, including the NFL, CFL and Arena Football. In addition, Culmer assisted in evaluating and ranking the nation's top collegiate prospects for the annual draft.

A West Richland, WA native, Culmer received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Washington State University in 1998 and earned a master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts in 2000.

Culmer and his wife, Kristina, reside in Seattle with their son and daughter.

LUKE PALKO
EASTERN REGIONAL SCOUT

Luke Palko begins his seventh season with Arizona and ninth in the NFL after joining the team's scouting department in June, 2009. He was promoted to Eastern Regional Scout in May, 2014 after working the previous five seasons as an area scout in the central and southeast regions of the country. In his current role, Palko is responsible for cross checking player evaluations for the eastern half of the country.

Brother of former Cardinals, Steelers and Chiefs quarterback Tyler Palko, Luke came to the Cardinals after interning with the Pittsburgh Steelers player personnel department for two seasons (2007-08).

An Imperial, PA native, Palko was a wide receiver for Saint Francis (PA) where he finished his collegiate career as the second leading receiver in school and conference history with 225 receptions for 2,020 yards and 18 touchdowns. He set the school's single-season record with 85 receptions for 812 yards and seven touchdowns as a junior in 2005. He also served as the team's punter as a junior and senior.

The West Allegheny High School graduate became only the third-student athlete in Saint Francis history to earn ESPN the Magazine First-Team Academic All-American honors in 2005. He was also named the Northeast Conference's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2006 and earned a spot on the Division I-AA Athletic Director's Association Academic All-Star Team and the conference academic honor roll twice. In addition, Palko was one of 17 collegiate football players selected as a 2006 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete. As part of the honor, Palko was awarded an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship and was also a finalist for the William V. Campbell trophy.

Palko's father, Bob, has coached high school and college for the over 30 years. Now at West Allegheny, he has complied seven W.P.I.A.L. championships and the class AAA state title in 2001.

Palko graduated from Saint Francis with a bachelor's degree in Accounting in 2007 and resides in Pittsburgh, PA with his wife, Megan.

MIKE BONI
AREA SCOUT

Mike Boni enters his eighth season with the Cardinals and 10th in the NFL after joining the team's scouting department in June, 2008. He came to Arizona after spending two years (2006-07) with the Buffalo Bills, the first year in the pro personnel department and then in 2007 as a college scout administrator. He spent his first two seasons as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service and then scouted the midwest and eastern areas for two seasons after that. He is now responsible for scouting the near east region of the country for the Cardinals.

Boni started his professional career with the NFL's New York office in 2002-03 serving as an operations intern for NFL Europe. He then returned to Ohio University where he served as a student assistant for the football team during the 2003 season.

In 2004, Boni was hired as the linebackers coach and video coordinator for Division III Frostburg State University where he spent two seasons until being hired by the Bills in 2006.

His father, Jim, coached high school football in Western Pennsylvania for over 30 years at both Moon Area High School and Sto-Rox High School.

Boni graduated from Ohio University with a bachelor's degree in Sport Sciences in 2004 and then received a master's of Business Administration from Frostburg State in 2006. He resides in Chicago, IL.

John Ritcher begins his fourth season with the Cardinals and fifth in the NFL after joining the team's scouting department in May, 2012. He came to Arizona after working as a scouting assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2011. After beginning his Cardinals career scouting in the northeast region, he is now responsible for scouting the southeast region of the country for Arizona.

He joined the Dolphins in 2011 after working for three seasons on the strength and conditioning staff at Florida State. He went to work for Florida State in 2008 and also helped out with the Seminoles tight ends.

Prior to his arrival at FSU, Ritcher played fullback and linebacker for the Georgia Force in the Arena Football League in 2007. With the Force, Ritcher had 20 carries for 58 yards and a touchdown to go along with two receptions for 20 yards and two touchdowns.

Ritcher played collegiately at N.C. State and was a four-year letter winner as a tight end and had 16 receptions for 138 yards and one touchdown. He was honored with the Mike Hardy Award in 2004, given to the player who shows a winning attitude and plays beyond his capabilities, as well as the 2005 Bob Warren award for integrity and sportsmanship. Following his graduation from N.C. State, Ritcher spent two years as the head strength and conditioning coach at his high school alma mater, Ravenscroft High School in Raleigh, NC.

He helped guide his team to an 11-1 record as a senior and won the independent schools state championship while also being selected as an NCISAA All-State performer at tight end as a junior and senior.

Ritcher graduated from N.C. State with a bachelor's degree in Zoology in 2005 and received a Master's of Science in Sport Management from Florida State in 2010. He and his wife Ashley, have a son, James, and a daughter, Sophia.

JOSH SCOBEY
AREA SCOUT

Former Cardinals running back Josh Scobey enters his fourth season in the team's scouting department and second as an area scout after being elevated to the position in May, 2014. His primary area of responsibility with the Cardinals is scouting the western region of the country.

Scobey previously worked with the Cardinals as a pro scout in 2013 where he helped scout prospects in the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League. He joined the team as a scouting assistant in May, 2012 after working as an intern in 2010.

A sixth-round pick (185th overall) of the Cardinals in the 2002 NFL Draft, Scobey played in 62 games over six seasons in the NFL. After spending the 2002 season on injured reserve with a thumb injury, he led the NFL in kickoff returns in 2003 with 73 for 1,684 yards and a touchdown. He was claimed off waivers by Seattle in 2005, and totaled 1,326 yards on 59 kickoffs and was named a captain in Super Bowl XL in his first season with the Seahawks. He played in three games with the Buffalo Bills in 2007 before finishing his career by returning to the Seahawks for four games that same season.

For his career, Scobey had 189 kickoff returns for 4,160 yards (22.4 yard avg.), 27 carries for 89 yards and 19 receptions for 200 yards.

Scobey was a two-time All-Big 12 selection at Kansas State after a standout junior college career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M. In two seasons at Kansas State, he set an all-time school record with 31 rushing touchdowns and ranked in the top 10 in program history with nine 100-yard rushing games, 1,981 rushing yards, and 186 points scored. He also set a single-season school record with 1,263 rushing yards on 240 carries as a senior in 2001.

He was an honorable mention All-American selection by USA Today at Del City High School in Oklahoma City, OK where he set a single-season rushing record with 1,819 yards and 21 touchdowns in 1997. He graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor's degree in Social Science.

GLEN FOX
PRO SCOUT

Glen Fox enters his third season with the Cardinals and second as a Pro Scout after being promoted in May, 2014. He joined the Cardinals as a scouting assistant in 2013 following a playing career that featured stops in the UFL and AFL.

Following a four-year collegiate career as a wide receiver at South Dakota State, Fox participated in rookie minicamp with Green Bay in 2010 and later played in the AFL and UFL. During his time in the Arena Football League, he played with the Arizona Rattlers (2011) and Orlando Predators (2012) while also playing in the United Football League with the Omaha Nighthawks and Sacramento Mountain Lions (2011-12).

At South Dakota State, Fox finished third all-time in receptions and sixth all-time in receiving yards. He was a team captain as a senior and was a two-time All-Missouri Valley Conference performer during his junior and senior campaigns. After ranking second in receiving touchdowns (10), third in receptions per game (5.5) and fourth in receiving yards per game (66.0), Fox's 66 receptions as a junior were the fourth most in a season by a Jackrabbit player. During his senior season, Fox had 62 receptions for 787 yards and four touchdowns. He also played in three games as a member of the SDSU men's basketball team during the 2005-06 season.

A Cedar Rapids, IA native, Fox received his bachelor's degree in Business Economics in 2010. He resides in Phoenix, AZ.

After starting as a scouting assistant in his first season with the team, Vinnett was promoted in May, 2014 and is in his second season as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service.

Vinnett played 22 games at cornerback during his career at the University of Arkansas and helped the Razorbacks win the 2006 SEC West title and play in the Capital One Bowl. Prior to playing at Arkansas, Vinnett played two seasons at West Hill College (CA) earning All Valley Conference in each season. As a sophomore, he had 56 tackles, one interception and 15 passes defensed. He also honored in 2002 as a Junior College Academic All-American.

Following college, Vinnett signed with the St. Louis Rams as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2007 and played in eight games and had 13 tackles as a rookie before spending time on the Rams and Falcons practice squads in 2008. He also spent part of the 2009 offseason with the Falcons.

Vinnett played with the Florida Tuskers (2009-10) of the United Football League before they became the Virginia Destroyers (2011-12), appearing in all three league title games and winning the UFL championship in 2011.

Vinnett graduated with a bachelor's degree in Sociology in 2006.

TOM REED
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Reed begins his 17th year in the NFL and eighth season as the Cardinals head athletic trainer after being hired to the position in June, 2008. Reed came to the Cardinals after working nine seasons (1999-2007) as an assistant athletic trainer with the Atlanta Falcons.

Born in Madison, WI and raised in Louisville, KY, Reed began his full-time athletic training career as an assistant athletic trainer at Miami (OH) University from 1996-99 working with football, men's basketball, soccer, and track and field before joining the Falcons for the 1999 season.

Reed played football at the University of Louisville in 1988-89 before transferring to the University of Kentucky where he finished his degree in Exercise Science and Kinesiology in 1994. He did post-baccalaureate work in facilities management while working as a rehabilitation coordinator with the football team during his time at Kentucky. While in graduate school at Miami (OH) in 1995-96 Reed also served as a rehabilitation and therapeutic modalities instructor at Miami's athletic training curriculum program.

The 45-year old Reed completed summer internships with the Falcons in 1994 and 1995 and was a Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) scholarship winner in 1994. Reed was also the recipient of the 1997 American Red Cross CPR – "Lifesaver of the Year" Award. He is an active member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainer's Society (PFATS), the National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA), the Arizona Athletic Trainer's Association (AzATA), and currently serves on the NFL's committee for Drugs of Abuse.

Reed and his wife, Nicole, reside in Chandler, AZ with their sons, Jackson and Jameson.

MARK AHLEMEIER
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 35th season with the Cardinals equipment department and his 30th season as the equipment manager after five years as the assistant.

During the 2008 offseason, Ahlemeier was honored with the Whitey Zimmerman Award recognizing the NFL Equipment Manager of the Year.

His responsibilities include the purchase and maintenance of all team equipment and sideline apparel, outfitting players, coaches, and other football staff for practices and games. He also coordinates the transport of all team gear for training camp, home and away games.

Ahlemeier was born in St. Charles, MO, and attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis. He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy and Molly, and son Mark and one grandchild, Oliver Mark. They live in Tempe, AZ.

ROB BRAKEL
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Rob Brakel begins his ninth season with the Cardinals as video director after joining the team in June, 2007. The Morristown, NJ native came to Arizona after spending nine seasons as a video assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

With the Steelers, Brakel was part of the Super Bowl XL staff in addition to working three AFC Championship games and two Pro Bowls.

In 2001, Brakel served as video director for the World Bowl Champion Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe. His duties included shooting all practices and games both home and away and producing cut-ups for the coaching staff.

As a student at Robert Morris University, Brakel was the video coordinator for the football team from 1996-98 and for the hockey team from 1997-98. He received bachelor's degrees from the school in Sports Management and Communications before joining the Steelers in 1998.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

A two-time Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year honoree as a member of the Washington Redskins (2010-11), LB Lorenzo Alexander has established himself as one of the NFL's most active community participants throughout his career. During his first two seasons in Arizona (2013-14), Alexander has made a profound impact in local communities throughout the Valley, making countless appearances as he extended on the work he has performed in the Greater Washington, DC area and in his hometown of Oakland, CA.

In addition to his annual charity events in DC and California in support of his A.C.E.S (Accountability, Community, Education, Sports) Foundation, the past two years in Arizona have seen Alexander participate in a dozens of kids camps, make numerous appearances in support of the Phoenix Children's Hospital and the Ronald McDonald House, host a football safety clinic for mothers of youth football players, participate in charity bike rides in support of the American Diabetes Association and helped promote the NFL's Play 60 campaign.

Since coming to Arizona, Alexander has served as a tireless supporter of both the Ronald McDonald House and the Phoenix Children's Hospital. He has joined teammates in regular appearances at the Ronald McDonald House and in November of last year, he was on hand for the opening of the charity's new location in Mesa. In December of '13, he participated in the annual "Light the House" holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. At the event, players and members of the Cardinals front office helped provide families with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. Alexander has also become a regular visitor at the Phoenix Children's Hospital, where he has attended birthday parties, handed out Teddy Bears during the Christmas season as part of the Cardinals annual "Teddy Bear Express" event, joined teammates for an ABC-15 Telethon that helped raise money for patient care, and in January of this year helped hand out 250 gift baskets as part of the 20th annual Super Baskets of Hope program, in which current and former NFL players serve children in hospitals nationwide in the lead up to the Super Bowl.

Alexander has also turned up to support teammate Calais Campbell for his annual "Christmas with Calais" event that benefits Campbell's CRC Foundation. Alexander has joined Campbell and numerous other Cardinals players at local Target stores as they host 55 children from UMOM Day center and Campbell's Right Track After School program as each child is treated to dinner and taken on a $200 shopping spree.

Each of the last two years, Alexander joined Cardinals teammates and coaches to host a "Football Safety Clinic" geared to a group of 100 mothers of youth football players from "Heads Up Football" leagues around the state of Arizona. The clinics, held in conjunction with USA Football's "Heads Up Football" program, include classroom discussion about proper nutrition and hydration as well as concussions and also focused on proper techniques for tackling, equipment fitting and general safety.

In March of this year, Alexander joined teammate Ted Larsen in commemorating the installation of the Super Bowl XLIX field at Tolleson High School in Phoenix, as approximately 90,000 square feet of sod that served as the playing surface for Super Bowl XLIX at University of Phoenix Stadium was transported and installed for the school's future use.

A spokesman for the National Kidney Foundation and American Diabetes Association, Alexander has participated in the "Tour De Cure", a 100-mile charity bike ride in support of the American Diabetes Association, each of the last two years.

The mission of Alexander's A.C.E.S. Foundation is to support youth through emphasizing self-accountability, taking pride in community, striving for education excellence while promoting a healthy mind and body through sports. The goal is that every youth will be inspired to obtain a higher education, pursue a career, maintain a strong family unit and give back to their community. The A.C.E.S. Foundation is a chapter of the National Alliance of African American Athletes (NAAAA). It provided enrichment programs for youth in his hometown of Oakland the Greater DC area.

Some of the programs through the foundation include "Real Talk Workshops" that provide youth with information and resources to promote health prevention and good decision making. The "Readers are Leaders" program, tutoring support, test taking strategies, problem solving techniques and SAT prep class help emphasize education for high school, middle school and elementary students.

Annual events in California like his celebrity bowling benefit, the Mother's Day brunch, the "Hold the Line Youth Camp" and his back to school giveaway help various groups of people in his home state. Alexander also remains active in the Virginia/DC area with events such as an annual golf tournament, a celebrity bowling benefit, and the annual "All Pro Sports Camp" which is a free two-day football clinic for high school and junior high school football players through a partnership with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Grace Covenant Church.

This past April, Alexander continued one of his biggest fundraising events when he hosted the 6th Annual "Ride to Provide" charity bike ride in Virginia. The bike ride offers both children and adults the opportunity to get exercise on a scenic Virginia trail while being joined by NFL players and local celebrities. The event also includes a silent auction and a post-ride celebration featuring food, drinks and entertainment.

Alexander participated in a variety of events during his time with the Redskins, including in 2010 when he joined President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama at the White House Easter Egg Role to help kids learn the value of good health. He helped distribute turkeys and Thanksgiving food baskets at FedEx Field to local residents in need during the holiday season and was a regular participant in team youth fitness zones to help children learn more about the benefits of good nutrition and health. In 2011, he hosted a Play 60 youth flag football clinic and participated in the National Kidney Foundation's "Kidney Walk," a community fundraiser that calls attention to the prevention of kidney disease and the need for organ donation. He also participated in the "Redskins Read" program, which speaks to local elementary schools about the importance of reading and also took part in the "Holiday Wishes Come True" event which took local youth on a Christmas shopping spree.

Through the NFL Youth Football Fund in 2010, his A.C.E.S. Foundation was awarded a grant to help support his youth football camps. In 2008, Alexander was one of 89 NFL players whose foundation was awarded a grant from NFL Charities for its community work. Alexander has also partnered with United Way and the NFL to serve as an Ambassador to promote reading and the importance of education.

CARDINALS EARN SIX PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARDS IN 2014

Five Cardinals players combined for six NFC Player of the Week selections in 2014. Arizona's six Player of the Week selections tied for the second most in a single season in franchise history, only trailing the team's seven selections in 2009.

K Chandler Catanzaro (Special Teams POW) - Week 15 at St. Louis

Catanzaro was named the Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time this season following his performance the 12-6 victory over the St. Louis Rams. He connected on all four field goal attempts (23, 44, 51 and 46 yards) in the win, accounting for all of the points in the Cardinals victory. He became just the fourth rookie in team history to win multiple Player of the Week awards in his rookie season (Patrick Peterson-2011, Bill Gramatica-2001, Ron Moore-1993).

Catanzaro (Special Teams POW) - Week 6 vs. Washington

Catanzaro earned Special Teams Player of the Week honors after converting on all three FG attempts (33, 49 and 33 yards) and three PATs in the Cardinals 30-20 victory over the Redskins. At the time, the three made FGs gave Catanzaro 14 consecutive makes to start the season. He became the first Cardinals rookie to win Player of the Week since Patrick Peterson in Week 12 of 2011.

CB Patrick Peterson (Defensive POW) - Week 10 vs. St. Louis

Peterson recorded two INTs in the fourth quarter against the Rams, the second one he returned 30 yards for his first career INT return for a TD. Peterson's INTs came on back-to-back drives for St. Louis and gave him his second career multi-INT game and first since 9/29/13 at Tampa Bay.

CB Justin Bethel (Special Teams POW) - Week 9 vs. Dallas

Bethel was named Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time in his career after blocking Dan Bailey's 35-yard FG attempt on the final play of the first half in Arizona's 28-17 win over the Cowboys. It marked the third career blocked FG for Bethel, who was a 2013 Pro Bowl selection on special teams.

WR Larry Fitzgerald (Offensive POW) - Week 8 vs. Philadelphia

Fitzgerald was named Offensive Player of the Week for the third time in his career after recording season highs with seven receptions for 160 yards against the Eagles. He also had a career-long 80-yard TD in the victory. Fitzgerald has been named Offensive Player of the Week three times in his career, with all three the result of a performance against the Eagles.

PR Ted Ginn, Jr. (Special Teams POW) - Week 2 @ NY Giants

Ginn was the first Cardinal to be named Player of the Week this season, earning the Special Teams honor after his 71-yard punt return TD provided the game-winning score in Arizona's 25-14 victory over the NY Giants. It was the fourth punt return TD of his career and his seventh total return TD, which ranks fourth among active players. This was Ginn's third career Special Teams Player of the Week honor (Week 1 of 2011 with the 49ers; Week 8 of 2009 with the Dolphins).

A SPECIAL TALENT

A Pro Bowl special teamer each of the last two seasons, Justin Bethel has a knack for blocking kicks. After setting a Big South record with nine blocked kicks in college at Presbyterian, Bethel had three blocks (FG, PAT, Punt) in the 2012 preseason as a rookie and has blocked three FGs over the last two seasons.

Bethel's Blocked FG Attempts

11/2/14 @ Dallas

With Arizona holding a 14-10 lead, Cowboys K Dan Bailey lined up for a 35-yard FG attempt with just three seconds remaining in the first half. Bethel came around the end and blocked the kick, preserving the Cards four-point lead.

11/10/13 vs. Houston

Just like the attempt in Dallas, Houston was attempting a FG on the final play of the first half. With the Texans leading 17-14, Randy Bullock lined up for a 40-yard attempt with four seconds remaining in the second quarter. Bethel came off the edge to blocked the attempt, and Arizona would come back to win the game by three points (27-24).

9/15/13 vs. Detroit

The Cardinals trailed the Lions 21-19 early in the fourth quarter when Bethel blocked a 47-yard FG attempt by Detroit's David Akers. Two possessions later, Arizona scored the go-ahead TD in the 25-19 win.

CARDINALS SUPPORT RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

Led by a group from the Cardinals Women's Club, Cardinals players, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders visited the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix for the annual "Light the House" party last December to help spread holiday cheer.

All of the houses were lit with holiday lights and the group from the Cardinals provided the families with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Phoenix provides a welcoming "home away from home" for children and their families who travel to Phoenix to receive treatment for serious, often life-threatening illnesses and injuries. They help lessen the burden by ensuring families have the stability they need to support their children by providing an atmosphere of comfort, hope and courage while also supporting programs that directly benefit children and their families in the community.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing its clock forward or back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2015, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 8) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 1). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

HOMETOWN: Homestead, FL

NOTECARDS

- Selected with the Cardinals second pick of the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft (acquired from the Saints in a first round trade), Brown became the second Pittsburg State player ever selected by the Cardinals, joining RB Ronald Moore who was taken in the third round (87th overall) in 1993.
- As a rookie in 2014, Brown appeared in all 16 games (five starts) during the regular season and the team's Wild Card matchup. He registered 48 receptions for 696 yards and five TDs during the regular season, adding four receptions for 34 yards in the playoffs.
- Brown established an NFL rookie record with four game-winning TD receptions in '14, surpassing the previous record set by R.C. Owens (3) for San Francisco in 1957.
- Recorded multiple receptions in 15 of 16 games during the regular season, which represents the second-highest total in franchise history for a rookie (Anquan Boldin, 16, 2003).
- At the 2014 NFL Combine, Brown ran the 40-yard dash in 4.34 seconds, which ranked as the third-fastest time of any player at the event behind WR Brandin Cooks (4.33) and RB Dri Archer (4.26).
- Hails from the same hometown – Homestead, FL – as Cardinals 2014 fifth round pick Ed Stinson. The duo played local youth football together before going on to star at different high schools.

GAME-WINNING ROOKIE

Rookie WR John Brown caught his fifth TD pass of the 2014 season against the Rams in Week 10, hauling in a 48-yard reception from QB Drew Stanton in the fourth quarter.

With the Cardinals trailing 14-10 and just under eight minutes remaining, Brown made the acrobatic diving catch to put the Cardinals up 17-14. It marked Brown's fourth game-winning TD reception of the season, the most for a rookie in NFL history (previous record was R.C. Owens (3) for San Francisco in 1957).

Brown's Game–Winning TD Receptions (2014)

TD	Opponent	Time Remaining	Lead Change
48 yards	11/9 vs. StL	4th Qtr, 7:40 remaining	10-14 to 17-14
75 yards	10/26 vs. Phi	4th Qtr, 1:21 remaining	17-20 to 24-20
21 yards	9/21 vs. SF	3rd Qtr, 4:39 remaining	13-14 to 20-14
13 yards	9/8 vs. SD	4th Qtr, 2:25 remaining	12-17 to 18-17

He hauled in his most dramatic game-winner in the Cardinals Week 8 victory over Philadelphia. In that game, he caught five passes for a career-high 119 yards, including the game-winning 75-yard TD reception with under two minutes remaining in regulation. Brown became just the eighth rookie in franchise history with a TD reception of 75+ yards and the first since Ernie Jones had a 93-yard TD catch against the Eagles on 12/20/88.

In a solid rookie season, Brown had multiple catches in 15 of 16 games in 2014. That represents the second-best total in franchise history for a rookie.

THE MOTIVATION OF JOHN BROWN

A product of Pittsburg State, John Brown came to the Cardinals with a story that matches his prodigious talent. He began his college career at Mars Hill University in North Carolina in 2008 and was named the South Atlantic Conference's Freshman of the Year after leading the league with 1,472 all-purpose yards. However, academic challenges forced him to miss the 2009 season, and then Brown's world changed in 2010 when his half-brother, James Walker, who played at NAIA school MidAmerica Nazarene University, was shot in Florida.

Walker remained in the hospital for months, and during that time Brown transferred to Coffeyville Community College in Kansas, but he wasn't awarded one of the team's out-of-state scholarships and ended up sitting out another year. However, coaches at Pittsburg State in Kansas had learned of him and offered him a scholarship. He signed his letter of intent in April 2011, just hours before he received the news Walker had died.

Brown made a promise to his brother that he would score the first time he touched the ball at Pittsburg State, and he made good on that pledge when he returned a punt 84 yards for a TD in the 2011 season opener. He never looked back, going on to set school career records with 185 receptions for 3,387 yards and 34 TDs. He totaled 45 TDs at Pittsburg State, adding six rushing, three punt return and two kickoff return scores.

"Every day I wake up I hear him," he said. "When I'm tired, when I'm working out and thinking about giving up, I can hear him in my head. It just pushes me to go even harder."

PERSONAL:

Attended Homestead (FL) High School where he was an All-Dade County and Class 6A All-District XVI selection as a senior, helping lead the team to an 8-4 record … played wide receiver, defensive back and was a return specialist for the Broncos … General Studies major.

SAFETY ■ 6-1 ■ 211

COLLEGE: Washington State
HOW ACQUIRED: D1/14 (27th)
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2

HOMETOWN: Fairfield, CA
DOB: August 30, 1992

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first round selection (27th overall) in the 2014 NFL Draft, became just the second safety ever selected by the team in the first round, and first since Ken Greene (19th overall) in 1978.
- During his rookie season in 2014, started nine of 16 regular season games and also appeared in the team's Wild Card matchup. He registered 75 tackles, 2.0 sacks, two passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery during the regular season as he was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team as a safety.
- Made a number of big plays over the second half of the season, deflecting a potential game-winning TD pass in the end zone vs. Philadelphia in Week 8, stopping Cowboys RB DeMarco Murray on a key 4th-n-1 attempt in the fourth quarter in Week 9 and forcing a game-saving fumble by Chiefs TE Travis Kelce in the fourth quarter in Week 14.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals first round selection (27th overall) in the 2014 NFL Draft, Bucannon started nine of 16 games played as a rookie, while also seeing action in the team's Wild Card matchup.

2014: Appeared in all 16 games and made nine starts as part of nickel and dime defenses … finished third on the team with 75 tackles and also had two sacks, four tackles for loss, two passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery … added five special teams tackles, one QB pressure and one QB hit …. started in his NFL debut and had four unassisted tackles, including one for loss, and one special teams tackle vs. SD (9/8) … recovered Josh Huff's fumble at the 2-yard line in the second quarter for his first career fumble recovery vs. Phi (10/26); had a career-high eight tackles, a QB pressure and one pass defensed, breaking up a pass intended for Zach Ertz in the end zone on the second-to-last play of the game to help the Cardinals secure a 24-20 victory … had four tackles, including a stop of DeMarco Murray for no gain on 4th-n-1 in the fourth quarter @ Dal (11/2); also had one pass defensed and one special teams tackle … registered his first career sack vs. StL (11/9), taking down Austin Davis to force a punt in the second quarter; totaled five tackles … led the team with seven tackles and added one special teams tackle vs. Det (11/16) … notched his second career sack @ Sea (11/23), bringing down Russell Wilson on 3rd-n-goal in the second quarter to force a FG; totaled six tackles, including one for loss, and a QB hit … forced a Travis Kelce fumble at the Arizona 16-yard line with less than six minutes remaining and the Cardinals leading 17-14 vs. KC (12/7); marked first career forced fumble; also had three solo tackles … collected six tackles and one pass defensed in Wild Card game @ Car (1/3/15).

COLLEGE:

Started 43 of 49 games at Washington State, ranking fifth in the nation while leading all defenders in the Pac-12 with 384 total tackles, which ranked fourth in school history … 384 tackles are also the most ever by a Cougar DB, and his 268 solo tackles were the most among players in the NCAA Football Bowl Division … ranks third in school history with 15 career INTs, which also tied the most for any active major college player … added a sack, 13.5 tackles for loss, 14 pass defensed and a blocked punt, in addition to causing seven fumbles and three fumble recoveries during his time with the Cougars … as a senior in 2013, earned first-team All-American honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back after recording a team-high 114 tackles (78 solo), six INTs, 4.5 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries as a senior … marked third time in his career (freshman, junior) that he led the team in tackles … 114 total tackles ranked second in the league and his 78 solo stops led the Pac-12 and placed 11th nationally … his six INTs led the conference and ranked ninth nationally … an All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-12 Conference first-team choice by The NFL Draft Report as a junior in '12, he led the team with 106 tackles (65 solo), his first career sack, four INTs, a career-high eight passes defensed, a forced fumble and six special teams tackles … his 106 tackles were the most by a Cougar since (former Cardinals) LB James Darling posted 106 stops in 1996, as he averaged 8.8 tackles per game … produced at least 10 tackles in seven of his 11 starting assignments … started 11 of 12 games played as a sophomore in '11, finishing second on the team with 80 tackles (58 solo), while adding three INTs, two tackles for loss, seven passes defensed and a forced fumble … also blocked a punt on special teams … All-Pac-10 Conference Freshman team choice after starting eight of 12 games at strong safety in '10, including his final seven contests … led all of the league's freshmen (15th overall) with a team-high 84 tackles (67 solo), including four tackles for loss, while adding two INTs, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

A STRONG DEBUT

At 6-2, 211 pounds, Cardinals 2014 first round pick S Deone Bucannon has the build of a linebacker and the speed of a defensive back. During his rookie season, Arizona's coaching staff capitalized on that unique blend and used him as a hybrid of both positions.

Bucannon thrived in the role, earning a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie team as a safety. For the season, he finished with 75 tackles, two sacks, four tackles for loss, two passes defensed, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

Bucannon Rookie Highlights

- In Week 14 vs. Kansas City, Bucannon made one of the biggest plays of the game in the fourth quarter when he forced a fumble by Chiefs TE Travis Kelce. Bucannon forced the fumble at the AZ 16-yard line with the Cardinals clinging to a 17-14 lead.
- In Week 12 vs. Seattle, Bucannon had another standout performance, registering six tackles, his second sack of the season and second in three games, a tackle for loss and a QB hit.
- Of his four tackles in Dallas in Week 9, none were bigger than his fourth quarter stop of RB DeMarco Murray. With the Cardinals clinging to a 14-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Dallas had the ball 4th-n-1 at the Arizona 37-yard line. Murray took the fourth down handoff and Bucannon came from the edge and tackled Murray for no gain. On the ensuing possession, Arizona took a 21-10 lead, helping to seal the win.
- The previous week against Philadelphia (Week 8), Bucannon made a game-saving play when he made a leaping deflection in the end zone on second down during the Eagles final drive of the game.

CARDINALS PARTICIPATE IN PRO VS. G.I. JOE PROGRAM

Cardinals players including safety Deone Bucannon, cornerback Justin Bethel, kicker Chandler Catanzaro and punter Drew Butler competed for the sixth consecutive year in a video game competition with Marines from the Wounded Warrior Regiment as part of the Pro vs. G.I. Joe program last November at the Cardinals Training Facility.

The Pro vs. G.I Joe program had the Cardinals players and troops, home and abroad, playing Call of Duty on XBox. While they were playing the games, the competitors were able to see and hear each other through a webcam using Skype. Likewise, the crowd on both sides of the competition was able to see the live action as well.

Pro vs. GI Joe is a private, non-profit organization that provides America's heroes with the opportunity to participate in real-time video game competitions online and in-person between professional athletes/celebrities and troops stationed all over the world. Pro vs. GI Joe connects the troops and athletes through the assistance of the USO who facilitates the events for the soldiers overseas.

The United States Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment provides and enables assistance to wounded, ill and injured Marines, sailors attached to or in support of Marine units, and their family members in order to assist them as they return to duty or transition to civilian life.

DOB: September 1, 1986

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2014

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals second-round selection was taken with the 50th overall pick in '08 after leaving Miami (FL) following his junior season.
- Named a team captain, was voted to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career and earned second-team All-Pro honors in 2014. Prior to last season, Campbell was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2013 and was selected to the USA Today All-Joe team in 2009, 2011, 2012 and 2013 as a defensive end.
- Selected as the Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year for the second time in his career in 2014. Campbell also received the honor, which recognizes off-the-field community service as well as playing excellence, in 2011.
- His 43.5 career sacks are good for sixth place on the franchise all-time sacks list.
- Registered 59 tackles, 7.0 sacks, an INT, 12 tackles for loss, three passes defensed, 17 QB pressures and 12 QB hits in 2014, marking his sixth consecutive season with at least 50 tackles and 6.0 sacks, extending his franchise record.
- With his performance in '14, became the first defensive lineman in franchise history to record at least 6.0 sacks in six different seasons.
- Joins Houston's J.J. Watt and the NY Giants' Jason Pierre-Paul as the only defensive linemen in the NFL with at least 20 passes defensed over the last four seasons (2011-14). With 11 passes defensed in '11, more than doubled his previous single-season high (5, 2009) and tied Carolina DE Greg Hardy for the NFL lead among defensive linemen.
- Led the Cardinals in sacks for three straight years (2009-11) after posting eight sacks in 2011, six sacks in '10 and seven sacks in '09.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance in the Week 2 victory over the New England Patriots in '12. He joins CB Patrick Peterson as the only players in team history to win Player of the Week honors in two different categories. He was also chosen as the Special Teams Player of the Week following a Week 2 victory against Jacksonville in 2009.
- In January of 2015, Campbell donated $1.6 million to the University of Miami. It was the largest gift from a former student athlete in the school's history.
- Following the 2008 season, attended the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at the Harvard Business School. During the 2011 offseason, interned with actor/comedian Will Ferrell at FunnyorDie.com. During the 2012 offseason, was one of 20 current and former NFL players who took part in the first NFL Pro Hollywood Boot Camp at Universal Studios.
- Designated as the team's franchise player before agreeing to a five-year contract on 5/10/12 that will keep him in Arizona through the 2016 season.
- At 6-8, Campbell was the tallest lineman ever to suit up for the Hurricanes and was the tallest defensive lineman in the 2008 draft.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals second-round selection (50th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft has appeared in 106 regular games in his first seven seasons (88 starts) and all seven postseason games. Campbell was given the franchise designation on 3/2/12 before agreeing to a five-year contract on 5/10/12.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since joining the Cardinals in 2008, Calais Campbell has established himself as one of the team's leading philanthropists through his work with the team and his "CRC Foundation." A two-time Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" selection, (2014, 2011) Campbell has made it his mission to give back to the Arizona community through team events and his foundation work.

In 2010, he founded the "CRC Foundation," named after his late father, Charles. The foundation is committed to the enhancement of the community by teaching life skills to assist with the development of young people. Through sports, the enrichment of creative talents, vocational skills, guidance of positive financial skills and quality health and nutrition, the foundation seeks to empower and provide self-awareness for future leaders.

Campbell was selected as the 2014 Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" after another exceptional year of community and charitable contributions through his foundation and the team. He took part in the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a grant press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy.

Campbell has hosted a variety of events since the creation of the foundation to help it grow including this past March when he hosted his third annual golf tournament at Ocotillo Golf Resort in Chandler, AZ. In 2013, Campbell and the CRC Foundation launched Right Track, a daily after-school program serving students from the Roosevelt School District in south Phoenix. In partnership with the Black Family and Child Service Center, Right Track provides students ages 5-14 with tutoring, mentoring and a meal. In April, Campbell once again represented the Cardinals as part of the NFL's "Play 60" movement at the White House for the 137th Easter Egg Roll on the South Lawn that was hosted by First Lady Michelle Obama. It was his second consecutive year at the event.

Campbell and the "CRC Foundation" have extended their existing philanthropic programs to include a Thanksgiving turkey drive for 300 families and support local youth football programs. In December of 2014, Calais hosted his fifth annual Christmas with Calais, an evening which treats 60 children from UMOM New Day Center and his Right Track program to a shopping spree at Target with Campbell and his teammates, a holiday meal and visit from Santa. One of eight children, Calais has continued to award two college scholarships each year to students from large families through his foundation.

In 2014, Calais continued his Cheer for a Cause program. At every home game the past two seasons, CRC Foundation representatives selected one fan wearing a Campbell jersey at University of Phoenix as a winner. Winners received a donation to a charity of their choice from Calais, with the amount dependent on his game performance. (Campbell's CRC Foundation will donate $500 for a team win, $1,000 for a one-sack game, and culminates with $15,000 for a five-sack game).

Last September, Campbell hosted his fourth annual fundraiser dinner at Eddie V's in Scottsdale to benefit his foundation and raise money through a silent and live auction. Campbell joined his Cardinals teammates and other celebrities to dine alongside guests. In 2013, he served as the celebrity host at the "Comedians for a Cure" benefit comedy show for Phoenix Children's Hospital at Stand Up Live in Phoenix.

Campbell has also partnered with United Way and the NFL as the Cardinals spokesperson to promote reading and the importance of education. In addition to helping to recruit volunteer readers, tutors and mentors, Campbell took part in the United Way's Great Phoenix Literacy Fair the past three years to promote the importance of literacy of elementary school students. In March of 2013, he was the keynote speaker to a group of college students at Deloitte and United Way's Alternate Spring Break. In February of 2014, he was the keynote speaker at a Generation United event for the Valley of the Sun United Way where he spoke to 200 young professionals about the importance of community service.

Campbell joined Cardinals teammates for a Christmas party last season at the Mary Black Family and Child Services Agency. He also represented the team at Jefferson Elementary School in 2011 and led students in fitness activities as part of the NFL's Play 60 program. Jefferson was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment. The Play 60 program helps to promote at least 60 minutes of physical activity per day to combat childhood obesity.

Previously, Campbell joined representatives from Albertsons and distributed 50 meals to current and former residents of the Chicanos Por La Causa shelter during Thanksgiving of 2010. The CLPC shelter provides safe, temporary housing for women and their children who have been forced to leave their homes due to domestic violence. He also distributed 40 turkey dinners to families in the Chandler school district at Hamilton High School and Hancock Elementary to help brighten the holidays of those in need that same year.

Campbell served as a keynote speaker for the 2010 Spotlight Dinner through the Chandler Youth Football League. The dinner recognized student athletes earning scholarships to four-year colleges and universities.

A HAND ON A HALF DOZEN

DE Calais Campbell has blocked six FG attempts in his career, the most recent coming in Week 1 of the '12 season vs. Seattle.

In 2011, Campbell tied Seattle's Red Bryant for the NFL lead with three blocked FGs.

Campbell's Career FG Blocks

9/9 vs. Seattle
On the Seahawks opening drive of the game, blocked a 50-yard FG attempt by Steven Hauschka in the first quarter.

11/20 at San Francisco
With the game still scoreless in the first quarter, Campbell got a hand on David Akers' 46-yard FG attempt. It was the third block of the season for Campbell and second in three games.

11/6 vs. St. Louis
With the game tied 13-13 and the Rams attempting a game-winning 42-yard FG with just four seconds remaining in regulation, Campbell blocked Josh Brown's attempt, sending the game into OT where the Cardinals won on a Patrick Peterson punt return.

9/18 at Washington
Campbell's first FG block of the season came with Arizona down 10-7 in the second quarter against the Redskins. Graham Gano's 30-yard attempt near the end of the half was blocked by Campbell, keeping the Cards within three.

10/11 vs. Houston
Second career block and second of the '09 season came in the second quarter against the Texans. Campbell got a hand on Kris Brown's 35-yard attempt in the second quarter that kept Arizona's 7-0 lead intact. The Cards went on to win 28-21.

9/20 at Jacksonville
Campbell's first career blocked FG came when he blocked Josh Scobee's 46-yard attempt in the second quarter. S Antrel Rolle scooped up the ball and returned it 83 yards for a TD, giving the Cardinals a 17-3 lead.

COLLEGE: Clemson
HOW ACQUIRED: FA-14
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2

HOMETOWN: Greenville, SC
DOB: February 26, 1991

NOTECARDS

- Originally signed by the Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent out of Clemson in 2014, Catanzaro went on to win the kicking job with an outstanding performance in training camp and in preseason play.
- Was twice named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in '14, earning the honor for his Week 6 performance vs. Washington and his Week 15 outing at St. Louis. He became just the fourth player in team history to win multiple Player of the Week awards in his rookie season, joining Patrick Peterson (2011), Bill Gramatica (2001) and Ron Moore (1993).
- Made his first 17 consecutive FG attempts in '14, establishing a new NFL record for a rookie to begin their career and tying Washington K Kai Forbath (17 in 2012) for the NFL record to begin a career.
- Established a new franchise rookie record with 114 points in '14, shattering the previous mark of 73 set by K Bill Gramatica in 2001. Catanzaro's 114 points ranked as the second-highest total among NFL rookies behind only Philadelphia's Cody Parkey (150).
- His 29 field goals in 2014 represent the fourth-highest single season total in franchise history.
- Connected on a season-long 51-yard FG in Week 3 vs. San Francisco, which represents the longest FG by a rookie in franchise history.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Rookie kicker Chandler Catanzaro stayed busy on the field last season by setting a team rookie record with 114 points and his presence was also felt in the Arizona community with his various charitable appearances.

In November, to help recognize Veteran's Day, Catanzaro joined teammates and took part in the annual Pro vs. G.I. Joe program at the team's facility where Cardinals players competed in video games with Arizona soldiers from the Wounded Warrior Regiment who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO.

Catanzaro joined teammates in a tour of Luke Air Force Base and met with military members as part of a Veterans Day celebration. While at the event, the players, Cardinals cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red, took pictures and signed autographs after taking a tour of an F-16 aircraft and hangar.

He also joined teammates in October to visit kids at Phoenix Children's Hospital to take part in a birthday party at the Kids Zone.

all four PATs @ Dal (11/2) ... made 1-2 FGAs and all four PATs vs. StL (11/9); 43-yard FG in second quarter was his 17th consecutive made FG, tying the NFL record for most consecutive FGs to begin a career (Kai Forbath, 2012); 17 straight FGs is tied for the fourth-longest streak in franchise history and is the second-longest to open a season (Neil Rackers, 31, 2005); streak ended with miss from 53 yards in the fourth quarter ... made two PATs vs. Det (11/16); first PAT gave him 74 points, surpassing Bill Gramatica (73, 2001) for the most points scored by a rookie in franchise history ... made 1-2 FGAs @ Sea (11/23), missing a 49-yarder and then connecting from 23 yards in the second quarter ... converted only FGA from 44 yards and one PAT @ Atl (11/30) ... made 3-of-5 FGs vs. KC (12/7), hitting from 44, 33 and 39 yards; also had one special teams tackle ... tied career high with four FGs @ StL (12/11), providing all the Cardinals points in 12-6 victory; three of four FGs were from 40+, including a 51-yarder in the third quarter to tie his career-long; surpassed 100 points on the season; named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time, becoming the fourth rookie in team history to win multiple Player of the Week awards ... made both FGAs vs. Sea (12/21), converting from 27 and 32 yards ... converted only FGA and both PATs @ SF (12/28); also had a special teams tackle ... made both PATs and had two touchbacks on three kickoffs in Wild Card game @ Car (1/3/15).

RECORD SEASON FOR THE ROOKIE

Signed as a rookie free agent prior to the season, K Chandler Catanzaro had a record-breaking year in 2014. Most notably, he connected on his first 17 FG attempts, tying Washington K Kai Forbath (17 in 2012) for the NFL record for most consecutive FGs to begin a career. Catanzaro's streak ended in the fourth quarter in Week 10 when he missed wide right on a 53-yard attempt.

NFL Record–Consecututive FGs to Begin Career

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft and the 7th overall pick; was the first guard taken and the fourth offensive lineman behind tackles Eric Fisher (1st overall, Chiefs), Luke Joeckel (2nd overall, Jaguars) and Lane Johnson (4th overall, Eagles).
- Made NFL debut in 2014 and started two of 10 games played. In his consecutive starts in Weeks 14 and 15, the Cardinals posted their top two rushing games of the season, running for 141 yards against Kansas City and then totaling 143 yards on the ground at St. Louis.
- Earned a starting spot as a rookie during training camp, but season came to an end after he suffered a broken leg in the Cardinals preseason matchup vs. San Diego.
- Became the first guard taken in the top eight of the NFL Draft since 1982, when future Hall of Famer Mike Munchak was selected by the Houston Oilers with the eighth overall pick.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals first-round selection (7th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, Cooper suffered a broken leg in the team's third preseason game of 2013 and he missed his entire rookie season. Played in 10 games (two starts) in 2014.

2014: Appeared in 10 games and started two games at LG after missing entire rookie season … made his NFL debut vs. SD (9/8) … saw action on two plays on offense @ NYG (9/14) … active but did not play the next four games … played one snap on offense as an eligible lineman vs. Phi (10/26) … saw action on special teams as part of the kicking unit in the next three games … appeared for five snaps on offense as an extra lineman @ Sea (11/23) … played 40 snaps on offense @ Atl (11/30), seeing time at RG early in the game and then taking over at LG when Paul Fanaika left injured in the second quarter and Ted Larsen moved to RG; helped Cardinals hold Falcons without a sack on 39 pass plays; the fourth time on the season they held opponent without a sack … made first career start at LG and helped Cardinals rush for 141 yards on 33 carries vs. KC (12/7) … started again and blocked as Cardinals allowed just one sack and ran for season-high 143 yards on 33 carries @ StL (12/11), their second consecutive game with over 140 yards rushing … inactive (wrist/knee) vs. Sea (12/21) and @ SF (12/28) … inactive (wrist/knee) in Wild Card game @ Car (1/3/15).

2013: Suffered broken leg in the preseason game vs. SD (8/24) and was placed on injured reserve on 8/30.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Jonathan Cooper, the Cardinals first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft, didn't waste time getting active in the Arizona community. Although he missed his rookie season after being placed on injured reserve, he still was able to attend multiple team community events. He followed that up in his second season with the Cardinals with even more community appearances.

During his first two seasons in Arizona, Cooper has been a regular participant in the team's Milk and Cookies program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley promoting literacy by reading to children. Cooper also took part in team kids camps, spending afternoons performing NFL drills with elementary students across the Valley.

In November of 2013, Cooper joined teammates in a tour of Luke Air Force Base and met with military members as part of a Veterans Day celebration. While at the event, the players, Cardinals cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red, took pictures and signed autographs after taking a tour of an F-16 aircraft and hangar.

In the 2014 offseason, the Cardinals hosted a Football Safety Clinic geared to a group of 100 mothers of youth football players that Cooper and several teammates participated in by demonstrating on-field drills using proper technique. The clinic also held a classroom discussion about proper nutrition and hydration, as well as concussions. He also joined teammates and took part in the annual St. Vincent De Paul "Champions for the Homeless" event in 2014 to help celebrate the Easter holiday with those less fortunate at the homeless shelter.

- With 1,023 yards from scrimmage as a rookie in 2013 and 1,055 yards in 2014, joined Ottis Anderson (1979-80) as the only players in franchise history to record 1,000+ yards from scrimmage in each of their first two NFL seasons.
- Despite playing with a split tendon in his foot and missing the final four games of the '14 campaign with a core muscle injury, was one of just six players in the NFL with at least 600 rushing yards and 350+ receiving yards on the season.
- Although he has played just 27 games in his career, Ellington is the only active player in the NFL with both a rushing and receiving TD of 80+ yards in their career. He is one of just six players in NFL history with an 80+ yard TD run and 80+ yard receiving TD in their first two NFL seasons.
- With 652 rushing yards on just 118 attempts in 2013, Ellington's 5.53 rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts. His 5.53 average was the highest total for a Cards RB (min. 100 attempts) in a season since John David Crow averaged 5.85 yards per attempt in 1960 (183 for 1,071).
- In Week 15 of the '13 season at Tennessee, posted 71 rushing yards on 10 attempts (7.1 avg.) and 87 receiving yards on four receptions (21.8 avg.). In doing so, he became just the ninth player in NFL history (dating back to at least 1960) to average 7.0 yards per rush attempt (min. 10 attempts) and 20.0 yards per reception (min. 4 receptions) in a game – and the only rookie.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals second selection of the sixth round (187th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, Ellington has appeared in 27 games (13 starts) in his first two NFL seasons. Missed the final four games of the '14 campaign when he was placed on injured reserve with a core muscle injury on 12/8/14.

2014: Started the first 12 games before being placed on injured reserve and led the team with 660 rushing yards and three TDs on 201 carries … also finished fourth on the team with 46 receptions for 395 yards and two TDs … despite being limited in practice during the week by a foot injury, started and ran for 53 yards on 13 carries vs. SD (9/8); also had five receptions for 27 yards … rushed for 91 yards on 15 carries @ NYG (9/14); had three carries of 15+ yards; marked fifth time he has averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry in games with 10+ carries in his career … ran for 62 yards on 18 carries and caught three passes for 13 yards vs. SF (9/21); ran for 20 yards on 3rd-n-6 in the fourth quarter just before the two-minute warning, allowing the Cardinals to run the clock down to 34 seconds before kicking FG that extended the lead to 23-14 … had four catches for a career-high 112 yards, including a career-long 81-yard TD reception in the third quarter @ Den (10/5); also ran for 32 yards and a TD on 16 carries, giving him the first multi-TD game of his career; 81-yard TD catch combined with his 80-yard TD run against Atlanta in 2013 made him the second player in franchise history with an 80+ yard TD run and reception in their Cardinals career (John David Crow, 91-yard TD reception and 83-yard TD run); marked just the 10th time in franchise history a RB has had a 100-yard receiving game; became the ninth different Cardinals RB and first since Tim Hightower (9/13/09, 121 yards vs. SF) to top 100 receiving yards in a game ... ran for 67 yards on 19 carries and added a career-best six receptions for 26 yards vs. Was (10/12) ... led the team in both rushing and receiving @ Oak (10/19), running for 88 yards on a career-high 24 carries and tying career high with six receptions for 72 yards; 160 total yards marked second-highest single-game total in his career (162, vs. Atlanta, 10/27/13) and his third career game with 150+ all-purpose yards; became the fifth player in franchise history (seventh time overall) to have a game with at least 80 rushing yards and 70 receiving yards ... rushed for 71 yards and a TD on 23 carries and had three catches for 14 yards vs. Phi (10/26) ... ran for a season-high 95 yards on 21 carries and had four receptions for 39 yards and a TD @ Dal (11/2); one-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter gave Cardinals a 21-10 lead ... scored fifth TD of the season with three-yard run in the second quarter vs. StL (11/9); had 23 yards on 18 carries and added five receptions for 19 yards ... ran for 12 yards on five carries @ Atl (11/30); left in the first half with a hip injury ... inactive (hip/foot) vs. KC (12/7) ... placed on injured reserve with a core muscle injury on 12/8.

2013: Played in 15 games with one start and totaled 652 yards and three TDs on 118 carries (5.5 avg.) while catching 39 passes for 371 yards (9.5 avg.) and one TD ... made his NFL debut @ StL (9/8); 13-yard reception in the second quarter was his first career catch ... caught two passes for 42 yards, including a 36-yard TD in the second quarter, and ran for 20 yards on four carries vs. Det (9/15); marked his first career TD ... led the Cardinals with 52 rushing yards on seven carries and caught four passes for 31 yards vs. Car (10/6) ... led the team with 56 yards on seven carries and scored his first career rushing TD with

A THREAT FROM ANYWHERE

Despite having played just two NFL seasons, RB Andre Ellington has developed into one of the game's top playmaking threats running the ball and catching the ball out of the backfield.

In his first career NFL start as a rookie in '13, Ellington broke off an 80-yard TD run against the Falcons in Week 8. Against the Broncos in Week 5 of the '14 season, Ellington caught a pass and went 81 yards for a TD.

In doing so, he became the only active player in the NFL with both a rushing and receiving TD of 80+ yards in their career. He also became one of just six players in NFL history with an 80+ yard TD run and 80+ yard receiving TD in their first two NFL seasons.

BACK-TO-BACK WITH 1,000

In 2013 RB Andre Ellington became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to go over 1,000 yards from scrimmage in a season. Despite battling numerous injuries throughout his 2014 campaign and missing the final four games with a core muscle injury, Ellington piled up 1,055 yards from scrimmage for the season (660 rushing yards; 395 receiving yards).

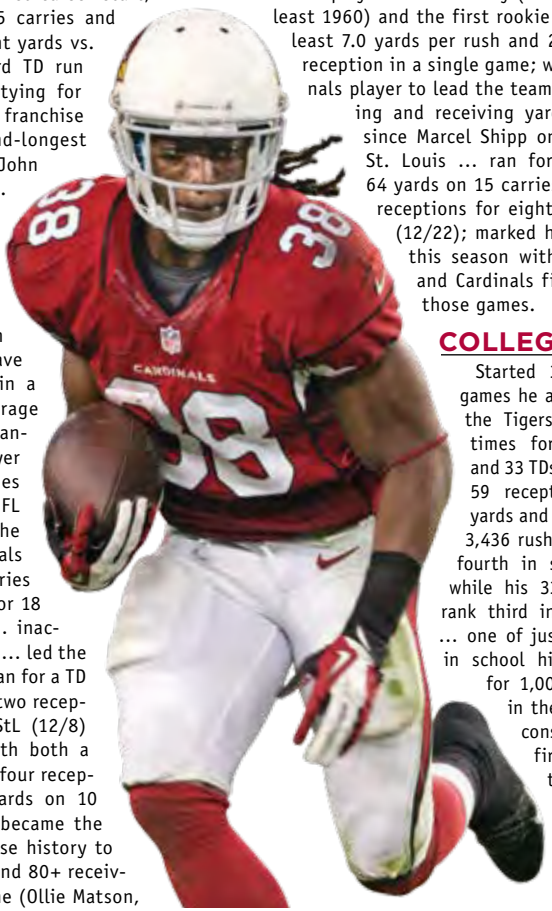

In doing so, he joined RB Ottis Anderson (1979-80) as the only players in franchise history to record 1,000+ yards from scrimmage in each of their first two NFL seasons.

A sixth round pick (187th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, Ellington burst onto the scene as a rookie, totaling 1,023 scrimmage yards on the season (652 rushing, 371 receiving). He became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage in a season and first since Anquan Boldin (1,417) in 2003.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

TE Darren Fells was a success on and off the field in his first year on the active roster with the Cardinals in 2014. An emerging player late in the season, he was very active in the Arizona community with various appearances. In addition to coaching elementary students in multiple team Kids Camps, he joined teammates in October to visit kids at Phoenix Children's Hospital to take part in a birthday party at the Kids Zone.

During the holiday season, Fells attended events including the team's Christmas Angels program and holiday party for children at the Boys Hope Girls Hope program. He joined teammates and dressed up as Santa Claus while visiting the Mary Black Family and Child Services agency in December to host a Christmas party for 500 children. Fells also joined teammates and took part in the "Light the House" party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

- Originally selected by the Cardinals in the first round (third overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft and has started 168 of the 170 games in which he has appeared. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (No. 1 to San Diego) and T Robert Gallery (No. 2 to Oakland).
- An eight-time Pro Bowl selection, Fitzgerald was voted into the annual all-star game for seven straight seasons (2007-13). His eight career Pro Bowl selections are tied with Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson for the most in franchise history. Earned MVP honors in the 2008 Pro Bowl and his eight career TDs represent a Pro Bowl record.
- Following the 2014 season, was named the inaugural winner of the Art Rooney NFL Sportsmanship Award, presented to an NFL player who demonstrates on the field qualities of great sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for opponents and integrity in competition. Fitzgerald was selected in a vote of his fellow NFL players. Fitzgerald was also selected as the Cardinals nominee for the Salute To Service award in '14. In 2012, was named one of three finalists for the "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" Award and was also named the recipient of the 14th Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award by Pro Football Weekly, which is given to the NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable organizations are especially outstanding.
- Franchise career leader in receptions (909), receiving yards (12,151), receiving TDs (89), total TDs (89), 100-yard receiving games (38) and consecutive games with a reception (163).
- Is one of just 12 players in NFL history with 12,000+ receiving yards and 85+ TD receptions in their career.
- His 909 career receptions ranked 19th on the NFL's all-time receptions list while his 12,151 receiving yards rank 21st on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list.
- His 170 games played rank as the ninth-highest total in franchise history.
- Has caught at least one pass in a franchise-record 163 consecutive games. Fitzgerald enters the 2015 season with the NFL's longest active streak of consecutive games with a reception.
- One of just five players in NFL history to record at least 1,400 receiving yards four times in their career, joining Jerry Rice (6), Randy Moss (4), Marvin Harrison (4) and Andre Johnson (4).
- One of just nine players in NFL history with at least 10 TDs in five different seasons.
- Was the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons.
- Has been named NFC Offensive Player of the Week three times in his career, with all three award-winning performances coming against the Philadelphia Eagles. In Week 10 of the '11 season, he earned the honor for the first time in his career following his performance against the Eagles (7 rec, 146 yards, 2 TDs). In Week 3 of the '12 season, earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week after hauling in nine receptions for 114 yards and a TD against Philadelphia. He again earned the honor for his performance against the Eagles in Week 8 of the '14 season, when he hauled in seven receptions for 160 yards, including a career-long 80-yard TD in the third quarter.
- In Week 15 of the 2014 season at St. Louis, reach 900 career receptions. At 31 years, 102 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 900 career receptions.
- In Week 11 of the '14 season vs. Detroit, Fitzgerald surpassed 12,000 career receiving yards. At 31 years, 77 days old, he became the second-youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone behind only Randy Moss (30 years, 306 days).
- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history during the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII in 2008, shattering the NFL single postseason record for receptions (30), receiving yards (546) and receiving TDs (seven). His 30 receptions surpassed the previous record of 27, shared by Carolina's Steve Smith (2005) and New England's Wes Welker (2007). His 546 receiving yards surpassed Jerry Rice's 1988 total of 409 yards and his seven TD receptions topped Rice's 1988 total of six.
- Has nine TD receptions in seven career postseason games, tied with Randy Moss for the NFL record for a player in his first seven postseason games.
- With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games in '08, set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving. Has at least 100 yards receiving in four of the seven postseason games he has appeared in.
- With 96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, joined wide receivers Anquan Boldin (89-1,038) and Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a franchise single-season mark, breaking Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days old became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone at Indianapolis on 1/1/06.

THE FRANCHISE

During his first 11 NFL seasons, Larry Fitzgerald has broken virtually every major Cardinals career receiving record.

In 2011, Fitzgerald became the franchise all-time leader in receiving yards, receiving TDs, career 100-yard games and total TDs. He became the franchise all-time receptions leader in 2010 and he has been building on those records since.

A MAN OF MANY MILESTONES

Becoming the youngest player in NFL history to reach 900 career receptions was one of many career milestones for Larry Fitzgerald during his first 11 NFL seasons.

11,000 Receiving Yards
- In Week 12 of the '13 season, surpassed 11,000 receiving yards for his career. At 30 years, 85 days old, Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to reach 11,000 receiving yards for their career.

800 Receptions
- In Week 8 of the '13 season vs. Atlanta, Fitzgerald reached 800 career receptions. At 30 years, 57 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone.

10,000 Receiving Yards
- In Week 6 of the 2012 season vs. Buffalo, Fitzgerald surpassed 10,000 career receiving yards. At 29 years, 44 days old, he joined Randy Moss (28 years, 314 days) as the only players in NFL history to reach the milestone before the age of 30.

700 Receptions
- In Week 3 of the '12 campaign, Fitzgerald surpassed 700 career receptions. At 29 years, 23 days old, Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to reach that mark. He was over a year younger than the previous record holder—Dallas TE Jason Witten (30 years, 133 days old).

9,000 Receiving Yards
- At 28 years, 81 days old, Fitzgerald reached 9,000 career receiving yards in Week 11 of the 2011 season, becoming the second-youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone. Only Randy Moss (27 years, 310 days old) reached the mark at a younger age than Fitzgerald.

70 Career TD Receptions
- Fitzgerald reached 70 career TDs in Week 10 of the '11 season vs. Philadelphia and at 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, trailing only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day).

8,000 Receiving Yards
- Fitzgerald's 125 receiving yards in Week 15 matchup vs. the Panthers in '10 gave him 8,053 yards for his career as he became the second youngest receiver in NFL history to reach 8,000 yards, trailing only Randy Moss (26 years, 297 days old).

7,000 Receiving Yards
- Against the Lions in Week 15 of 2009, reached 7,000 receiving yards for his career. At 26 years, 111 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone, surpassing Randy Moss (26 years, 220 days old).

6,000 Receiving Yards
- Reached 6,000 career receiving yards in Week 1 of '09 vs. San Francisco at 26 years and 13 days old, becoming the second-youngest receiver in NFL history to reach the milestone behind only Randy Moss (25 years, 270 days).

600 Receptions
- In Week 15 of the '10 season at Carolina, surpassed 600 receptions for his career. At 27 years, 110 days old, became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone, surpassing Randy Moss (28 years, 266 days old).

FITZGERALD OFF THE FIELD

In his 11 NFL seasons, WR Larry Fitzgerald has demonstrated the same dedication and commitment to his charitable work in the community that he has demonstrated in his work on the field for the Arizona Cardinals. Whether it's meeting with kids in their hospital rooms, donating to charities nominated by fans, donating to breast cancer organizations in honor of his mom, or teaming up with corporate partners to donate tablet computers and football safety equipment for youth, Larry has been there to make a contribution. Sometimes his contribution is financial, and often his contribution includes time, effort and heart. Larry has appeared in PSAs to promote breast cancer awareness and prevention and to promote economic self-sufficiency in impoverished African countries. He has visited our troops in Afghanistan and Iraq. He has visited economic development projects in Ethiopia and Senegal and he has fitted children with hearing aids in various countries across Asia and Africa. And he has responded when called upon by the Arizona Cardinals and charities in the Phoenix metropolitan area to provide words of encouragement to a group of school kids, speak at a charitable fundraiser, or visit kids with health issues.

Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund

Larry is generous in his support of the efforts of family, friends, fans, and other people in the community. Larry started the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund in 2005. The Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund was established by to support kids and their families by funding positive activities for kids during the summer and throughout the year. The First Down Fund has made an impact in the lives of children by supporting their education, their physical fitness, and providing economic assistance in times of need. For example, the First Down Fund has provided funds to keep families from being homeless after Arizona fires, has provided emergency assistance funding to families who lost their home to tornado in Minneapolis, has provided educational computer equipment to children, and safety equipment for children playing youth football.

In addition to those efforts, through the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund, Larry has made donations at the end of each season to charitable organizations across the country nominated by fans. In the past two years, the following organizations received donations as a result of this initiative: Thornydale Elementary of Tucson Arizona, for playground equipment and school supplies, TyREDD, an organization raising awareness about the dangers of drowsy driving, the Arthritis Foundation, Weekend Backpack Program of Feedmore in Richmond Virginia, Virginia Tech Relay for Life, Creative States Youth Theater of Arizona, Youth House in Atlanta Georgia, Educational Fund to Stop Gun Violence based in Washington DC, Teen Lifeline of Arizona, PEN in the Classroom, a program of PEN Center USA, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Camp Kesem at Arizona State University, Johnson County Nebraska CAN, The Guild School and Neuromuscular Center in Spokane Washington, Phoenix Children's Hospital, Autism Speaks, The Kingman AZ Foodbank, Donorschoose.org, Phoenix Youth at Risk, Special Olympics of Minnesota, Starkey Hearing Foundation, Special Olympics of Arizona, Desert Dance Theater, YWCA of Oahu, Hawaii, Parenting with a Purpose, Pinal Council for CASA/Foster, Catholic Charities in Flagstaff, Camp Simcha, Streetlight USA, and Operation Homefront of Arizona.

In recognition of his family's history of generations of charitable work in the community, annually Larry makes a donation to Plano Child Development Center, which provides vision care to children who otherwise would not have access to it. Plano was founded by Larry's late grandfather, Dr. Robert Johnson.

For his support of children in Arizona and throughout the world, Fitzgerald was honored with the Alfredo J. Molina Community Lifetime Award in June of 2013. The award was given by Teen Lifeline, a Phoenix based organization whose mission is to provide a safe, confidential and life-saving crisis service for teens across Arizona.

Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund

The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund was established in honor of Larry's late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. It supports causes that Larry's mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues. The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Benefit, Morton's Celebrity Servers Night and the Celebrity Softball Game and VIP After Party are all annual events hosted by Larry, with proceeds supporting both the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund and the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund.

One of the causes closest to Larry's heart is breast cancer research. Following the death of his mother, Larry became very involved in the cause and in November of 2013, he was honored as the recipient of the NFL Players Association Georgetown Lombardi Award, which was established to honor a leader in the sports industry whose life and family have been touched by cancer, and who encourages cancer research, prevention and treatment through awareness and philanthropy. The award is given jointly by the NFL Players Association and the Georgetown Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center in Washington, DC.

Over the past five seasons, Larry has proved a key figure in the NFL's annual Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, using his play on the field and his popularity on social media to earn funds to help raise awareness for breast cancer research. In each of the last four years, Fitzgerald donated thousands of dollars for each catch and TD he hauled in during the month of October. During the '13 and '14 seasons, Fitzgerald pledged to donate $1,000 for every catch and $10,000 for every TD reception during the month of October. The following organizations have received significant donations as a result of this initiative: The National Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, African American Breast Cancer Alliance, and Sistas of AZ Pink 365 campaign providing free mammograms.

FITZGERALD OFF THE FIELD

Humanitarian Travel – Famine Relief and Helping to Restore Hearing

During the last few years, Larry has taken part in humanitarian trips in Africa during the offseason.

- In March of 2013 Larry traveled to Senegal with Oxfam America, and friends Anquan Boldin and Roddy White, to support economic development projects and raise awareness about needs in that part of the world. In March of 2012, he joined former teammate Anquan Boldin and partnered with Oxfam America on a trip to Ethiopia. The duo was there to raise awareness of the drought and famine crisis that has affected millions of people in the region. Among the projects they worked on were irrigation systems and planting trees.

- Larry is also a tireless volunteer the Starkey Hearing Foundation, an international relief group dedicated to provide hear aids and hearing health awareness to those less fortunate and also supporting research and education. In 2013 Larry traveled to the Philippines with Starkey Hearing Foundation to fit children with hearing aids. In May of 2012, Fitzgerald again joined the Starkey Hearing Foundation on a trip to Malaysia and in late July, just prior to the start of training camp, he flew to Uganda to assist President Clinton and his daughter Chelsea fit hearing aids for those in need. In previous years Larry traveled to Thailand and India to fit hearing aids for children.

In March of 2011, Fitzgerald joined Pros for Africa and the Starkey Hearing Foundation on a trip to Uganda and Rwanda to bring over 22,000 hearing aids to people with no way to afford them.

Youth Football Initiatives

In addition to teaming up with Riddell to donate helmets, 2013, Larry volunteered his time to serve as the national spokesman for USA Football's Protection Tour, promoting proper technique and protective equipment.

Larry has also hosted a youth football camp in Minnesota and in Arizona for several years. Every year scholarship slots are funded by Larry so that underprivileged youth can attend. The camps provided boys and girls ages 7-14 the opportunity to learn fundamentals from Fitzgerald and other NFL players and coaches.

Supporting the Military

Having had a number of family members serve in the Armed Forces, Larry has long been a big supporter of the United States Armed Forces. In 2014, Fitzgerald was selected as the Cardinals nominee for the fourth annual "Salute to Service" award presented by USAA. Each NFL team nominated one player, coach or front office member who demonstrates an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

- In October of 2014, Fitzgerald held a free, two-day ProCamp for 130 military children at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona. At the camp, Fitzgerald joined local coaches in helping teach the children the fundamentals of football, including route-running and catching passes. The camp supported the Defense Department's Healthy Base Initiative, which helps service members, their families and DOD civilians live healthier lives through nutrition and fitness. It was the second ProCamp Fitzgerald participated in in 2014, having also joined a group of NFL players who helped at a camp at the Schofield Barracks in O'ahu, Hawaii in January.

- Earlier in the year, Fitzgerald was at Luke Air Force Base for a fly-along with pilot Maj. Michael Fisher aboard an Air Force Thunderbirds jet. F-16. Fitzgerald was a passenger in the F-16 for an hour-long flight to help promote Luke's Open House and Air Show that weekend.

- In June of 2011, Larry joined EAS on a promotion for the Semper Fi Fund. He did numerous interviews to raise awareness for the "Views for Vets" Semper Fi Fund initiative. For every click on the funds website, donations were made that raised immediate financial support for injured and critically ill members of the United States Armed Forces.

- Twice in his career, Larry has joined other NFL players on week-long NFL/USO tours of Iraq and Afghanistan, spending several days meeting with troops deployed to the Persian Gulf. Larry has visited numerous bases and met with thousands of troops, taking pictures, signing autographs and participating in "football roundtables," where troops were able to ask the players questions. During one trip they also met up with a group of Navy SEALs and were challenged to compete against a number of top SEALs in the obstacle training course.

Man of the Year

Fitzgerald was named the "Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" in 2012 and was one of three finalists for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award.

In August of 2012, Fitzgerald was honored as the recipient of the 14th Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award by Pro Football Weekly, an award given to an NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable organizations are especially outstanding.

Most recently, Fitzgerald was honored as the male recipient of the 2014 Henry P. Iba Citizen Athlete Award. Created by the Rotary Club of Tulsa (OK) in 1994, the award annually recognizes male and female athletes who are positive role models and give back to their communities. The Rotary Club selects recipients who excel in their sport and who are personally dedicated and involved in charities.

POSTSEASON PERFORMER

During the 2008 postseason, Larry Fitzgerald was unstoppable, breaking virtually every postseason receiving record imaginable. He shattered the NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

Fitzgerald has been back to the postseason twice since the Cardinals Super Bowl run (2009, 2014) and through seven career postseason games, he has accumulated 736 receiving yards. That ranks as the second-highest total in NFL history through a players first seven postseason games.

FITZ EARNS INAUGURAL SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

At the NFL Honors ceremony in the lead up to Super Bowl XLIX, WR Larry Fitzgerald was named the inaugural winner of the Art Rooney NFL Sportsmanship Award.

Fitzgerald was selected in a vote of his fellow NFL players. He received a $25,000 donation from the NFL Foundation to a charity of his choice and was also presented "The Art Rooney Trophy," which represents the important role that sportsmanship plays in the game and how NFL players that demonstrate integrity and honor on the field serve as role models for other players at all levels.

The award was established in 2014 and was named in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr. It will be presented each year to an NFL player who demonstrates on the field qualities of great sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for opponents, and integrity in competition.

Each NFL team nominated one player during the season and a panel of former players from the NFL Legends Community selected eight finalists (four in the AFC; four in the NFC).

The finalists in 2014 were Fitzgerald, LB Thomas Davis (Carolina), LB Chad Greenway (Minnesota), WR Calvin Johnson (Detroit), S Troy Polamalu (Pittsburgh), WR-special teamer Matthew Slater (New England), QB Alex Smith (Kansas City) and DE DeMarcus Ware (Denver).

CARDINALS AND THE ROOMSTORE PARTNER TO HOST HOLIDAY TOY DRIVE

The Cardinals and The RoomStore partnered to host a toy drive that benefitted "Arizonans for Children" prior to last December's Cardinals-Chiefs game at University of Phoenix Stadium.

RoomStore volunteers teamed with Cardinals Cheerleaders to collect new unwrapped toys and donations for underprivileged children outside of each stadium entrance prior to the pat down area. Fans could also drop off toys at any Valley RoomStore location prior to the game.

The toy collection at the game marked the end of the team's annual toy drive that began in November.

Arizonans for Children is a non-profit organization that exists to facilitate opportunities and provide effective solutions to alleviate hardships and improve the fragile lives of the abused, abandoned, and neglected children in foster care.

WIDE RECEIVER ■ 6-2 ■ 220

COLLEGE: Notre Dame
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 4/4

HOMETOWN: St. Paul, MN

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first round selection in the 2012 NFL Draft and the 13th overall pick; was the second wide receiver taken behind Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon (5th overall to Jacksonville). Became the first Notre Dame WR taken in the first round since Heisman Trophy winner Tim Brown was selected sixth overall by the Raiders in 1988.
- Has appeared in all 48 regular season games (34 starts) and the team's '14 Wild Card matchup in his first three NFL seasons. Has started 31 of 32 games over the last two seasons.
- Hauled in 47 receptions for a team-high 841 yards and a career-high six TD receptions in 2014. His three 100-yard receiving games last season matched his total from his first two NFL seasons (32 games) combined.
- Averaged 17.9 yards per catch last season, which ranked as the second-highest total in the NFL in '14 behind only Washington's DeSean Jackson (20.9). Floyd posted a team-high nine receptions of 30+ yards on the season.
- Of his 13 career TD receptions, nine have covered at least 20 yards. Of his last nine TD catches, eight have covered 20+ yards, including five of his career-high six TDs in '14.
- Had a breakout year in his second NFL season, hauling in 65 receptions for 1,041 yards and five TDs in 2013. He became the 12th different player in franchise history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Posted six receptions for 193 yards against the Jaguars in Week 11 of the '13 season, including a 91-yard TD reception in the third quarter. His 193 yards represent the seventh-best single game total in franchise history and the most since Anquan Boldin recorded 217 yards on 10 receptions at Detroit on 9/7/03.
- Hauled in his first career game-winning catch in Week 16 of the '13 season at Seattle. His lone reception of the game was a spectacular 31-yard TD catch late in the fourth quarter which snapped the Seahawks NFL-best 14-game home win streak.
- First career NFL reception was an eight-yard TD catch against Philadelphia in Week 3 of the '12 season. First career college reception was a 22-yard TD catch against San Diego State in 2008.
- Grew up in St. Paul, MN and attended Cretin-Derham Hall High School, which is less than 10 miles from Larry Fitzgerald's prep alma mater, Academy of the Holy Angels, in Minneapolis. Both were All-State and All-American WRs during their prep career, and they became friends while Floyd attended Cretin-Derham.

PRO CAREER:

Selected by the Cardinals in the first round (13th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft, Floyd has appeared in all 48 regular season games (34 starts) in his first three NFL seasons.

OVER 1,000 IN 2013

WR Michael Floyd hauled in 65 receptions for 1,041 yards and five TDs in 2013. It marked the first 1,000-yard season of his career, and he became the 12th different player in franchise history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Floyd's 2013 campaign was the 28th all-time 1,000-yard receiving season in franchise history.

WAY MORE THAN AVERAGE

During the 2014 season, his third in the NFL, WR Michael Floyd hauled in 47 receptions for a team-high 841 yards and a career-high six TDs.

His 17.9 yards per catch average ranked as the second-best total in the NFL last season, trailing only Washington's DeSean Jackson (20.1). Floyd was one of just three players in the NFL last season to average at least 17.0 yards per reception.

NFL Leaders–Average Yards Per Reception

Rnk	Player (Team)	Avg
1	DeSean Jackson (Was)	20.9
2	Michael Floyd (AZ)	17.9
3	Taylor Gabriel (Cle)	17.3

5	Malcom Floyd (SD)	16.9

From Long Distance

Floyd posted nine receptions of 30+ yards in 2014, including catches of 49, 45, 41 and 32 yards in the final four games.

After hauling in two TD passes in the finale at San Francisco, Floyd has 13 career TD receptions, with nine of those covering at least 20 yards (20, 20, 23, 31, 33, 37, 41, 42 and 91 yards). Of his last nine TD catches, eight have covered at least 20 yards, including five of his six TD receptions in 2014.

Going For 100

In the '14 finale vs. San Francisco, Floyd tied career-highs in receptions (8) and TDs (2) while adding a season-high 153 yards. It marked Floyd's third 100-yard outing of the season, matching his total (3) from his first two NFL seasons (32 games) combined.

Of his six career 100-yard games, three have come against the 49ers, including both games in 2014. He also had 114 yards on five receptions against the Niners in Week 3.

In addition to his three 100-yard outings in '14, Floyd also posted the first two multiple TD games of his career. In Week 11 vs. Detroit, he hauled in TD passes of 42 and 12 yards in the first quarter. In the regular season finale at San Francisco, Floyd had TD receptions of 20 and 41 yards in the first half.

GOING THE DISTANCE – MILESTONE TDS

In the third quarter of the Cards Week 11 win over Jacksonville in 2013, Carson Palmer hit WR Michael Floyd for a 91-yard TD pass that gave Arizona a 24-14 lead. Combined with the 80-yard TD run by RB Andre Ellington in Week 8 vs. Atlanta, the Cardinals became the first team since the 1971 Cincinnati Bengals to post a TD run of 80+ yards and a passing TD of 90+ yards in the same season. For the '71 Bengals, Speedy Thomas had a 90-yard TD reception and RB Essex Johnson had an 86-yard TD run.

The pass tied for the sixth-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history and longest since Neil Lomax hit Ernie Jones for a 93-yard TD on 12/10/88 vs. Philadelphia.

NOTECARDS

- Selected by the Cardinals in the second round (58th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft out of Missouri. Arizona entered the second round with the 55th overall pick but traded that pick with the Ravens and acquired an extra fifth-round choice (158th overall) before selecting Golden.
- The Cardinals will have two former Mizzou players at LB this season. In addition to Golden, as part of its 2015 free agent class Arizona signed LB Sean Weatherspoon, who played at Missouri from 2006-09. Like Golden, Weatherspoon served as a team captain for the Tigers.
- As a senior in 2014, he appeared in 13 games and posted career-highs with 78 tackles, 20 tackles for loss, 10.0 sacks, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.
- Named the MVP of the 2015 Citrus Bowl after posting a game-high 10 tackles, four tackles for loss, a forced fumble and 1.5 sacks.

COLLEGE CAREER:

During his three seasons at Missouri – where he transferred after beginning his career at Hutchinson Junior College – Golden appeared in 39 games (13 starts) and registered 143 tackles, 33 tackles for loss, 16.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and an INT … returned a fumble recovery 30 yards for a TD (2014) and his only career interception 70 yards for a TD (2013) … played LB during his time at Hutchinson Junior College and also during his first season at Missouri in 2012 before switching to DE prior to his junior year.

2014: Voted a team co-captain by his teammates, went on to start 13 games and earned All-SEC second-team honors at DE from the league's coaches and was an Associated Press All-SEC honorable mention selection as well … named the Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week and the SEC and National Defensive Player of the Week following his performance at Tennessee for his six tackles, 2.0 sacks, 2.5 tackles for loss, one fumble recovery and two QB hits … totaled 78 tackles, 20 tackles for loss, 10.0 sacks and a team-high 12 QB hurries … also forced three fumbles and recovered three more … ranked ninth in the nation in tackles for loss and was 20th nationally in sacks … had a career performance in his final college game, earning MVP honors at the Citrus Bowl with a game-high 10 tackles, four tackles for loss, a forced fumble and 1.5 sacks.

2013: As a junior, was arguably MU's most productive DE, despite playing only about 40% of the snaps at a spot loaded with future NFL talents such as Kony Ealy and Michael Sam … led MU ends with 55 tackles on the year and added 13 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks with eight passes defensed … had six tackles, including one sack and two quarterback hurries vs. Texas A&M … made one of the plays of the season against Toledo when he returned an INT 70 yards for a TD to put Mizzou up 24-9 in the third quarter.

2012: In his first season after transferring from Hutchinson, appeared in all 12 games playing primarily on special teams … totaled 10 tackles and forced a fumble … was a key performer on various special teams units and helped clear the way for return man Marcus Murphy on each of his record-setting three punt return TDs on the season … forced a fumble on kickoff coverage against Kentucky.

2011: Redshirted to focus on academics.

PERSONAL:

Was a record-setting running back and linebacker at Affton (St. Louis, MO) High School … as a senior, ran for a record 2,264 yards and 30 touchdowns while also collecting 108 tackles and 10 sacks … his junior season saw him post a school-record 168 tackles and 16 sacks, while he also ran for 1,139 yards and 16 scores … was his team's captain each of his last two years … in May of 2015, had his high school number (#2) retired during a ceremony in his honor at Affton.

COLLEGE: Delaware State
HOMETOWN: Lake Hamilton, FL

116th Overall

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals entered the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft with the 123rd overall selection and made a trade with Cleveland to move up to the 116th overall pick, where they selected Gunter out of Delaware State.
- Became the first Delaware State player ever selected by the Cardinals in the NFL Draft and the school's highest draft pick since San Francisco acquired future two-time Pro Bowl WR John Taylor with the 76th overall selection in 1986.
- Did not receive a lot of attention from college scouts coming out of Haines City (FL) High School, where he played just one season of football. His time on the gridiron was cut short because he was busy working 32 hours a week after school as a dishwasher and waiter at Spring Haven Retirement Home. He did so to help pay the household bills for his single mother and two younger brothers.
- First invidivual selected in the 2015 NFL Draft that was not among players invited to the NFL Combine.

COLLEGE CAREER:

A four-year starter and three-time All-MEAC selection at Delaware State, Gunter totaled 188 tackles, 37 tackles for loss, 18.0 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery during his career … led the team in sacks in each of his final three seasons … was a Delaware State and MEAC Scholar-Athlete.

2014: Earned second-team All-MEAC honors after posting a career-high 57 tackles, seven sacks and 12 tackles for loss … his seven sacks led the Hornets and ranked eighth in the MEAC … finished 16th in the league with 12 tackles for loss.

2013: Earned first-team All-MEAC honors as a junior after posting 43 tackles and a team-high 4.5 sacks … marked second-straight season leading the team in sacks … finished second on the team with 10.5 tackles for loss … tied career-high with 10 tackles (eight solos) vs. Morgan State in season finale.

2012: Appeared in all 11 games and was named second-team All-MEAC as a sophomore after posting 49 tackles and a team-high 5.5 sacks … led all D-linemen with 27 solo tackles and ranked second on the team with nine tackles for loss … also credited with three QB hurries, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed … had a career-high three sacks in 23-20 overtime loss to NC Central.

2011: Appeared in all 11 games as a true freshman and ranked fifth on the Hornets with 39 total tackles (24 solos) … also finished fifth on the team with 4.5 tackles for loss … credited with a sack and a QB hurry … had a career-high 10 tackles against South Carolina State.

PERSONAL:

Attended Haines City (FL) High School where he was a standout performer in both football and basketball … played just one season of football … earned honorable mention All-State honors as a senior in his lone season on the gridiron … cousin of D.C. Jefferson, who played football at Rutgers and was a seventh round selection (219th overall) of the Cardinals in the 2013 NFL Draft.

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2012, 2013, 2014

NOTECARDS

- Signed a five-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/11/15 as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first five seasons with the 49ers.
- A three-time Pro Bowler (2012-14) and first-team All-Pro selection in 2012, Iupati started all 75 regular season games he played in and all eight postseason games in five years with San Francisco.
- The only active guard and one of just eight active offensive linemen to make the Pro Bowl at least three times in their first five NFL seasons. Iupati is one of seven offensive linemen to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of the last three years and one of only three guards (Jahri Evans, New Orleans; Marshal Yanda, Baltimore).
- Known as a powerful run blocker, helped 49ers RB Frank Gore top 1,100 rushing yards in four straight seasons from 2011-14. San Francisco ranked in the top eight in the NFL in rushing each of the last four years, with top four rankings from 2012-14.
- A first-round pick (17th overall) in the 2010 draft, he and fellow first-round pick T Anthony Davis started all 16 games together as rookies in 2010. They became just the third set of rookies to start every game on the offensive line since the 16-game schedule began in 1978 (T Adam Meadows and T Tarik Glenn, 1997 Colts; C Nick Mangold and T D'Brickashaw Ferguson, 2006 Jets).
- From 2011-13, started 52 games (including postseason) for the 49ers alongside C Jonathan Goodwin, younger brother of Cardinals offensive coordinator Harold Goodwin.
- Grew up in Vaitogi in American Samoa, a 1.25 square mile village with 1,400 people, and learned English as a second language. Did not live in the United States until prior to his freshman year of high school.

NEAR THE TOP

Second-year S Tony Jefferson, who joined the Cardinals as a rookie free agent out of Oklahoma in 2013, was another solid performer in the Cardinals secondary last season.

After registering seven tackles in Week 16 against the Seahawks, Jefferson finished the regular season with 74 tackles on the year, which ranked fourth on the team.

In the win over the Eagles in Week 8, Jefferson registered a career-high 11 tackles. It marked the second time in the '14 season that Jefferson registered at least 10 tackles in a game. The first came in the Cardinals Week 3 win over the San Francisco 49ers, when he also had his first career sack and a tackle for loss.

Jefferson's sack vs. San Francisco, the lone sack of the game for either team, came at a critical time in the game. With the Cardinals clinging to a 20-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Jefferson came through the middle and took down Niners QB Colin Kaepernick for a nine-yard loss on 2nd-n-10 from the SF 19-yard line, forcing the 49ers in a 3rd-n-19 play from their own 10-yard line that they did not convert.

CIGNA CELEBRATES EACH CARDINALS KICK WITH 'KICK FOR KIDS' PROGRAM

Cigna presented a $10,000 donation to the Muscular Dystrophy Association at the Cardinals-Seahawks game last December as a sponsor of the Cardinals Charities "Kick for Kids" program.

For the fifth consecutive year, Cigna contributed up to $10,000 to Cardinals Charities for every field goal the Cardinals made during the season. As a result of Cigna's sponsorship, Cardinals Charities has donated a total of $50,000 to area organizations focused on wellness, including the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, Florence Crittenton of Arizona, the Muscular Dystrophy Association and Phoenix Children's Hospital.

"The Muscular Dystrophy Association is an amazing organization dedicated to finding treatments and cures for neuromuscular diseases," said Edward Kim, president and general manager for Cigna in Arizona. "We are proud to work together with the Cardinals Charities again this year to support organizations like the Muscular Dystrophy Association that share our same goal of improving the health of communities where we live and work."

Cigna was also the sponsor of the Cardinals Breast Health Awareness Game in October for the fifth consecutive year, recognizing October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Cigna employees, along with other breast cancer survivors, performed and were honored during halftime.

NOTECARDS

- Selected by the Cardinals in the third round (95th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, Johnson agreed to a three-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/12/13 as a free agent.
- Had his best season as a pro in 2014, starting all 16 games and recording career highs with 92 tackles, four INTs (two returned for TDs) and six passes defensed. Led the team with four INTs and two defensive TDs and ranked second in tackles.
- With his 88-yard INT return TD at Atlanta in Week 13 of the 2014 season, became the ninth player in team history with three or more career INT return TDs.
- Posted three INTs in 2013, including his first career multi-INT game when he had two in Week 8 against Atlanta.
- Lost the end of his left middle finger while he attempted a tackle on special teams in the second quarter of the Cardinals Week 3 matchup in New Orleans in 2013. He returned to action three games later.
- A key special teams performer early in his career, has totaled 44 special teams tackles over his first six seasons. During the 2012 campaign he racked up 64 yards on two fake punts, picking up first downs after runs of 40 and 24 yards.
- During his rookie season in 2009, was the only player drafted by the Cardinals to crack the starting lineup, receiving the start in Week 17 vs. Green Bay.
- A two-year starter at safety for the Crimson Tide, Johnson is a former walk-on running back who came from a little known 1-A high school in Sulligent, AL, a town with a population under 2,000. He graduated in a class of 54 total students.
- After redshirting in his first season at Alabama, made the switch to defense in 2005 and went on to become just the eighth player in Alabama's storied history to serve as team captain twice (as a junior and senior).

A CAREER YEAR FOR #26

S Rashad Johnson had his finest season as a pro and was the MVP of a star-laden secondary during his sixth NFL season.

Johnson finished the 2014 regular season ranked second on the team with a career-high 92 tackles, adding a career-high and team-leading four INTs (2 TDs), a sack and six passes defensed. Prior to last season, Johnson's career-high for tackles in a season was 53 (2013).

Johnson registered his fourth INT of the season in Week 13 at Atlanta when he picked off a Matt Ryan pass in the second quarter and returned it 88 yards for his second TD of the season and third career INT return for a TD.

In doing so he became just the ninth player in franchise history with at least three career INT returns for TDs.

In the Cardinals 24-20 win over Philadelphia in Week 8, Johnson made perhaps the game's biggest play. With one second remaining in the fourth quarter and the Eagles running the game's final play from the AZ 16-yard line, Philly QB Nick Foles lofted a pass to the back corner of the end zone to WR Jordan Matthews. The rookie wideout caught the ball but Johnson arrived just in time to push him out of bounds, ending the game and securing the Cardinals four-point victory. Johnson finished the game with a season-high 10 tackles and a career-high four passes defensed.

Johnson memorably lost the end of his left middle finger in a game against New Orleans in 2013, but he has played his best football since then. Prior to losing a portion of his finger, Johnson had three total INTs in 59 career games. Since the injury, Johnson has hauled in seven INTs in just 27 games.

THREE MEMBERS OF 2014 CARDINALS STAFF RECOGNIZED BY SPORTING NEWS

Cardinals general manager Steve Keim, head coach Bruce Arians and former defensive coordinator (and current New York Jets head coach) Todd Bowles were all recognized with Sporting News awards for the 2014 season.

Keim was named NFL Executive of the Year at the NFL's Annual Meeting in March. The award, determined by a vote of NFL coaches and team executives, has been given out annually since 1955. Keim made 217 roster moves in the 2014 calendar year, helping guide the Cardinals to a franchise record-tying 11 wins and a postseason berth despite 21 players missing 109 total games due to injury. Of the 53 players on the Cardinals roster at the close of the 2014 season, 40 were acquired by Keim since he became general manager in January 2013.

In January, Arians was selected as NFL Coach of the Year and Bowles was named Coordinator of the Year. Arians, who also earned Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press and the Maxwell Football Club, led the Cardinals to an 11-5 record in 2014, his second as Arizona's head coach. Combined with the Cardinals 10-6 record in 2013, Arians joined Don Coryell as the only coaches in franchise history to lead the team to back-to-back 10+ win seasons. Arians is the only coach in Cardinals history to do so in each of his first two seasons with the team and he has more wins (21) than any coach in franchise history through their first 32 games with the team.

Bowles, who was hired as the new head coach of the Jets after the conclusion of the 2014 season, coached a Cardinals defense that ranked fifth in the NFL allowing just 18.7 points per game in 2014 despite sustaining a number of key losses before and throughout the season.

THE FAMILY BUSINESS

When Cardinals long snapper Mike Leach and his wife, Julie, were potty-training their daughter a few years ago, they were searching for a stuffed animal that would help in the process. They couldn't find one. That gave the couple an idea, which remained a rough outline until they attended the NFL's first-ever Consumer Products Boot Camp in March of 2014.

With Julie's MBA and the knowledge and contacts gained from the camp, the two were able to turn their idea into a business. In May of 2015, the couple officially launched Potty Pals (www.pottypals.com). Described as a fun, easy and interactive way to potty train children, Potty Pals utilize a stuff animal, a colorfully illustrated book (written by Mike and Julie), and a training chart to help in the training process.

In addition to helping parents with the training process, the business will also give back to the Arizona community. A portion of the sales will go to benefit the Phoenix Children's Hospital.

2009: Played in all 16 games and both post-season contests, recording a career-high 12 special teams tackles … appeared in first game as a member of the Cardinals vs. SF (9/13) … tied for the team lead with three special teams tackles and filled in at TE for the injured Stephen Spach in the fourth quarter vs. Hou (10/11) … recorded one special teams tackle @ Sea (10/18); @ NYG (10/25); vs. Car (11/1) … registered two special teams tackles vs. Sea (11/15) to establish a new single-season career high … recorded one special teams tackle in each of the next three games: @ SF (12/14); @ Det (12/20); vs. StL (12/27) … appeared in both postseason contests.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Long snapper Mike Leach's sixth year in Arizona was filled with countless community appearances throughout the Valley. The Cardinals 2010 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year, Leach continued his community involvement by visiting various schools for the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies program, coaching kids at Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and serving as the team representative for Garth Brooks' "Teammates for Kids Foundation," which Cardinals Charities helps support.

He and his wife, Julie, continued to make monthly visits to Phoenix Children's Hospital after furnishing the Teen Room at the hospital in 2010 with a new flat screen television and new chairs for the kids. He has visited the hospital on numerous occasions, including in 2015 during the week of the Super Bowl to help deliver gift baskets to the children as part of the Super Baskets of Hope program to help inspire and give hope to newly diagnosed children and their families affected by cancer or other serious illnesses. Leach joined his teammates and visited the hospital last season to take part in a birthday party at the Kids Zone. He also took part in the annual ABC-15 telethon benefiting Phoenix Children's Hospital the past two years by answering phones and visiting with the kids and their parents at the hospital.

Once again in 2014, Mike and Julie were regular visitors and contributors to the Ronald McDonald House. In December, they joined other players and their wives at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House for the team's annual Light the House holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. They joined other Cardinals teammates in November at the grand opening of the new Ronald McDonald House in Mesa. The Leaches make regular visits to Ronald McDonald House locations around the Valley to spend time with families in addition to coloring and doing crafts with the children.

Leach also once again took part at the team's annual Feed the Hungry event at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving and passed out personalized teddy bears during the holiday season at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the annual Teddy Bear Express program. In 2013, he joined teammates and participated at the NFL and United Way Hometown Huddle event to assist with a beautification project at the Balsz Elementary School in Phoenix while hosting a PLAY 60 kids camp for 100 children. The project included two murals that were created and designed by the students at the school.

Every May since coming to the Cardinals, Leach has also been a guest instructor at the team's Kicking, Punting and Snapping camp for high school students from Arizona, New Mexico and Utah.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Safety Tyrann Mathieu's transition to the NFL has included his desire to give back to the Arizona community in which he now lives. During his first two seasons, he has been a frequent participant at Cardinals kids camps and Gatorade Jr. Training Camps around the Valley.

Last September, Mathieu joined the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee and NFL Foundation for a field dedication—Super Bowl XLIX Legacy Field—at ASU Preparatory Academy in Phoenix. He also participated in the NFL and United Way's "Hometown Huddle" to host a PLAY 60 Kids Camp featuring fitness activities and drills for students from Rio Rico. The program also included the development and future installation of a community walking and jogging path at Rio Rico High School. NFL PLAY 60 encourages kids to get active for at least 60 minutes every day.

During Super Bowl XLIX week in Arizona, Mathieu greeted and thanked participants and volunteers at the NFL Super Kids-Super Sharing project to help collect donated sports equipment, books and school supplies for the Salvation Army South Mountain Kroc Community Center in Phoenix. In March, he was the featured speaker at the 2015 Arizona Soccer Club Pat Tillman Foundation 3v3 Tournament kickoff meeting. Mathieu spoke to the participants about leadership on and off the field.

As a rookie in 2013, Mathieu took part in two special events which impacted two different groups of Valley residents. In October as part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Mathieu visited Perry High School in Gilbert, AZ for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with an honorary pink jersey while the Cardinals provided the Perry High School football team with pink jerseys, wrist bands and hats. The event had special meaning to Mathieu as two of his aunts passed away from breast cancer.

Later in his rookie season, Mathieu hosted the first Red Stars Rising event at the W hotel in Scottsdale in November which featured food, entertainment and celebrity appearances with the proceeds from the silent auction benefiting Phoenix Children's Hospital.

COLLEGE: Southern California
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 13/3

HOMETOWN: Rancho Santa Margarita, CA

NOTECARDS

- Acquired by the Cardinals on 4/2/13 in a trade with the Oakland Raiders, Palmer agreed to a three-year contract with Arizona. He then signed a three-year contract extension with the Cardinals on 11/7/14 that will keep him under contract with the team through the 2017 season.
- Named a team captain in each of his first two seasons in Arizona (2013-14). The 2014 season represented the seventh time in his career that Palmer was named a team captain.
- Has posted a 16-6 record as a starter in Arizona, which represents the best record for a Cardinals QB in his first 22 games with the team in the modern era. Palmer was 6-0 as a starter in '14, becoming the first Cardinals QB to win six consecutive starts since Jim Hart in 1977 and the first to win each of his first six starts in a season since Hart won his first seven in 1974.
- Has led the Cardinals to a 13-2 record in his last 15 starts. In those 15 games, Palmer completed 342 of 530 pass attempts (64.5%) for 4,159 yards, 27 TDs, 12 INTs and a 96.1 passer rating. He had a passer rating of 90.0+ in 11 of those 15 games and a 100.0+ rating in eight games.
- Led two fourth quarter comebacks in 2014, throwing game-winning TD passes in Week 1 vs. San Diego and in Week 8 vs. Philadelphia. Has been the architect of 26 career game-winning drives, including 18 fourth quarter comebacks. Tied his career high for a single season with three fourth quarter comebacks in 2013 during his first season with Arizona.
- Prior to the season-ending knee injury suffered in Week 10 of the '14 season, had thrown at least one TD pass in 18 consecutive games. That is tied for the third-longest streak in franchise history (Kurt Warner, 22 games, 2007-08 and Neil Lomax, 19 games, 1983-84).
- For his career, Palmer has started 143 of the 144 games he has appeared in, completing 3,071 of 4,906 pass attempts (62.9%) for 35,365 yards, 224 TDs, 155 INTs and a passer rating of 86.3. Among active NFL QBs, Palmer ranks seventh in pass attempts (4,906), sixth in completions (3,071), seventh in passing yards (35,365), ninth in TD passes (224) and 10th in completions percentage (62.6).
- Palmer is the only QB in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards in a season with three different teams. Has thrown for over 4,000 yards in a season four times (2006-07, '12-13) and thrown for 20+ TDs seven times (2005-07, '09-10, '12-13). The 2013 season marked his fourth with both 4,000+ yards and 20+ TDs.
- For his career, has thrown for 300+ yards in a game 34 times (seven in Arizona), including seven career outings with 400+ passing yards (two in Arizona). Palmer had two 400-yard passing games (419 at Jacksonville, 11/17/13; 407 vs. San Francisco, 12/29/13) and five 300-yard games in 2013, trailing only Kurt Warner (7, 2008) and Neil Lomax (7, 1984) for the most in a season in team history.
- In his first season in Arizona in 2013, Palmer started all 16 games and threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams (Cincinnati, 2006-07, Oakland, 2012). Palmer also became the third QB in franchise history to top 4,000 yards in a season and the first since Kurt Warner (4,583 in 2008).
- Palmer completed 362 of 572 pass attempts (63.3%) with 24 TDs with Arizona in 2013. The 362 completions and 572 attempts both rank second in franchise history for a single season. The 4,274 yards ranks third, 63.3 completion percentage is fourth and 24 TD passes is tied for sixth.
- Reached 30,000 career passing yards and 200 career TD passes during the '13 season.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after completing 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two TDs against the Colts in Week 12 of the '13 season. Marked his third career Player of the Week honor after winning AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice (Week 7-2009 and Week 13-2004).
- In Week 14 of the '13 season against the Rams, Palmer completed 27 of 32 passes (84.4%) for 269 yards and a TD. The 84.4 completion percentage was the highest of his career and the second-best single-game completion percentage in franchise history. Only Kurt Warner (NFL-record 92.3% at Jax on 9/20/09) ranks higher.
- A two-time Pro Bowl selection (2005-06), Palmer was named the game's MVP in 2006.
- Led the NFL in completion percentage (67.8) and TD passes (32) in 2005.
- Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September in 2005.
- The 2002 Heisman Trophy Winner at USC, Palmer was selected by Cincinnati with the first overall selection in the 2003 NFL Draft. After eight seasons with the Bengals, he left Cincinnati ranked third in franchise history in career pass attempts (3,217), second in completions (2,024), first in completion percentage (62.9%), third in passing yards (22,694) and third in TD passes (154).

NOTECARDS

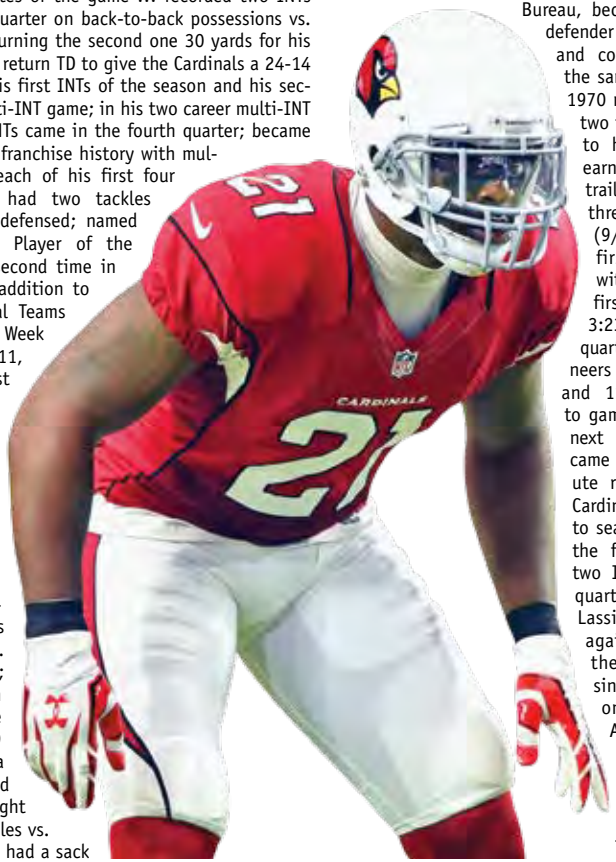

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2011 NFL Draft and the fifth overall pick, Peterson was the first cornerback taken in draft. Signed a five-year extension on 7/29/14 that will keep him under contract with the Cardinals through 2020.
- Voted to his fourth straight Pro Bowl in 2014; has been selected to the Pro Bowl three times at cornerback (2012-14) and once as a kick returner (2011). Peterson has also earned first-team All-Pro honors at both cornerback (2013) and kick returner (2011). Peterson and Hall of Famer Rod Woodson are the only NFL players ever to be selected to the Pro Bowl as both a defender and kick returner.
- Joins Hall of Famers Jim Brown, Barry Sanders and Emmitt Smith as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to four Pro Bowls before their 25th birthday. Peterson also joins Hall of Famer Ollie Matson as the only players in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four NFL seasons.
- In his first four NFL seasons, started all 64 regular season games at cornerback and recorded 208 tackles, 15 INTs (one returned for a TD), two sacks, 68 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Also started the Cardinals Wild Card matchup at Carolina in 2014.
- His 15 INTs dating back to 2011 are tied with Chicago's Tim Jennings for the second-highest total in the NFL during that span behind only Seattle's Richard Sherman (24).
- In Week 10 of the 2014 season vs. St. Louis, was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week after recording two fourth quarter INTs against the Rams, returning the second one 30 yards for his first career INT return TD. Has been named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in his career (Week 4 of '13 season at Tampa Bay), NFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice (Weeks 9 and 12 of the '11) season and Special Teams Player of the Month (November 2011).
- Joins current teammate DE Calais Campbell as the only players in franchise history to earn Player of the Week honors on both special teams and defense.
- In Week 2 of the '13 season vs. Detroit, became the first NFL defender since at least the 1970 merger to post a reception and a completion in the same game. Peterson's gloves as well as the football used on the pass completion are now on display at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH.
- In 2012, ranked fourth in the NFL with seven INTs and became the first Cardinals player since Aeneas Williams in 1994 to record an INT in four consecutive games (Games 11-14).
- As a rookie in 2011, tied the NFL record and became just the fourth player in league history to return four punts for TDs in a single season. Joined Jack Christiansen (Detroit, 1951) as the only rookies in NFL history with four punt return TDs during their inaugural season.
- With punt return TDs of 99, 89, 82 and 80 yards in '11, became the first player in NFL history with four punt return TDs of 80+ yards in a single season.
- Led the NFL in punt return yards (699) and TDs (four) in '11 while finishing second in punt return average (15.9) behind Chicago's Devin Hester (16.2).
- Established an NFL rookie record with 699 punt return yards, surpassing the previous record of 656, set by Pittsburgh's Louis Lipps in 1984. In addition to being a rookie record, his 699 punt return yards rank as the second-highest single-season total in NFL history behind Desmond Howard's 875 yards for Green Bay in 1996.
- His 99-yard punt return TD in overtime against St. Louis in Week 9 of the '11 campaign was the second-longest punt return in NFL history (103, Robert Bailey, 10/23/94). It also tied for the longest play in overtime in NFL history (99-yard pass from Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski to Mike Quick, 11/10/85).
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November during the 2011 season.
- Is a cousin of former Cardinals and Steelers CB Bryant McFadden, CB Walter McFadden and WRs Santana Moss and Sinorice Moss.

PETERSON ADDS MORE HONORS

In his fourth NFL season, CB Patrick Peterson did what he has been known to do - start all 16 games while covering the top WRs in the NFL on his way to a spot in the Pro Bowl.

In the Cardinals Week 11 win vs. Detroit, Peterson was matched up with Lions All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson for the majority of the game and he held the four-time Pro Bowler to just 59 yards and no TDs on five receptions.

It marked the second time in three games that Peterson went head-to-head with a Pro Bowl receiver and effectively took them out of the game. In Week 9 at Dallas, Peterson held WR Dez Bryant to just two receptions for 15 yards in the win over the Cowboys.

In between those matchups against Pro Bowl receivers, Peterson earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance against the Rams in Week 10, when he registered two INTs, the second of which he returned 30 yards for his first career INT return TD.

Peterson then sealed the Cards Week 15 win with his INT of Rams QB Shaun Hill on the final play of the game. Since entering the NFL in 2011, Peterson is tied with Chicago's Tim Jennings (15) for the second-highest INT total in the NFL.

A PRO BOWL TALENT

A Pro Bowler in each of his first three seasons (Kick Returner, 2011; Cornerback, 2012-13), Peterson earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection in 2014. In doing so, he joined an elite group of NFL Hall of Famers. He now joins RBs Jim Brown, Barry Sanders and Emmitt Smith as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to four Pro Bowls before their 25th birthday.

He is the only defensive player in NFL history to earn that distinction.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's play on the field has made him one of the team's highest profile stars. He has used his status to give back to the community through his foundation and his various charitable contributions.

In 2013, he created the "Foundation for Success" which aims to provide low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. The foundation hopes to implement an excellent balance for community development.

Last December, Peterson hosted his second annual Shop with a Jock event at Walmart. Peterson, with the help of Santa and his teammates, hosts the festive holiday event each year for 50 low-income and at-risk inner city families and provides the children with a unique holiday shopping experience. He has also hosted "Celebrity Golf Challenge" events at Topgolf in Arizona and the annual "Show and Tell" car shows each April in Mesa to benefit his foundation.

In January of 2015, Peterson unveiled the first "Patrick's Corner" of his foundation for students and families at Nevitt Elementary School in Phoenix. "Patrick's Corner" provides access to books and a safe environment to read with friends and family for at-risk students. The Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success will place and maintain eight "Patrick's Corners" libraries in Title I schools and inner city community centers throughout Arizona to provide at-risk students with access to books and a safe environment to read with friends and families.

In collaboration with "Patrick's Corner," Peterson has also launched the "Pick Up a Book" initiative within the Phoenix community which is designed to bring families, schools and communities together to support children's literacy development. The program will work to:

- Help families foster the skills, attitudes and behaviors that support children's literacy development
- Help schools engage families through fun, literacy-based events
- Better prepare children for reading and learning
- Support schools with their family engagement goals

In June of 2014, he hosted the first annual "Celebs and Steaks" Fundraising event at Donovan's Steak and Chop House. The money raised from that event helped to fund all foundation initiatives that following year and continued to provide Arizona low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential.

In addition to his foundation work, Peterson is also very active through Cardinals team community events. As part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month last October, Peterson visited Red Mountain High School in Mesa for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game against Desert Mountain. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with a commemorative football while the Cardinals provided both teams with pink gloves, wrist bands, socks and shoelaces.

He also took part at the team's annual Feed the Hungry event at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving. He joined team President Michael Bidwill and Cardinals teammates to serve Thanksgiving dinner for the less fortunate. Last January, Peterson joined Bidwill and Cardinals teammates at the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy. He also visited Phoenix Children's Hospital for a birthday party in the Kids Zone last October.

In the spring of 2013, Peterson joined Cardinals teammates, President Michael Bidwill, head coach Bruce Arians and GM Steve Keim and took part in a tweetup hosted by Sports Illustrated's Peter King at Tom's Tavern the night before Pat's Run to benefit the Tillman Foundation.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Cory Redding Foundation was established in 2007 as a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping communities and individuals reach for and achieve success. It strives to support quality educational, recreational and community assistance programs that promote the development of at-risk populations.

The foundation's current programs include the 3D Football Camp, the Conduct Pledge and a partnership with Meals and Wheels in Austin, TX which provides meals for more than 5,000 individuals each year.

The 3D (Desire, Discipline and Dedication) Football Camp is an annual non-contact football camp for 300 boys and girls, ages 8-17 in Houston. Redding is joined by teammates and other NFL players for the instructional camp. Through sponsorship, the foundation is able to provide charitable grants to worthy nonprofit organizations. This past June was the 9th annual camp.

Last year was the fourth consecutive year of the season-long conduct pledge program at a local school to encourage at-risk youth to strive to become responsible citizens. The students make a pledge to attend class, respect others, have a good attitude and work hard at school. The program at Arsenal Technical High School in Indianapolis kicked off at the start of the NFL season and concluded with a pizza party in December for all successful participants.

In 2012, Redding and his wife, Priscilla, donated $100,000 to start the Cory and Priscilla Redding Family Scholarship at the University of Texas. The scholarship benefits in perpetuity the College of Education at Texas. The first two recipients were chosen in 2013. In 2012, Redding was also named the Neighborhood Longhorn Honorary Chair through the University of Texas. The award celebrates individuals who have made significant contributions to the community.

While in Indianapolis he was named the Colts Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year in 2012 for his commitment to service and leadership. Redding participated in the local "Shatter the Silence" campaign to raise awareness for domestic abuse and child abuse and served as a spokesman for the Million Meal Marathon with Kids Against Hunger to help raise more than $15,000 for the event. He also hosted an annual holiday shopping spree for underserved families in Indianapolis. Also with the Colts, he was nominated by his teammates for the Byron "Whizzer" White award in 2012. The award is given by the NFLPA to an NFL player that is just as dedicated off the field as he is on the field.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Defensive end Matt Shaughnessy's first year in Arizona was a success on and off the field. With him coming back to the Cardinals on a two-year contract last spring, his impact in the local community will only continue to grow. In 2013, Shaughnessy was a frequent participant at Cardinals kids camps around the Valley and the team's Milk and Cookies reading program.

Last season, in honor of Veterans Day, Shaughnessy joined teammates in the Pro vs. G.I. Joe program at the team's facility where Cardinals players competed in video games with Arizona soldiers who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He also took part in teammate Patrick Peterson's Shop with a Jock shopping spree and holiday party at Walmart for 50 kids from the New Leaf Organization and Calais Campbell's Christmas with Calais shopping spree and Christmas party at Target. At both events, Cardinals players hosted children in need to a holiday shopping spree, a holiday meal and a visit from Santa.

STANTON STEPS UP

When QB Carson Palmer went down in Week 1 of last season with a shoulder injury, QB Drew Stanton took over and led the Cardinals to a 2-1 record in his three starts.

When Palmer went down for the season with a torn ACL during the fourth quarter in Week 10, Stanton was back in action and handled the backup role perfectly, taking over with the Cardinals trailing 14-10 midway through the final quarter. Four plays and 89 yards later, Arizona had the lead for good as Stanton connected with rookie WR John Brown on a 48-yard TD pass with 7:49 remaining that gave the Cards a 17-14 lead.

Making his fourth start of the season against Detroit in Week 11, Stanton completed 21 of 32 pass attempts (65.6%) for a career-high 306 yards, two TDs, two INTs and a passer rating of 91.4.

Stanton led the Cardinals to their 10th win of the season in Week 14 as he piloted Arizona to a 17-14 victory over Kansas City. Down 14-9 late in the third quarter, Stanton's 26-yard TD pass to WR Jaron Brown on a 3rd-n-18 play proved to be the game-winner.

Stanton improved to 5-3 as a starter in '14 (and 6-3 in games he played) following the Cards win over St. Louis in Week 15. However, with the Cards leading 6-3 midway through the third quarter, Stanton was forced from the game with a knee injury that also forced him out of the final two games of the regular season and the postseason.

Waiting a Long Time to Play

When Stanton made the start against the Giants in Week 2 it marked his first game played since 12/19/10 vs. Tampa Bay as a member of the Lions, a span of 1,365 days between appearances.

Stanton Shines at University of Phoenix Stadium

Stanton posted a 3-0 record at home as a starter in '14 and 4-0 in games he played (led Arizona to a come-from-behind win in relief of starter Carson Palmer in Week 10 vs. St. Louis).

In four home appearances in '14, Stanton completed 57 of 100 pass attempts for 874 yards, six TDs, two INTs and a 97.7 passer rating.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, quarterback Drew Stanton established "The High 5ive Foundation" which focuses on improving the quality of life for all people with varying disabilities through raising public awareness and inspiring individuals towards achieving personal goals.

As a result of his various fundraising initiatives, which includes an annual golf outing and a kickball tournament back in his home state of Michigan, Stanton's foundation is able to help support funding for five different organizations: Special Olympics of Michigan, Children's Miracle Network, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Orchard's Children's Services and Community Inclusive Recreation in Battle Creek, Michigan. The foundation was able to provide uniforms for the 2014 Special Olympics Winter Games.

Stanton has participated in various team community events over the past two years with the Cardinals. In November of 2013, he joined team President Michael Bidwill and players at the annual Help Feed the Hungry event. The Cardinals group helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. He also joined Bidwill and Cardinals teammates at the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy.

He joined Nicole Bidwill and representatives from Walmart last season for a ribbon cutting ceremony at Camelback High School to celebrate the installation of a new football field as part of the "Neighborhood Heroes" program. During the holiday season, Stanton, along with Cardinals teammates, participated in the team's Teddy Bear Express event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. This past October, Stanton and Cardinals teammates visited the hospital for a birthday party in the Kids Zone

Stanton joined the Cardinals Women's Club, Big Red and teammates for the Light the House party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

Last offseason, Stanton was part of the Anthony Bates Foundation cardiac screening day at Paradise Valley High School. The annual event provides testing for early detection of heart disease. He also visited students in the S.H.A.D.E. (Students Helping Access Doors Educationally & Socially) club at Tempe High School last April as part of Autism Awareness Month.

NOTECARDS

- Signed a five-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/12/14 as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four NFL seasons with Oakland.
- Named the Cardinals MVP by the local PFWA chapter in 2014.
- Started all 16 regular season games and the team's Wild Card matchup at LT during his first season with Arizona in 2014. It marked the third time in his last four seasons he has started every game.
- Anchored a Cardinals offensive line that allowed just 28 sacks in '14, tied for the sixth-fewest in the NFL. Arizona's 28 sacks allowed in '14 tied for the fourth-fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season.
- In Arizona, reunited with QB Carson Palmer, his teammate with the Raiders from 2011-12.
- Earned a spot on the Sporting News' All-Rookie Team in 2010.
- When he was selected by Raiders in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft, he became the first player from Hillsdale College selected in the draft in 30 years (WR Nate Johnson, Pittsburgh, seventh round—193rd overall, 1980). One of just 13 Hillsdale players ever selected in the NFL Draft.

PRO CAREER:

Originally drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the third round (69th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft and appeared in 53 games (48 starts) in four seasons with the Raiders. Signed a five-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/12/14 as an unrestricted free agent and started all 16 regular season games and one postseason game at LT during his first season in Arizona.

2014: Started every game at LT in his first season with the Cardinals, the third time in the last four years he has started every game … part of line that allowed just 28 sacks on the season, tied for the sixth-fewest in the NFL in 2014 … made Cardinals debut vs. SD (9/8); helped Arizona rush for 109 yards on 26 carries … helped block as Cardinals ran for 124 yards and a TD on 28 carries @ NYG (9/14); marked 50th career start … part of line that did not allow a sack vs. SF (9/21); marked first time the Cardinals did not give up a sack since 2010 (12/12 vs. Den) … part of line that helped limit Redskins to just one sack in 45 pass plays vs. Was (10/12) … helped Cardinals record season-best 36:57 time of possession, allow just one sack in 32 pass plays and run for 123 yards and a TD on 37 carries against his former team @ Oak (10/19) … part of line that did not allow a sack in 42 pass plays vs. Phi (10/26); marked third straight game allowing one sack or fewer … helped Cardinals rush for 102 yards and a TD on 29 carries @ Dal (11/2) … part of line that did not allow a sack vs. Det (11/16) … helped block as Cardinals held Falcons without a sack @ Atl (11/30), the fourth time on the season they did not allow a sack … blocked as Cardinals ran for 141 yards on 33 carries vs. KC (12/7) … helped block as Cardinals allowed just one sack and rushed for season-high 143 yards on 33 carries @ StL (12/11), their second consecutive game with over 140 yards rushing … helped block as Cardinals ran for 98 yards on 25 carries @ SF (12/28) … made postseason debut starting at LT in Wild Card game @ Car (1/3/15).

2013: Spent the first 12 weeks on the injured reserve/designated to return list (triceps) before being activated to the active roster on 11/27 … started the final five games at LT … made his season debut @ Dal (11/28) and was part of a line that did not allow a sack … helped the offense rush for 150 yards against the league's top-ranked run defense @ NYJ (12/8) … was again part of an O-line that did not allow a sack vs. KC (12/15) … started at LT in each of the final two regular season contests: @ SD (12/22) and vs. Den (12/29).

2012: Started all 16 games at LT for the second straight season and extended his consecutive games started streak to 42 … his 1,078 snaps from scrimmage represented a team high … anchored an offensive line that allowed just 27.0 sacks on 629 pass attempts, with their 4.29 sack percentage ranking sixth in the NFL … line allowed one sack or fewer in eight of 16 contests and their 27 sacks allowed were tied for the fifth-fewest in the NFL … shut down Cameron Wake as the O-line held the Dolphins without a sack despite 48 pass attempts by Carson Palmer @ Mia (9/16) … helped clear the way as Darren McFadden rushed for 113 yards and a TD on 18 carries (6.3 avg.) and was part of a line that allowed just one sack on 34 pass attempts in a 34-31 win vs. Pit (9/23) … led the way as McFadden rushed for 114 yards and held the Chiefs defense without a sack in a 26-16 win @ KC (10/28) … helped Marcel Reece post 103 rushing yards on 19 attempts (5.4 avg.) vs. NO (11/18) … held the Chiefs without a sack for only the third time all year (second time vs. Oakland) and helped offense run for 203 yards, including 110 from McFadden, in a 15-0 win vs. KC (12/16); elected as game-week captain prior to contest … played on a line that protected Terrelle Pryor in his first NFL start @ SD (12/30), shutting out a Chargers defense that had piled up 11.0 sacks the prior week.

A FREE AGENT STEAL

The Cardinals first free agent signing of the 2014 offseason came when they inked LT Jared Veldheer to a five-year contract in hopes of shoring up the offensive line. What they got with that investment is a player who had a Pro Bowl caliber season and was named the team MVP in his debut campaign in Arizona.

Between 1996 and 2013, Arizona saw 14 different players make at least one start at left tackle as the team searched for a player who could serve as the foundation for the offensive line.

Veldheer filled that role in 2014 and exceeded all expectations with his play, especially in the latter half of '14. Going against some of the NFL's elite pass rushers, he showed just how valuable his signing was for the Cardinals.

In Week 14 vs. Kansas City, Veldheer shut down NFL sack leader LB Justin Houston when the two were matched up against each other. In Week 15 at St. Louis, Veldheer shut down All-Pro DE Robert Quinn, as Quinn finished the game with just one tackle.

A third round draft pick (69th overall) by the Raiders in 2010, Veldheer spent his first four NFL seasons in Oakland before signing with the Cardinals in the offseason. Veldheer started 48 of 53 games in Oakland before going on to start all 16 games at LT for Arizona last season.

2011: Started all 16 games at LT while anchoring a line that surrendered just 25.0 sacks, a franchise record and the third-lowest total in the NFL … line allowed one sack or fewer in nine games, including four games with no sacks … in the season opener @ Den (9/12), helped team rush for 190 yards, including 150 yards by Darren McFadden … part of an O-line that led the way for the offense to pile up 454 yards while not allowing a sack @ Buf (9/18) … blocked for a rushing attack that totaled 234 yards on the ground, including 171 yards by McFadden vs. NYJ (9/25) … part of an O-line that did not allow a sack as the Raiders had 504 yards of offense vs. NE (10/2) … led a unit that earned the Week 6 Top Protectors Award presented by Hall of Fame coach John Madden vs. Cle (10/16) … helped offense record 489 total yards, including 191 rushing yards @ SD (11/10); blocked for Michael Bush, who rushed for 157 yards, which represented the second-highest single-game total of his career … held Jared Allen, the 2011 NFL sack leader, without a sack in a Raiders victory @ Min (11/20); snapped Allen's 11-game sack streak; blocked on a pair of TD runs as Bush scored from two yards out and Carson Palmer scored on a one-yard dive … helped offense total 477 yards vs. Det (12/18) … led an O-line that did not concede a sack in an OT win @ KC (12/24) … blocked for Palmer, who had the third-highest passing total in franchise history (417 yards) and was part of a line that did not allow a sack in the season finale vs. SD (1/1/12).

2010: Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie, earning 11 starts (one at center and 10 at tackle) … named to the NFL All-Rookie Team by The Sporting News after helping the Raiders offense set a franchise record by averaging 4.9 yards per rushing attempt … served as a key part of a line that helped set a team record with three games of 500+ yards of total offense … started at center in his NFL debut @ Ten (9/12) … made first career start at LT @ Den (10/24) and was part of a record-breaking performance, helping the Raiders amass 508 yards of offense and set franchise records for points (59), TDs (eight) and rushing TDs (five); blocked for a running game that totaled 328 yards with Darren McFadden rushing for 165 yards and three TDs … contributed to an offense that recorded its second straight 500-yard performance while anchoring a line that enabled Campbell to pass for 310 yards and McFadden to rush for 111 vs. Sea (10/31); team totaled 239 rushing yards against the Seahawks … helped spring McFadden's 123-yard rushing performance @ Jax (12/12), which included TD runs of 51 and 36 yards; also provided protection for Campbell, who threw for 324 yards on the day … helped the Raiders accumulate 502 yards of offense while not allowing a sack vs. Den (12/19); McFadden rushed for 119 yards and the team totaled 264 yards on the ground … helped Bush run for 137 yards @ KC (1/2/11), including a 26-yard TD run.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

During his first two NFL seasons, guard Earl Watford worked hard to make his presence felt in the Arizona community with an extensive list of charitable appearances. He was a regular participant in the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies reading program as well as Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and team kids camps.

He also joined teammates and Cardinals President Michael Bidwill at the annual Help Feed the Hungry event. The Cardinals group helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. During the holiday season, Watford, along with Cardinals teammates, participated in the team's Teddy Bear Express event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. He also joined teammates and visited the Mary Black Family and Child Services agency in December to host a Christmas party for 500 children and took part in teammate Calais Campbell's Christmas with Calais holiday event and shopping spree at Target for kids from UMOM Day Center.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Veteran punter Dave Zastudil has been a regular contributor at Cardinals community events through his involvement in visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley promoting literacy by reading to children for the SRP and Safeway Cardinals Milk and Cookies program and by coaching kids at Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and team Kids Camps.

He has also been a regular visitor to Phoenix Children's Hospital. Joining teammates each year, Zastudil takes part in the team's Teddy Bear Express event at the hospital. The Cardinals players deliver white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital each year during the holiday season. Zastudil also joined teammates in October this past season and took part in a birthday party at the hospital Kids Zone.

CARDINALS TRAINING FACILITY HOSTS SUPER REGIONAL AND VETERAN COMBINES IN MARCH

The Cardinals Tempe Training Facility served as the host for the NFL's Super Regional Combine and inaugural Veteran Combine on consecutive days in March of 2015.

The NFL Super Regional Combine, held on Saturday, March 21, consisted of standout performers at the NFL Regional Combines, which served as a supplement to the NFL's National Scouting Combine. At the Super Regional, players had an additional opportunity to work out and showcase their talents in front of current NFL team scouts and player personnel directors.

The following day was the first NFL Veteran Combine, consisting of free agents that ranged from veteran players who have been starters in the NFL to players who are one year out of college with no regular-season playing experience.

The Veteran Combine served to consolidate individual veteran free agent tryouts to one location, streamlining the process for NFL teams and participating players. Invited free agents had the opportunity to perform position-specific and timed drills in front of scouts from all 32 NFL clubs.

A total of 105 players with some degree of NFL experience were invited to take part, with the league reaching out to teams to ask what players they wanted to see.

"I think we owe it to these guys that they get an adequate shot," NFL Director of Football Development Matt Birk said.

- In 2014 the Cardinals appeared in their seventh post-season game since Bidwill took over as team President in 2007. The Cardinals had appeared in just seven playoff games in team history prior to that.

General Manager Steve Keim

- Despite 21 players missing 109 games due to injury, made 217 roster moves in 2014 as the team posted an 11-5 record and tied the franchise record for wins in a season.

Head Coach Bruce Arians

- After leading Arizona to an 11-5 record in '14, has 21 wins in his first two seasons with the team, tying the franchise record for wins in back-to-back seasons. His 21 wins are the most in franchise history for a coach in his first 32 games with the team.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- In Week 15 at St. Louis reached 900 career receptions. At 31 years, 102 days old he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the mark. In Week 11 became the second-youngest player in NFL history (31 years, 77 days) to reach 12,000 career receiving yards (Randy Moss - 30 years, 306 days).

QB Carson Palmer

- Became the first Cardinals QB to win each of his first six starts in a season since Jim Hart (7) in 1974. Improved to 16-6 as the Cards QB, the best record for an Arizona QB in his first 22 games with the team in the modern era.

WR Michael Floyd

- Hauled in a career-high six TD catches on the season and his 17.9 yards per reception average (47 for 841) was the second-best in the NFL in 2014 behind only Washington's DeSean Jackson (20.9).

RB Andre Ellington

- Despite missing the final four games of the season, totaled 1,055 yards in 2014 (660 rushing yards; 395 receiving yards). He joined RB Ottis Anderson (1979-80) as the only players in franchise history to record 1,000+ yards from scrimmage in each of their first two NFL seasons.

QB Drew Stanton

- Posted a 5-3 record as a starter in place of the injured Carson Palmer in 2014, including a perfect 3-0 mark at home. His start (and win) in Week 2 against the Giants was his first game played since 2010, a span of 1,365 days.

DE Calais Campbell

- Named to the Pro Bowl for the first time and earned second-team All-Pro honors after totaling 59 tackles, 7.0 sacks, three passes defensed and 17 QB pressures. It marked his sixth consecutive season with 50+ tackles and 6.0+ sacks, extending his franchise record.

CB Patrick Peterson

- Selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl (3rd as a CB), joining Hall of Famers Jim Brown, Barry Sanders and Emmitt Smith as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to four Pro Bowls before their 25th birthday.

S Rashad Johnson

- Posted career highs in tackles (92), INTs (4) and passes defensed (6) and also recorded his first career sack. Returned two of his team-high four INTs for TDs, becoming one of just nine players in team history with at least three career INT returns for TDs.

CB Justin Bethel

- Selected to the Pro Bowl for the second straight season for his work on special teams, where he recorded a team-high 18 tackles, a forced fumble and blocked FG. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in December.

K Chandler Catanzaro

- Tied the NFL record for most consecutive FGs made to begin a career (17) and established a new franchise rookie record with 114 points on the season. Was twice named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Weeks 6 and 15).

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

CARDINALS 18, CHARGERS 17

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,292)

In a season opening Monday night home game against the Chargers, the Cardinals rallied from an 11-point 4th-quarter deficit to earn a 1-point victory. QB Carson Palmer led the comeback and capped both 4th-quarter drives with TD passes. In all, he threw for 304 yards with 2 TDs and no INTs. The AZ defense held San Diego to 290 total net yards and came up with a huge stop in the closing minutes to seal the game.

After a scoreless 1st quarter, Cards rookie Chandler Catanzaro hit a 22-yard FG to make it 3-0. On Arizona's next drive, Chargers LB Jerry Attaochu blocked a Drew Butler punt to set SD up at the AZ17 but the Cards held to just a Nick Novak FG. In the half's final minute, the Chargers had advanced to the AZ36 but CB Jerraud Powers picked off a Philip Rivers pass setting up the AZ offense at its own 44 with :16 left. A 25-yard Palmer pass to Ted Ginn set-up a 44-yard Catanzaro FG that put AZ up 6-3 as the half expired.

The Chargers took the lead on the opening drive after intermission as Rivers marched his team 80 yards in 7 plays and capped the drive with a 6-yard TD toss to WR Malcom Floyd that made it 10-6. Attaochu then sacked Palmer forcing a fumble that Dwight Freeney recovered at the AZ29. Three plays, later RB Ryan Mathews ran it in from 20 yards out on a 3rd-n-1 play to make it 17-6. With their backs against the wall, Palmer and the Cardinals delivered. After moving the offense deep into SD territory, the Cards had a 3rd-n-goal from the 5. Facing pressure, Palmer kept the play alive by rolling to his right before tossing a TD pass to RB Stepfan Taylor. When the 2-point try failed, it was 17-12 with 12:30 to go. The Chargers then marched to the AZ29 where they faced a 3rd-n-8. However a botched shotgun snap resulted in a 14-yard loss that took SD out of FG range. After the ensuing punt, AZ took over at its own 9 with 6:50 left. Three plays later they faced a 3rd-n-10 when Palmer scrambled for 12. Following an 18-yard Andre Ellington run and 22-yard Larry Fitzgerald reception, Palmer connected with Michael Floyd for 16 yards on 3rd-n-9. On the next play, Palmer hit WR John Brown in the flat and the rookie took it 13 yards for the go-ahead TD. Trailing by 1, the Chargers advanced to their own 40 and faced a 2nd-n-2 at the 2:00 warning. The Cards then blitzed 3 times to force incompletions, the last of which was tipped by LB Larry Foote who led the defensive effort in his first game with the Cardinals. He finished with a team-high 8 tackles including two for key losses.

Ellington entered the game listed as questionable after injuring his foot in practice during the week but played through it; he finished with 53 yards on 13 carries and added 27 yards on 5 receptions. The victory was Arizona's first on Monday Night Football since 2008 and snapped a three-game MNF skid. At halftime the Cardinals honored former QB Kurt Warner by placing him in the team's Ring of Honor.

METLIFE STADIUM – (78,344)

After opening the season with a late Monday night game in AZ, the Cardinals traveled across the country to face the Giants in an early Sunday affair. Another challenge presented itself on game day morning when QB Carson Palmer was ruled out with a shoulder injury forcing back-up Drew Stanton into his first action since 2010. The veteran led the Cards to a 10-0 lead with scoring drives on their opening two possessions of the game. The Giants came back and took a 14-10 lead into the fourth quarter. However, AZ scored 15 unanswered in the final stanza thanks to big plays in all three phases of the game.

The Cards and Stanton opened the game with an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with RB Jonathan Dwyer's 1-yard TD run. The Giants responded by moving to the AZ38 but Eli Manning's 3rd-n-8 pass was tipped at the line and INT'd by LB Sam Acho. The AZ offense then moved 40 yards into position for a 49-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that made it 10-0. Late in the 1st half, WR Ruben Randle made a 1-handed catch in the back of the end zone with 0:37 left to make it 10-7. The Cards nearly had enough time for more points and moved quickly into NY territory but a facemask penalty killed the threat.

The only scoring of the 3rd quarter came when Manning connected with back-up TE Daniel Fells on a 1-yard TD that gave NY its first lead at 14-10 with 2:03 left in the in the 3rd. Pinned at their own 7 following the kickoff, the Cards offense moved 74 yards in 13 plays and narrowed the deficit to 14-13 on Catanzaro's 37-yard FG. The AZ defense answered with a 3-n-out forcing a punt that Ted Ginn fielded at the AZ29 and took 71 yards up the middle for a go-ahead score. After the 2-point try failed, AZ led 19-14. On the ensuing kickoff LB Kenny Demens forced NYG return man Will Demps to fumble and the Cards recovered at the NY21. Catanzaro's 32-yard FG made it 22-14 with 9:11 to go. Trailing by 8, the Giants moved to the AZ15 in 13 plays but RB Rashad Jennings fumbled after a reception and Cards FS Rashad Johnson recovered. The Giants next gained possession at their own 15 following an AZ punt but they quickly went 4-n-out after Manning's 4th-n-6 pass fell incomplete. Catanzaro hit another FG and LB Larry Foote iced the game with an INT off Manning, putting the final turnover differential at 4-0. The two clubs also combined for 16 accepted penalties for 141 yards. DE Calais Campbell played exceptionally for the Cards defense, finishing with a team-high 10 tackles, two for loss and a sack of Manning.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,572)

Against a 49ers team that had won 9 of the last 10 meetings, the Cardinals improved to 3-0 on the season with a 23-14 home win. For the third time in as many games, Arizona overcame a 2nd half deficit and held its opponent without a point in the 3rd and 4th quarters, outscoring San Francisco 17-0 after intermission. Back-up QB Drew Stanton started for the 2nd straight week in place of Carson Palmer (shoulder) and again led the Cards to victory, this time completing 18 of 33 passes for 244 yards and once again, no interceptions. He also tossed a pair of TD passes, both to rookie WR John Brown in the third quarter to pull Arizona ahead. The Cardinals defense continued to perform at an extremely high level. After the Niners produced a pair of 80-yard TD drives on their first two possessions, the Cards allowed just 133 net yards over the final six San Fran drives. That effort included just 106 total net yards in the second half.

The teams traded scores on the game's opening four drives but while Arizona's points came via Chandler Catanzaro FGs (51 & 32), the 49ers cashed in with a pair of touchdowns. The first was a 2-yard Colin Kaepernick pass to Michael Crabtree while the other was a 6-yard run from RB Carlos Hyde.

Armed with that 14-6 lead, the 49ers got the ball first in the 2nd half but the AZ defense sent them 3-n-out. The Cards then went 85 yards in 7 plays, the biggest chunk of which came on a 45-yard Michael Floyd reception to the SF38. Four plays later Stanton & Brown connected on a 21-yard scoring pass that made it 20-14. Following another 3-n-out, the Cards got the ball back at their own 34. Niner defenders were then flagged for personal foul penalties against Stanton on consecutive plays helping AZ quickly advance into 49er territory. On 3rd-n-6 from the SF21, Brown again slipped behind the San Fran secondary and Stanton found him for the go-ahead TD. Now down 20-14, SF was poised to re-take the lead when former Cards WR Anquan Boldin caught a 6-yard pass to the AZ6. After the play, however, Boldin was flagged for a personal foul when he head-butted S Tony Jefferson. That penalty and another for clipping ultimately forced the 49ers to settle for a 45-yard FG try that was blocked by DT Tommy Kelly, who was one of just nine Cardinal defenders on the field at the time. AZ then marched to the SF5 in 13 plays before Larry Fitzgerald fumbled and the Niners recovered. Down 6 with 6:54 left, SF took over at its own 5. They picked up a 1st down to the 19 but on 2nd down from there Jefferson sacked Kaepernick for a 9-yard loss and two plays later they punted. A defensive pass interference on 3rd-n-8 was followed by a 20-yard Andre Ellington run on 3rd-n-6; both helped set-up Catanzaro's 35-yard FG that essentially iced the game with :34 remaining.

SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH – (76,895)

In a match-up of teams coming off byes, the 3-0 Cardinals faced the 2-1 Broncos in Denver. Arizona would not only leave with its first loss of the season but a number of key injuries as well. Those injuries combined with dropped passes and a high-powered Denver offense proved too much to overcome. The Cards trailed 24-20 entering the fourth quarter but ultimately lost 41-20.

QB Drew Stanton started his 3rd straight game in place of Carson Palmer (shoulder) and led AZ to field goals on its first 2 drives of the game. In between, however, Peyton Manning hit TE Julius Thomas with a 7-yard TD pass to make it a 7-6 game after one quarter. The TD pass was the 500th of Manning's career. Early in the 2nd, CB Jerraud Powers intercepted Manning at the AZ44 but the Cards could not capitalize. On Denver's next series, Manning connected with WR Demaryius Thomas on a 31-yard TD pass. Later in the quarter, the Broncos had the ball at their own 28 when DE Calais Campbell sniffed out a Denver screen and picked off a Manning pass intended for RB Montee Ball. The Denver native returned the INT to the 5 and on the next play Andre Ellington ran it in to make it a 14-13 game with 4:37 to go before halftime. Three minutes later, Denver took over at its own 14 and on the first play Peyton hit Demaryius deep down the left sideline for an 86-yard score that made it 21-13 at intermission.

On the 3rd play of the 2nd half, TE Julius Thomas dove at the knee of Campbell while he was engaged with LT Ryan Clady. While the illegal play drew a personal foul penalty – and later a fine from the league office - it also ended Campbell's afternoon. On the next series, Stanton would suffer the same fate after absorbing a concussion-inducing hit from LB Von Miller. He would be replaced at QB by rookie Logan Thomas. Following a 44-yard Brandon McManus FG, Thomas threaded the needle with a pass to Ellington who turned it into an 81-yard TD that made it 24-20 with 3:03 to go in the 3rd. Unfortunately, it would be Arizona's final first down of the game, leading the depleted and worn-down Cardinals defense to stay on the field for 13:23 of the game's final 18:03. In that span, Denver would add 17 more points with 2 TDs and a FG.

Manning threw for a career-high 479 yards while Demaryius Thomas finished with a club-record 226 yards.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,139)

The biggest question all week leading up to Arizona's week 6 showdown with the Redskins involved the Cards starting QB. Carson Palmer had missed 3 straight games with a shoulder injury while back-up Drew Stanton suffered a concussion the week before at Denver, forcing #3 QB Logan Thomas to finish. The answer came just before kickoff as Palmer returned to action for the first time since week 1. The veteran QB finished the game 28-44 for 250 yards with two INTs and no INTs. WR Larry Fitzgerald had his best game to that point of the season with 6 catches for 98 yards and a TD while Michael Floyd also added his first score of 2014. The Arizona defense came up big in the 2nd half and produced four 4th quarter takeaways. S Rashad Johnson had two of them with INTs off Kirk Cousins, the 2nd of which he returned for a TD to ice the game. CB Jerraud Powers also had a hand in two, forcing a fumble and recording an INT.

The Cards struck first in the game when Palmer connected with Michael Floyd on a 20-yard TD late in the first quarter. Washington answered on its next drive when Cousins hit DeSean Jackson with a short pass that the WR turned it into a 64-yard game-tying score. The Redskins went up 10-7 on their next possession when Kai Forbath hit a 28-yard FG. In the final minute of the first half, Fitzgerald capped an 8-play, 85-yard drive with a 24-yard TD reception that put AZ up 14-10 with just 0:31 left. That was enough time though for Washington to move into position for a 43-yard Forbath FG that made it 14-13.

Each of Arizona's first 3 drives after intermission produced FGs from rookie Chandler Catanzaro, who improved to 14-14 on FG tries to start his career. His 49-yarder with 12:54 left in the 4th quarter made it 20-13 Arizona. On the next play from scrimmage, Cousins hit former Cardinal Andre Roberts with a 14-yard completion but Powers ripped it out and Tyrann Mathieu recovered. That led to a 37-yard Catanzaro FG that made it a 10-point AZ lead. The next Redskins drive ended when Johnson intercepted Cousins at the AZ24. Following a Cards punt, Washington advanced to the AZ42 before Cousins was INT'd again, this time by Powers. With 2:20 to go, the Redskins made it 23-20 when Pierre Garcon caught a 5-yard TD pass. LB Sam Acho recovered the ensuing on-side kick allowing AZ to run off much of the remaining time. With :18 left and out of timeouts, Washington took over at its own 14. On the next play, Johnson again stepped in front of a Cousins pass and took it 28 yards for the game-clinching score. With the win, Arizona snapped an 8-game losing streak vs. Washington that dated back to 2000. It also pushed the Cards to 4-1 and into sole possession of first place in the division while Washington fell to 1-5.

O.CO – (52,101)

The Cardinals improved to 5-1 for the first time since 1976 with a 24-13 win at Oakland. Playing against his former team, QB Carson Palmer spread his 22 completions among 9 different receivers and threw a pair of 1st half TD passes to help AZ build an early lead. RB Andre Ellington carried a large portion of the offensive work load and had 160 total yards from scrimmage (88 rushing, 72 receiving) while fellow back Stepfan Taylor caught 1 TD and ran for another. Defensively, Arizona held Oakland to 220 total net yards including just 56 rushing yards on 19 attempts. Third down efficiency was another key area as the Cards converted 60% (9-15) while holding the Raiders to 33% (4-12). After surrendering an Oakland FG on the opening drive of the 2nd half, the Raiders did not cross midfield again and fell to 0-6 on the season.

On their 2nd drive of the day, the Cards went 88 yards in 11 plays, the biggest of which was a 37-yard Ellington catch-n-run to the Raider 37. Taylor's 2-yard TD reception put AZ up 7-0. The lead grew to 14-0 in the 2nd quarter when Palmer dropped a 33-yard TD pass into the arms of Michael Floyd down the left sideline on a 3rd-n-8 play. Oakland answered on the next series when Derek Carr's 55-yard pass to WR Brice Butler set-up a 1-yard Darren McFadden TD run. On the 2nd play of the next drive Palmer tried to hit John Carlson across the middle but the ball deflected off the TE's hand and was INT'd by Charles Woodson. It was Arizona's first INT of the season and Woodson returned it 30 yards to the AZ13. The defense responded to the challenge by holding the Raiders to just a FG which made it a 14-10 game at intermission.

Oakland narrowed the deficit to 14-13 on its initial drive of the 3rd quarter thanks to Sebastian Janikowski's 52-yard FG. Arizona needed a spark and Ellington provided it on the ensuing drive. He would rush 6 times for 40 yards while adding a 16-yard catch and drawing a 20-yard pass interference penalty. Those 76 yards moved it to the Oakland 4 where Taylor ran it in for his second TD of the afternoon. The Cardinals were still holding onto that 21-13 lead when they took over at their own 27 with 7:22 to play. AZ then chewed 6:53 off the clock with a 12-play drive; the pivotal play came when Palmer hit rookie John Brown with a 22-yard completion on 3rd-n-8 from the AZ41. Chandler Catanzaro ultimately ended the drive with his 41-yard FG that made it 24-13 with just 0:29 left.

The victory also allowed the Cards to increase their division lead to 2 games over Seattle and 1.5 over San Francisco.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,789)

In a match-up of 5-1 teams that had each won 12 of their last 15 games, Arizona relied on the big play, key takeaways and a pair of huge red zone stops on Philly's final two drives to claim a thrilling 24-20 home win. It improved the Cards' record to 6-1, their best after 7 games in 40 years (7-0, in 1974). WR Larry Fitzgerald had another big day against the Eagles, finishing with 160 yards on 7 catches and a career-best 80-yard TD, his 11th TD in 7 career games vs. Philly. Rookie WR John Brown also topped 100 yards, the majority of which came on his 75-yard game-winner late in the fourth quarter. CB Antonio Cromartie had two critical INTs and the defense continued to step up when needed most, including several times in the game's final minutes against a potent Philly team that averaged over 30 points per game. Arizona's defense was bolstered by the return of DE Calais Campbell who had missed two games with a knee injury but lost all-pro CB Patrick Peterson in the 2nd quarter with a concussion.

The visitors struck first when Nick Foles' 2-yard TD pass to Jeremy Maclin capped a 9-play, 80-yard drive. Arizona answered with its own 80-yard TD drive. Fitzgerald gained 30 yards on one catch and 13 more on a key 3rd-n-7 reception that set up Andre Ellington's 1-yard TD run. Philly's next 2 drives went deep into AZ territory but takeaways ended each. The first came when WR Josh Huff caught a 16-yard pass to the 7 before DT Frostee Rucker hustled downfield to force a fumble that S Deone Bucannon recovered at the 2. On the next series, the Eagles had it at the AZ25 but Foles' pass into the end zone was INT'd by Cromartie who returned it to the 38.

On the 3rd play after intermission, AZ faced a 3rd-n-10 at the 20 when Fitzgerald caught a short slant across the middle and outraced the Eagles secondary for his 80-yard TD that put the Cards up 14-7. Midway through the 3rd, Philly's Cody Parkey nailed a 54-yard FG that made it 14-10 AZ. Later in the 3rd, Philly took over at its own 46; on the first play Foles threw it deep down the middle where Maclin hauled it in for a 54-yard go-ahead score. With 12:29 to play, the Eagles faced a 3rd-n-11 at their 41 when Cromartie again INT'd Foles and returned it 18 yards to the PHI 40. That set-up Chandler Catanzaro's 28-yard game-tying FG. The Eagles then took over at their own 20 and moved deep into AZ territory with a 10+ play drive. However, the Cardinals stopped them on 3 straight plays from inside the 11 and Philly opted for a 20-yard FG rather than go for it on 4th-n-inches inside the 1. Down 20-17 with 1:56 left, AZ took over its own 20. Facing a 3rd-n-5 from the 25, Palmer lofted a deep pass over the defense and into the arms of John Brown who made an over-the-shoulder catch for a 75-yard TD. It put the Cards up 24-20 with 1:21 left but the Eagles would not go quietly. They moved to the AZ16 with :18 left but three passes into the end zone from that spot fell incomplete allowing the Cards to hang on.

CARDINALS 28, COWBOYS 17

AT&T STADIUM – (85,688)

On the road at Dallas, the Cardinals spotted the hosts an early 10-0 lead before scoring 28 straight to win 28-17 and move to 7-1 on the season; that matched the best mark in team history after 8 games. The Cowboys entered the game 6-2 but were without QB Tony Romo, who suffered a back injury 6 nights earlier on Monday Night Football. They still had the NFL's top rusher in DeMarco Murray and dangerous WR Dez Bryant. Murray had set an NFL record by topping 100 yards in each of the season's first 8 games but was held to 79 yards on 18 attempts while the AZ defense extended its own streak of games without allowing a 100-yard rusher to 18 games. Meanwhile CB Patrick Peterson shut down Bryant for most of the contest, holding the all-pro without a catch until the game's final two minutes.

Offensively, Carson Palmer rebounded from an early pick 6 to throw 3 TD passes and Larry Fitzgerald led the team in receiving for the 2nd straight week (5-70). RB Andre Ellington had 134 total yards in 25 touches (21-95 rushing & 4-39 receiving) and was one of four different Cardinals to find the end zone. All 4 TDs came on 3rd down and allowed the Cards to go 4-4 in the red zone. The win was Arizona's 4th straight over the Cowboys but their 1st regular season win in Dallas since 1989.

The game opened with AZ moving the ball into Dallas territory before Palmer's 3rd-n-12 pass was intercepted by DB Tyler Patmon and returned 58 yards for a TD. A 40-yard screen pass from Brandon Weeden to Lance Dunbar on the next Cowboy drive set up a 52-yard Dan Bailey FG that made it 10-0. Arizona answered with a 13-play 80-yard drive that included 4 key third down completions – two to Fitzgerald, one to Jaron Brown and the last one a 7-yard TD to TE John Carlson. Later in the 2nd quarter, Ellington's 19-yard run and 20-yard catch moved AZ into position for another TD, this one an 11-yard pass to Jaron Brown that made it 14-10. Just before halftime the Cowboys moved to the AZ16 before a huge sack from NT Dan Williams pushed them back 9 yards. Then on the half's final play, special teams Pro Bowler Justin Bethel blocked Bailey's 35-yard FG try, the 3rd of Bethel's career. Peterson nearly returned it the distance but was tracked down by TE Jason Witten.

While the game remained 14-10 for the next quarter-and-a-half, the Cowboys had chances. Early in the 3rd, they reached the AZ18 before S Tyrann Mathieu INT'd Weeden. Two drives later, Dallas faced a 4th-n-1 at the AZ34 but the Cards stuffed Murray for no gain. From there, AZ moved 65 yards and Palmer ended it with a 1-yard TD pass to Ellington; the drive's biggest play was Ted Ginn's 27-yard toe-tapping catch at the DAL28. On the 2nd play of the next series, CB Antonio Cromartie INT'd Weeden giving it back to the offense again at the DAL28. AZ cashed in when RB Marion Grice scored on a 1-yard run that made it 28-10 with 4:20 left. The Cowboys added a 3-yard Weeden-to-Bryant TD with 68 seconds left.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,363)

The Cardinals opened the 2nd half of their season against a gritty Rams team that had defeated the Seahawks & 49ers within the previous 3 weeks. AZ appeared on its way to joining those NFC West counterparts when they trailed by 4 in the 4th quarter and then lost QB Carson Palmer with a knee injury. But back-up Drew Stanton again responded, as did the AZ defense. On his 1st series, Stanton connected with rookie WR John Brown for a 48-yard go-ahead TD. The defense then came up with takeaways on the next 3 drives, 2 of which were returned for TDs. The first takeaways came on Patrick Peterson INTs that included his first career pick 6 while fellow CB Antonio Cromartie's scoop and score provided the icing on the cake. Arizona notched 6 sacks of Austin Davis, including a pair from DE Calais Campbell. Larry Fitzgerald was the team's leading receiver for the third straight game with 112 yards on a season-best 9 catches. With their 5th straight win the Cards moved to 8-1, matching their best record ever after 9 games

St. Louis scored first on Benny Cunningham's 3-yard TD run that capped a 7-play, 62-yard drive late in the first quarter. Arizona tied it a short time later when Andre Ellington scored from 3 yards out; Palmer was 5-5 passing for 62 of the drive's 66 yards. The next series saw the Cards go up 10-7 when rookie Chandler Catanzaro hit a 43-yarder to tie the NFL record for most consecutive FGs to start a career (17, Kai Forbath). With 1:50 to go before halftime, TE Jared Cook put the Rams up 14-10 by hauling in a 59-yard TD pass from Davis.

Early in the 3rd, the Cards advanced to the STL15 but on 3rd-n-11, Palmer's pass was intercepted by LB Alec Ogletree who returned it 44 yards to the AZ45. The Rams moved to the 36 before Campbell's 3rd down sack of Davis moved them out of field goal range and forced a punt. Early in the 4th, AZ was at the Rams 28 and faced a 3rd-n-7 when Palmer twisted his left knee awkwardly under pressure from S Mark Barron. He exited the game with what would prove to be a season-ending ACL tear. On the next play, Catanzaro missed for the first time all season when he was wide right from 53 yards out and the air seemed to be sucked out of the stadium. With 11:13 to go, the Rams took over at their own 43 leading 14-10 but the AZ defense forced a three-n-out. Stanton entered the game with the ball at his own 11. He proceeded to complete an 11-yarder to TE Rob Housler, run for 4, then hit TE John Carlson for 26 to the STL48. From there he calmly stepped up in the pocket to avoid the rush before firing it deep down the middle where Brown made a spectacular, diving over-the-should TD catch. Just like that, AZ was up 17-14 with 7:40 to go. On the 3rd play of the next drive Peterson recorded his 1st INT of the year when he picked off Davis at the AZ47. After a Cards punt, the Rams offense took over but Peterson struck again. Davis' pass deflected off WR Kenny Britt and into the air where Peterson tipped it to himself before returning the INT 30 yards for a TD. St. Louis' next drive ended similarly when DE Kareem Martin sacked Davis, forcing a fumble that Antonio Cromartie returned 14 yards for the game's final score.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,487)

The 8-1 Cardinals hosted the 7-2 Lions in the best match-up of week 11 that also carried potential playoff significance. AZ entered with a 5-game winning streak while Detroit had won 4 straight. A week after losing QB Carson Palmer with a season-ending knee injury, Drew Stanton made the start against the team with whom he entered the league as a 2nd-round draft pick. It also came against the NFL's #1 defense that allowed the fewest points in the league, was ranked #2 against the run and #3 vs. the pass. But Stanton ended Arizona's first 2 drives with TD passes to WR Michael Floyd and that would prove to be more than enough as the Cardinals defense was again exceptional. The Lions' only points came on 1st half FGs, one a 50-yarder that bounced off the upright and the other after they took over at the AZ19 following an INT. Patrick Peterson limited all-pro WR Calvin Johnson to 5 catches for 59 yards and the D sacked Matthew Stafford 4 times while holding him to 183 passing yards. Arizona held Detroit without a TD for the first time since December of 2009 and improved to 9-1 on the season matching their best mark ever after 10 games (1948).

The game began when the Cards received the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards in 6 plays. More than half of those yards came when Floyd went up to catch a 42-yard pass from Stanton and came down in the end zone. After a Lions 3-n-out, the AZ offense took over at its own 23. On 3rd-n-8 from the 25, Stanton hit Robert Hughes with a short pass that the RB took 49 yards to the DET26. Four plays later Stanton again found Floyd in the end zone, this time just inside the near pylon for a 12-yard score that made it 14-0. On the 2nd play of Detroit's next drive, RB Joique Bell ran 33 yards to the AZ40 leading to a 50-yard Matt Prater FG try than bounced off the left upright and through. It remained 14-6 until the 2:00 warning of the 2nd quarter when the Cardinals faced a 2nd-n-6 at their own 40. On the next play Stanton was INT'd by LB Josh Bynes who returned it 25 yards to the AZ19. The Arizona D did not allow a 1st down and a 28-yard Prater FG made it 14-6 at intermission.

Detroit's initial 2 drives of the 2nd half reached midfield but the first ended when the Cards forced a punt and the 2nd was snuffed out by S Rashad Johnson's INT of a Stafford pass intended for Calvin Johnson. A pivotal play occurred on a Cardinals punt early in the 4th and Arizona leading 14-6. Justin Bethel caught the punt at the 1 and tossed back toward the field of play where Detroit's Jeremy Ross picked it up and returned it 49 yards to the AZ46. Bruce Arians challenged and referee Jerome Boger agreed that Bethel had downed it at the 1, resulting in a 53-yard swing in field position. On that series, the Lions ultimately advanced to the AZ47 where they faced a 4th-n-2 with 6:50 left but turned it over on downs when Stafford's pass to Johnson fell incomplete. After an AZ punt, the Lions got the ball back and with 3:01 to play had a 3rd-n-12 at their own. The shotgun snap to Stafford sailed past him and Detroit had to punt. AZ took over at its own 41 with 2:42 to go needing one first down to ice the game. They got it when Larry Fitzgerald caught an 11-yard pass on 3rd-n-11 that allowed the Cards to run off the remaining time.

CENTURYLINK FIELD – (68,327)

The Cardinals saw their six-game win streak end in Seattle and fell to 9-2 with the 19-3 loss. By day's end Arizona's division lead over the Niners and Seahawks (both 7-4) was 2 games with 5 to play.

In the early going, Arizona was on the short end of the field position battle as Seattle ran 20 of its first 24 plays from AZ territory. The Cardinals defense kept the Seahawks out of the end zone and the score was 12-3 thru nearly 3 quarters in a battle of field goals. Arizona's offense struggled to find a rhythm against the league's #3 defense and was held without a touchdown for the first time since 2012. WR Larry Fitzgerald was inactive with a knee injury suffered the week before, ending his streak of consecutive games played at 110; it was his first missed game since 2007 and just the 5th of his career.

Following a Cards 3-n-out on their opening drive, Seattle took over at the AZ49. After reaching the 9, Steven Hauschka's 27-yarder made it 3-0. The Cards had a chance to tie it on the next series but Chandler Catanzaro's 49-yard try was wide right. Late in the first quarter, a 48-yard Russell Wilson pass to Ricardo Lockette took it to the AZ8 but sacks by Calais Campbell and Deone Bucannon resulted in losses of 6 & 9 yards, leading to another Hauschka FG. The Cardinals would finish the day with a season-high 7 sacks of Wilson, including a career-best 3 for Campbell.

On Arizona's next drive, Drew Stanton's pass intended for John Brown was intercepted by CB Byron Maxwell, setting Seattle up at the AZ48. A 19-yard pass to Jermaine Kearse took it to the 29 but the Seahawks were again forced to settle for a Haushka FG that made it 9-0. With 6:00 to go in the first half it looked like they would go up 12-0 when Hauschka lined up for a 49-yarder but Tommy Kelly got a hand on the attempt for Arizona's 3rd FG block of the year. Late in the half, Arizona mounted its best drive of the day. The Cards had it at the SEA5 but WR Jaron Brown couldn't hold onto Stanton's 3rd down pass in the end zone and Catanzaro's 23-yard FG made it 9-3 at the half.

The Cardinals defense sent Seattle 3-n-out to open the 3rd quarter and the offense took over near midfield with its best starting field position of the day. They could not capitalize on it and the situation worsened when Drew Butler's punt was blocked by DeShawn Shead giving the Seahawks possession at AZ24. Again the defense held them to a FG and Seattle led 12-3 midway thru the 3rd. They went up 19-3 a short time later when back-up TE Cooper Helfet scored the game's only TD on a 20-yard completion from Wilson. The Cards offense never threatened again and the Seahawks handled Arizona just its second loss of the season.

FALCONS 29, CARDINALS 18

GEORGIA DOME – (69,557)

The Cardinals suffered their 2nd straight loss and fell to 9-3 as the host Falcons jumped out to an early lead and never looked back. Atlanta's offense was led by WR Julio Jones who had 189 receiving yards on 10 catches with a TD. Matt Ryan threw for a pair of TDs and K Matt Bryant had 5 FGs. WR Larry Fitzgerald missed his 2nd straight game with a knee injury and in the 2nd quarter the Cards lost three more starters due to injuries: RB Andre Ellington (hip), Tyrann Mathieu (thumb) and G Paul Fanaika (ankle).

On the game's opening drive, Atlanta RB Steven Jackson ripped off a 55-yard run to the AZ1. The Cards stopped them on 3 straight plays from there but on 4th-n-goal inside the 1, Ryan found TE Levine Toiolo in the back of the end zone to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead. Following a 3-n-out from the AZ offense Devin Hester appeared to have a 68-yard punt return TD but was flagged for a facemask penalty against punter Drew Butler near the goal line. That foul and an unsportsmanlike penalty against the Atlanta sideline moved it back to the 32. The Falcons ultimately came away with a 20-yard Bryant FG that made it 10-0. On the 4th play of the next Cards drive, Drew Stanton's pass deflected off the hands of WR Jaron Brown and was intercepted by S Dwight Lowery setting ATL up at the AZ32. Two plays later Ryan connected hit Jones down the left sideline with a 32-yard TD pass that made it 17-0. After another Cards punt, Atlanta advanced to the AZ25 but on 2nd-n-5 the defense delivered a pivotal play. S Rashad Johnson stepped in front of Ryan's pass intended for Jones at the 12 and weaved 88 yards for a TD that made it 17-7 early in the 2nd. On the next AZ drive, the offense threatened but WR Michael Floyd fumbled at the ATL35 and the Falcons recovered. Late in the 2nd quarter, Chandler Catanzaro's 44-yard FG made it 17-10 with 2:42 to play in the half. However, that was enough time for the Falcons to move into position for a 23-yard Bryant FG on the final play before halftime and the Falcons led 20-10 at intermission.

Bryant would add a FG in the 3rd and two more in the 4th before Stanton led a TD drive late. He hit RB Stepfan Taylor with a 3-yard TD pass and then Taylor ran it in for the 2-point conversion that made the final score 29-18. With the loss Arizona's division lead was trimmed to one game over Seattle while Atlanta remained tied with New Orleans for first place in the NFC South at 5-7. Steven Jackson (18-101) eneded Arizona's streak of 21 straight games without a 100-yard rusher.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,387)

In a week 14 match-up of playoff contending teams each looking to halt 2-game losing streaks, the Cardinals fell behind early after surrendering a pair of 1st half TDs to all-pro Chiefs RB Jamaal Charles. But for the 8th time in 2014, Arizona would come back, shutting out KC in the 2nd half and coming up with a pair of pivotal takeaways on defense. Offensively, the Cards got a big, go-ahead TD pass from Drew Stanton to Jaron Brown and a huge - if unexpected - effort from RB Kerwynn Williams. The back was elevated from the practice squad on Friday because of Andre Ellington's hip injury; in his first-ever NFL action he rushed 19 times for 100 yards. AZ was also bolstered by the return of WR Larry Fitzgerald who had missed 2 games with a knee injury.

The Cards took the opening kickoff before moving 36 yards in 8 plays and taking an early lead on Chandler Catanzaro's 44-yard FG. Three snaps later Charles burst through the right side of the line and went 63 yards for a TD. Midway thru the 2nd quarter, Catanzaro ended a 16-play, 65-yard drive with his 33-yard FG that made it 7-6. The Chiefs again answered, this time going 66 yards and extending the drive with conversions on 3rd-n-14 and 3rd-n-19. They capped it with an 18-yard Alex Smith TD pass to Charles that made it 14-6 with 1:12 left in the half. The Cards quickly moved into KC territory but came away without points when Catanzaro's 36-yard try hit the right upright.

To open the 3rd, KC moved to the AZ39 where they went for it on 4th-n-4 but turned it over on downs when LB Larry Foote knocked down Smith's pass. Two plays later Stanton connected with WR Michael Floyd down the right sideline and that 45-yard completion set up Catanzaro's 39-yard FG that trimmed the KC lead to 14-9. A 41-yard Smith pass to Jason Avant on a broken play set KC up at the AZ19 and Anthony Fasano appeared to score a TD but the TE was flagged for offensive pass interference. On the next play, DT Frostee Rucker pressured Smith and LB Alex Okafor picked him off, returning the INT to the KC42. After reaching the 18, AZ was pushed back to the 26 on a sack and faced a 3rd-n-18 from there. That's when Stanton lofted a perfect pass to Jaron Brown down the seam for a TD; a successful pass to TE John Carlson on the 2-point try made it 17-14 AZ with 3:26 to go in the third. The teams traded punts on the next 4 possessions. With 5:31 to go, KC faced a 3rd-n-4 at the AZ41 when Smith hit Travis Kelce with a 19-yard completion to the 22 where he was ruled down before being stripped by Deone Bucannon. Bruce Arians challenged and the call was reversed, giving AZ the ball at its own 16 with 5:23 left. As the Chiefs used up their timeouts, the Cards kept moving the chains. Robert Hughes had a huge play with a 36-yard catch and run on 3rd-n-2 from the AZ40 while Williams gained 25 yards on 7 carries. With 1:09 left Catanzaro's 34-yard FG try that would have made it a 6-point game bounced off the left upright. The Chiefs took over at their own 24 with 69 seconds left and no timeouts. They never advanced further than their own 36 before turning it over on downs.

The win moved the Cards to 10-3 and gave AZ back-to-back 10-win seasons. The Cards moved to 7-0 at home for their most home wins in a season since winning 11 of 13 home games in 1925.

CARDINALS 12, RAMS 6

EDWARD JONES DOME – (55,880)

The Cardinals went to St. Louis for a Thursday night showdown against a Rams team that had won 4 of its previous 6 games and posted two consecutive shutouts, winning those games by a combined score of 76-0. While a victory would virtually assure AZ of a playoff spot and tie the franchise record with 11 wins in a season (1925, '49 & '75) nearly all prognosticators gave the edge to the hot Rams (6-7) and their stout defense. In the end, however, it was the Cardinals defense that stole the show, surrendering just 2 FGs, 280 total yards and 69 rushing yards. Special teams were also exceptional as Drew Butler landed 6 of his 8 punts inside the 20, Chandler Catanzaro accounted for all of the Cardinals points by going 4-4 on FGs, and Ted Ginn added a 59-yard punt return. Offensively, the Cards ran for a season-high 143 yards (75 from Kerwynn Williams & 61 from Stepfan Taylor). All of those factors were pivotal in allowing the Cards to again overcome a key injury, this time when QB Drew Stanton was forced from the game with a knee injury in the 3rd quarter by the same Rams defense that ended Carson Palmer's season a month earlier.

On their opening possession of the game, the Rams advanced to the AZ7 but were stopped on a 3rd-n-1 from there and came away with a 24-yard Greg Zuerlein FG. On the first play of the next STL drive, Cards DT Frostee Rucker forced RB Tre Mason to fumble and LB Larry Foote recovered at the Rams 19. That led to a 23-yard game-tying FG from Catanzaro. On Arizona's next possession, Stanton connected with Michael Floyd on a 49-yard pass down the left sideline that took it to the STL36. It helped set-up a 44-yard Catanzaro FG that gave AZ a 6-3 lead they took into halftime.

The Cards defense opened the 2nd half by sending the Rams three-n-out on their first 5 possessions after intermission. It was part of a stretch in which the AZ defense forced Rams punts on eight consecutive possessions, the longest stretch by any NFL team in 2014. Midway through the 3rd, a Cardinals team so accustomed to dealing with adversity was dealt another blow when Stanton injured his knee on the Rams only sack of the day. Ryan Lindley came in to replace him and immediately faced a 3rd-n-21 at the STL39; a 6-yard completion to Floyd moved the Cards into positon for Catanzaro's 51-yard FG that made it 9-3. Early in the 4th, Lindley led a drive that resulted in a 46-yard FG that made it 12-3. With just over 10 minutes to play, the Rams picked up their initial 1st down of the 2nd half on a 38-yard Shaun Hill completion to Steadman Bailey. They ultimately had it 1st-n-goal at the AZ7 but the Cards defense kept them out of the end zone and Greg Zuerlein's 19-yard FG made it 12-6 with 6:07 to play. After picking up one first down, the Cards punted it back to the Rams who took over at their own 20 with 2:52 to go; they ultimately reached the AZ43 but a blitzing Jerraud Powers knocked down Hill's 4th-n-3 pass to essentially seal the game.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,806)

In a huge Sunday night game with the NFC West title on the line, Seattle handed the Cardinals their lone home loss of the regular season as well as their most decisive one. The Seahawks capitalized on the big play and four in particular accounted for 263 of their 596 total yards. A knee injury suffered by Drew Stanton in the previous game resulted in 3rd string QB Ryan Lindley earning the start for the Cardinals offense that had difficulty finding a rhythm against Seattle's #1 defense. The inability to sustain drives ultimately took its toll on Arizona's defense, which surrendered 21 4th quarter points. With the outcome both teams moved to 11-4 with one game to play but Seattle earned the crucial head-to-head tie-breaker by virtue of the season sweep.

While the final margin didn't reflect it, the game was close early on and a one score affair thru 3 quarters. After the teams traded punts on the first 4 drives of the game, Russell Wilson scrambled for 55 yards on the final play of the opening quarter, taking the Seahawks to the AZ40. However, the Cards D held them to a 52-yard FG try from Steven Hauschka that was wide right and the game remained scoreless. From there the Cards moved deep into Seattle territory; key plays included a 25-yard reception by RB Stepfan Taylor and a 13-yard screen pass to TE Rob Housler that took it to the 6. Chandler Catanzaro's 27-yard FG put AZ up 3-0. On the 2nd play of the ensuing drive, TE Luke Willson slipped behind the secondary and Wilson found him for an 80-yard TD catch and run. After a Cards 3-n-out, the Seahawks took over at the AZ39 following a punt on which officials picked up flag for running into the kicker in the end zone. A 22-yard Wilson scramble took it to the 17 and Marshawn Lynch ultimately punched it in from 6 yards out to put Seattle up 14-3.

On their opening drive of the 2nd half, the Seahawks again penetrated AZ territory but came away empty when Hauschka's 50-yard FG try was again wide right. Midway thru the 3rd, a 49-yard completion to Doug Baldwin helped put Seattle in position for a 47-yard FG but Hauschka missed this one to the left. On the next AZ drive, Michael Floyd's 32-yard catch took it to the 20 and led to a 32-yard Catanzaro FG that made it an 8-point game. Seattle would strike right back. A 39-yard competion to Luke Willson took it to the AZ 30 and 3 plays later he scored his 2nd TD of the game on a 20-yard reception. On the 1st play of the next Seattle series, Lynch rumbled 79 yards for his 2nd score of the game that put the Seahawks up 28-6. The game's only turnover came on the next drive when Richard Sherman INT'd Lindley and returned it 53 yards, setting up a Seattle series that ended on Wilson's 5-yard TD run.

LEVI'S STADIUM – (70,699)

In their inaugural visit to Levi's Stadium, the 11-4 Cardinals entered the regular season finale with a playoff berth clinched and the only question that remained was whether they could win the division with a victory and home loss by the heavily favored Seahawks against the Rams. The 49ers (7-8) had been eliminated two weeks earlier and their biggest question entering the game was whether it would be the final one in San Fran for head coach Jim Harbaugh. Arizona's answer came when they fell by 3 to the 49ers while San Francisco's was answered immediately after the game when the team announced a mutual parting of the ways with Harbaugh.

For the 2nd straight week, the Cards offense was led by #3 QB Ryan Lindley, who again filled in for Drew Stanton (knee). On the game's opening drive he was 4-4 for 60 yards and moved AZ offense 80 yards in 10 plays. The last of those was a 20-yard TD to WR Michael Floyd on a flea-flicker that marked Lindley's 1st career TD toss. That 7-0 lead was short-lived. About a minute later on 3rd-n-8 WR Anquan Boldin slipped behind the AZ secondary and hauled in a pass from Colin Kaepernick that he took 76 yards for a game-tying tying score. The next two San Fran drives resulted in Phil Dawson field goals (53 & 37 yards) that put SF up 13-7. In between those two field goal drives, the Cards had it at the SF 22 but on 3rd-n-8, Lindley's pass was INT'd by LB Michael Wilhoite. On its next series though, AZ moved 72 yards thanks to a series of Kerwynn Williams runs plus completions to TE Rob Housler (20 yards) & WR John Brown (18). That series ended with Chandler Catanzaro's 36-yard FG that made it 13-10 with 1:36 left in the first half. After a 3-n-out from the 49ers, the Cards took over at their own 25 with 0:58 left. Lindley quickly found Larry Fitzgerald for 21 yards and followed that with a 13-yard completion to Brown that took it to the SF41. From there Lindley hit Floyd down the right sideline and the WR dove past the pylon for a go-ahead score that put AZ up 17-13 at intermission.

Arizona had the ball near midfield on its opening drive of the 3rd but it ended on an INT by CB Chris Culliver. On the ensuing drive, SF had consecutive runs of 30 yards from Kaepernick and 20 by Frank Gore. Those helped the 49ers move 82 yards in 10 plays and they went ahead on Kapernick's 3-yard scoring pass to FB Bruce Miller late in the 3rd. Down 20-17, Arizona would get the ball three more times. The first two ended in punts and then with 2:00 left Arizona took over at its own 20 and no timeouts. On the 2nd play of that series, S Craig Dahl intercepted Lindley to end Arizona's comeback hopes.

Floyd tied his career-high with 8 receptions including two TDs and finished with a game-high 153 receiving yards for Arizona. After the game, the Cardinals learned they would play in the Wild Card round six days later in Carolina against the Panthers, who clinched the NFC South title earlier in the day.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 16

JANUARY 3, 2015
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (71,849)

The Cardinals finished the regular season 11-5, earning a Wild Card spot and trip to Carolina to take on the Panthers who captured the NFC South title by winning their last 4 games and finishing 7-8-1. Arizona had dealt with tremendous adversity all season, losing more than 20 players for more than 100 combined games due to injury and coming from behind in 9 of its 11 victories. But while they clawed back from a 10-point deficit to lead at halftime, this time they could not hold on. Arizona started its 3rd straight game with #3 QB Ryan Lindley (after injuries to both Carson Palmer & Drew Stanton) but had its hands full in both the run and pass games where they finished with just 27 and 51 net yards, respectively.

The Panthers jumped out to a 10-0 lead after they took advantage of outstanding field position on their first two series that resulted from a pair of AZ three-n-outs and short punts. The first drive started at the Carolina 48 and led to a 47-yard Graham Gano FG. The Panthers started their second drive at their own 43 and 8 plays later Jonathan Stewart scored on a 13-yard spinning run off the right side. Trailing by 10, the Cards were forced to punt on the next series but caught a break when returner Brenton Bersin mishandled it and Justin Bethel recovered at the Carolina 30. A 14-yard Larry Fitzgerald completion on 3rd-n-10 moved it to the 1 and led to Lindley's 1-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells. It remained 10-7 after Gano missed a 43-yard FG try on the next series. Two drives later, the Panthers advanced to the AZ37 where they faced a 3rd-n-13. CB Antonio Cromartie picked off Cam Newton and returned the INT 50 yards to the AZ17 with 5 minutes left in the 1st half. Four plays later, RB Marion Grice scored from a yard out to put Arizona up 14-10 with 2:50 remaining in the 1st half. It was enough time for Carolina to move 59 yards in 9 plays and Gano's 39-yard FG made it a 1-point game at intermission.

On Arizona's first drive of the 2nd half, WR Michael Floyd appeared to have been interfered with on a 3rd down pass down the left sideline but it went unflagged and the Cards went 3-n-out. A short punt gave Carolina possession at the AZ39 to start their 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter. On the next snap, RB Fozzy Whittaker caught a short screen from Newton and took it 39 yards for a TD. It went from bad to worse on the ensuing kickoff when Ted Ginn fumbled inside the 10 and the Panthers recovered at the AZ3. The defense appeared to hold Carolina to a FG when Newton's 3rd-n-goal pass to TE Greg Olsen fell incomplete but SJ Boris Cheek questionably flagged Tony Jefferson for pass interference. On the next play Newton hit RB Mike Tolbert in the flat for a score; the 2 TDs in a 92 second span made it 27-14 Panthers. With 12 minutes to play LB Sam Acho hit Newton as he was passing and Rashad Johnson returned the empty-hand fumble to the AZ8. On the next play Lindley's pass intended for Fitzgerald was INT'd by LB Luke Kuechley at the 5. The game's only other points came in the closing seconds when punter Brad Nortman took an intentional safety by running out of the end zone.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 7

TEXAS STADIUM – (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28-21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL Championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) that came in a non-strike season. The Cardinals defeat the Dallas Cowboys 20-7 at Dallas Stadium, ending not only their playoff drought but their nine-game losing streak on the Cowboys home turf. It was just the second victory over Dallas in the last 17 meetings between the two teams. It was the first home-field loss for the Cowboys since 1983.

The Cardinals defense produced three interceptions, 15 passes defensed (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), four sacks, four tackles for a loss, and allowed QB Troy Aikman to complete just 22-of-49 passes for 191 yards. Arizona's defense held the Cowboys offense to just 260 total yards on the day. Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles and two sacks while defensive end Andre Wadsworth also collected a pair of sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two INTs and safety Tommy Bennett recorded one.

It was the defense that turned the tide of the game early. After Arizona jumped up to a 7-0 lead, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. Cardinals LB Mark Maddox dropped Dallas RB Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss on the play and Arizona added a 37-yard Chris Jacke FG later in the quarter to give the Cards a 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

RB Adrian Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys three-yard line on the second play of the third quarter, followed by a 3-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to Larry Centers that gave the Cardinals a 17-0 lead that was never threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards out capped the scoring for the Cardinals in the fourth quarter. The Arizona defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard TD pass from Aikman to WR Billy Davis.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 21, VIKINGS 41

JANUARY 10, 1999
METRODOME – (63,760)

Arizona's playoff run ended in Minnesota with a 41-21 loss to the high-scoring Vikings who turned three Cardinals turnovers into 17 points.

After the Vikings drove 80 yards in 13 plays in their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on RB LeRoy Hoard's first rushing TD, interceptions of QB Jake Plummer on the first two possessions of the second quarter quickly turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Vikings advantage by the time the Cardinals had run five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest scoring offense in NFL history up to that point, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point mark for the fifth time. The Vikings also converted eight-of-11 third-down plays.

RBs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage, with the former tallying three TD while the latter accounted for 124 rushing yards. Record setting rookie WR Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota TD. Vikings safety Robert Griffith recorded both INTs for the Vikings. Cardinals Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cardinals, trailing 7-0, early life with an end zone INT and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line.

Short yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona TDs on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing TDs record. Arizona held Minnesota sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. RB Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, FALCONS 24

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,848)

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, it was 3 James runs that perfectly set-up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the AZ23, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a pick off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim it to 6 and AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (73,695)

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the AZ15 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26.That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (70,650)

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successful executed a surprise pooch kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misruled the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-n-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the AZ47 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM – (70,774)

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steeler 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumbled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Santonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steeler 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was ruled to have fumbled before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,926)

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and certainly among the greatest ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 touchdowns and over 1,000 total yards. While the offenses were explosive, it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT when CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers; LB Karlos Dansby snatched the ball midair and returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge defensive plays by Dansby. Against the NFL's #2 defense, The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Packer QB was incredibly good, Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's greatest postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than incompletions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-2TDs.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best +24 turnover ratio but the Cards converted two early Packer miscues. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD passes that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Beanie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt of the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-n-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

JANUARY 16, 2010
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME – (70,149)

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters – CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the AZ37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next N.O. drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rogers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Beanie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 16

JANUARY 3, 2015
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (71,849)

The Cardinals finished the regular season 11-5, earning a Wild Card spot and trip to Carolina to take on the Panthers who captured the NFC South title by winning their last 4 games and finishing 7-8-1. Arizona had dealt with tremendous adversity all season, losing more than 20 players for more than 100 combined games due to injury and coming from behind in 9 of its 11 victories. But while they clawed back from a 10-point deficit to lead at halftime, this time they could not hold on. Arizona started its 3rd straight game with #3 QB Ryan Lindley (after injuries to both Carson Palmer & Drew Stanton) but had its hands full in both the run and pass games where they finished with just 27 and 51 net yards, respectively.

The Panthers jumped out to a 10-0 lead after they took advantage of outstanding field position on their first two series that resulted from a pair of AZ three-n-outs and short punts. The first drive started at the Carolina 48 and led to a 47-yard Graham Gano FG. The Panthers started their second drive at their own 43 and 8 plays later Jonathan Stewart scored on a 13-yard spinning run off the right side. Trailing by 10, the Cards were forced to punt on the next series but caught a break when returner Brenton Bersin mishandled it and Justin Bethel recovered at the Carolina 30. A 14-yard Larry Fitzgerald completion on 3rd-n-10 moved it to the 1 and led to Lindley's 1-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells. It remained 10-7 after Gano missed a 43-yard FG try on the next series. Two drives later, the Panthers advanced to the AZ37 where they faced a 3rd-n-13. CB Antonio Cromartie picked off Cam Newton and returned the INT 50 yards to the AZ17 with 5 minutes left in the 1st half. Four plays later, RB Marion Grice scored from a yard out to put Arizona up 14-10 with 2:50 remaining in the 1st half. It was enough time for Carolina to move 59 yards in 9 plays and Gano's 39-yard FG made it a 1-point game at intermission.

On Arizona's first drive of the 2nd half, WR Michael Floyd appeared to have been interfered with on a 3rd down pass down the left sideline but it went unflagged and the Cards went 3-n-out. A short punt gave Carolina possession at the AZ39 to start their 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter. On the next snap, RB Fozzy Whittaker caught a short screen from Newton and took it 39 yards for a TD. It went from bad to worse on the ensuing kickoff when Ted Ginn fumbled inside the 10 and the Panthers recovered at the AZ3. The defense appeared to hold Carolina to a FG when Newton's 3rd-n-goal pass to TE Greg Olsen fell incomplete but SJ Boris Cheek questionably flagged Tony Jefferson for pass interference. On the next play Newton hit RB Mike Tolbert in the flat for a score; the 2 TDs in a 92 second span made it 27-14 Panthers. With 12 minutes to play LB Sam Acho hit Newton as he was passing and Rashad Johnson returned the empty-hand fumble to the AZ8. On the next play Lindley's pass intended for Fitzgerald was INT'd by LB Luke Kuechley at the 5. The game's only other points came in the closing seconds when punter Brad Nortman took an intentional safety by running out of the end zone.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football. Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles and incurred their first loss of the season. Afterwards they tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett who missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears and set-up a showdown in the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field.

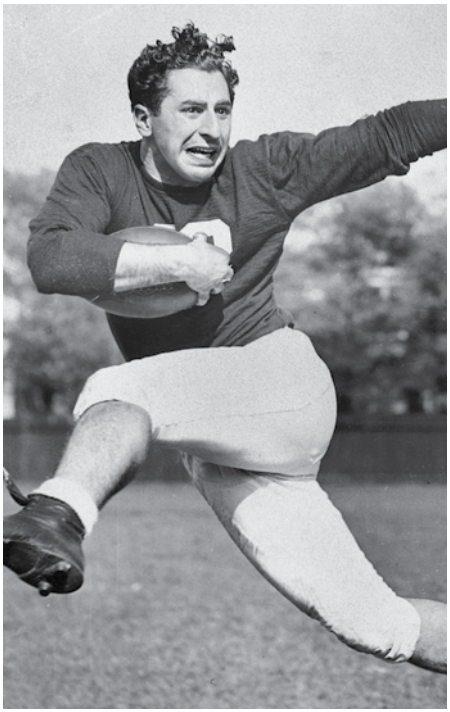

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better footing on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi returned a punt 75 yards for a touchdown. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, with a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald giving the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

A new exciting chapter in franchise history began in January of 2013 when team President Michael Bidwill hired GM Steve Keim and head coach Bruce Arians nine days apart. Under the leadership of Bidwill, Keim and Arians the Cardinals have posted a 21-11 record over the last two seasons, tying the franchise mark for wins in back-to-back years (1974-75, 1975-76). In 2014 Arizona tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) and earned its first postseason appearance since 2009.

The Cardinals success at home over the last two seasons has also transformed University of Phoenix Stadium into one of the most hostile venues in the NFL for opposing teams. Arizona's seven home wins in 2014 were the most in a single season since 1925 (11) and the Cardinals 13-3 home mark over the last two years ranks among the top-five in the NFL during that span.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

NOTES

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson … Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers … Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp … coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7–7 … Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining … Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey assume coaching reins … during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Cards individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

William V. Bidwill gains full ownership of the franchise ... assistant coach Chuck Drulis collapses of a heart attack on the team charter airplane returning from a preseason game at Houston ... he is pronounced dead following an emergency landing in Little Rock, Ark. ... safety Larry Wilson doubles as player and assistant coach, then two weeks before the end of the season he announces his retirement after 13 seasons ... quarterback Jim Hart connects with Ahmad Rashad (nee Bobby Moore) for a 98-yard pass play vs. L.A. Rams Dec. 10, the longest non-scoring pass play in NFL history.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach … he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach … running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round … Jim Hart is named starting quarterback … despite 4–9–1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards … Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32–10 win.

NOTES

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs … Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day … but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a post-season berth … eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker … Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America … Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards … all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice … Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 … return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records … Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

*Top NFC playoff seed

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 half-time deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown … in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half … Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points … Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating … WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach … with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests … QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times … Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach ... injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark ... rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl ... Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 ... WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions ... just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history … QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery … Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience … little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 … LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

P.....Rich Camarillo

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season … defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) … CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) … Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job … rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth … defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 … first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game … Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns … Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) … franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 … Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job … defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries … Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) … low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years … FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record … Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 ... 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Second-round draft choice Anquan Boldin becomes most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history with 101 receptions, while his 1,377 receiving yards most by NFL rookie in 43 years ... 217 receiving yards in season opener at Detroit most by player in first NFL game ... Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, signs two-year contract with Cardinals but a shoulder injury limits him to just six starting roles ... Super Bowl MVP Dexter Jackson lured from Tampa Bay as free agent and leads team with six interceptions ... Cards forge 4–4 mark at home, but 0–8 road record results in 4–12 finish and dismissal of third-year Head Coach Dave McGinnis ... Josh McCown handed quarterback duties late in season and guides Arizona to 18–17 victory in season finale vs. Minnesota with 28-yard touchdown pass to Nate Poole, knocking Vikings out of playoffs ... construction begins on new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity…team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes…Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998…strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth….an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich …defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others…the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games….in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs…the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs….S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list) ... Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection ... WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl ... Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards ... Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season ...in his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5% ... FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982...Arizona finished with the league's #1 passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)...the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467...2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

NOTES

The Cardinals capped 2008 season with a memorable playoff run, winning the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia and playing in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pittsburgh ... won their first division title since 1975, winning the NFC West with a perfect 6-0 division record and finishing the regular season 9-7 overall ... under second-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, Cardinals made first playoff appearance since 1998 in Wild Card game vs. Falcons, and earned second road playoff win in franchise history with victory at Carolina ... became first #4 seed to host a conference championship game and first #4 seed to advance to Super Bowl ... Cardinals recorded 12 wins on the season, the most in a single-season in franchise history and they won more playoff games in 2008 (3) than they had in their total playoff history (2) ... finished the regular season with an 8-2 home record and improved record at University of Phoenix Stadium to 14-4 under Whisenhunt ... Kurt Warner sets franchise record with 30 TD passes while also earning his fourth Pro Bowl selection ... Warner also sets team marks for attempts, completions, completion percentage, passer rating and finished second in passing yards ... Larry Fitzgerald earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and third overall after once again leading the NFC in both receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,431) while also collecting a career high 12 touchdowns ... Fitzgerald set single postseason records for receptions (30), yards (546), and receiving touchdowns (7) while also collecting over 100 receiving yards in all four postseason games ... Anquan Boldin earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl after becoming the first receiver in team history to have four 1,000 yard receiving seasons to go along with a career high 11 TDs ... reached 500 receptions in 80th game, reaching the milestone in fewer games than any other receiver in NFL history ... also set franchise mark with 24 100-yard receiving games ... Tim Hightower's 10 rushing TDs during the regular season set a franchise record for rookie ... Rookie Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie led the team with four INT's during the regular season including tying the franchise record for longest INT return with a 99-yard return for a touchdown against St. Louis... for the third season in a row, the team sold out every home game including both playoff contests.

WARNER REACHES FINAL 10 FOR HOF IN FIRST YEAR OF ELIGIBILITY

Former Cardinals cornerback Kurt Warner was chosen as one of 15 modern-day finalists for the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2015, and he advanced to the final 10 candidates for induction when the Hall of Fame committee met to select this year's class prior to Super Bowl XLIX in February. Former Cardinals head coach Don Coryell was also one of the 15 finalists for induction, marking the second time he has been a finalist after also making the final 15 in 2010.

Warner spent five seasons (2005-09) in Arizona, starting 57 of 61 games while leading the Cardinals to their first-ever Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl XLIII following the 2008 season. He led Arizona to back-to-back NFC West titles in 2008-09 while re-writing the franchise record books in the process. During the 2008 season Warner established Cardinals regular season franchise records for attempts (598), completions (401), completion percentage (67.1), passer rating (96.9), TD passes (30) and consecutive games with a TD pass (22). He also passed for 4,583 yards, the second-highest total in team history (Neil Lomax – 4,614 in 1984). He posted four of the top five highest single-season completion percentage totals in team history and threw for 300+ yards in a franchise record 22 games.

A two-time NFL MVP and Super Bowl XXXIV MVP, Warner played 12 seasons in the NFL with the Rams (1998-2003), Giants (2004) and Cardinals (2005-2009). He is one of just three QBs in NFL history (Peyton Manning and Craig Morton) to take two different teams to the Super Bowl. One of the greatest postseason performers in NFL history, Warner owns the top three passing totals in Super Bowl history.

Coryell coached the Cardinals from 1973-77 and his 42 wins as head coach rank as the second-highest total in franchise history. He led the Cards to back-to-back division titles in 1974-75 and is the only coach in franchise history to lead the team to three consecutive seasons of 10+ wins (10 in 1974, 11 in 1975 and 10 in 1976).

Warner and Coryell will be considered for induction again in the Class of 2016. Semifinalists will be announced in November and the field will be narrowed down to 15 modern-day finalists in January 2016. The final Class of 2016 will be chosen and announced on February 6, 2016, the day before Super Bowl 50 in San Francisco.

SUNDAY FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING FOR THE 2015 REGULAR SEASON

For the second year in a row, flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-10. During that period, it can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time. Also, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17 as it has been traditionally. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game except for Week 17 when the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17 but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

For the Cardinals, this means the home games vs. Cincinnati, Green Bay and Seattle are subject to flexible scheduling.

The Cardinals will post all information regarding game times at www.azcardinals.com. We also recommend you check the team's official Twitter and Facebook accounts, and other media outlets for additional information regarding scheduled game times.

$2 MILLION SUPER BOWL LEGACY GRANT BENEFITS MORE THAN 25 PROJECTS THROUGHOUT ARIZONA COMMUNITY

As it does every year, the NFL seeks to improve the surrounding communities of the Super Bowl host city with a financial donation. This year, the NFL Foundation provided a $1 million grant to the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee via the Arizona Community Foundation to fund charitable projects throughout Arizona to support health and wellness programs for the Arizona community. This grant was matched by the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee for a total of more than $2 million.

Representatives from the NFL, Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee and the Cardinals gathered prior to Super Bowl XLIX to recognize the recipients of this year's Super Bowl Legacy Grants. Cardinals President Michael Bidwill, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell and Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee Chairman David Rousseau made the announcement at ASU Preparatory Academy School, one of the grant recipient locations. Before its Super Bowl makeover, the field at ASU Prep was in subpar condition for the thousands of youth who utilized it for organized sports and intramurals.

Others in attendance at the event included Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee President & CEO Jay Parry, Cardinals players Justin Bethel, Calais Campbell, Carson Palmer, Patrick Peterson and Drew Stanton and former Cardinal and Pro Football Hall of Famer Aeneas Williams.

The event also recognized the Arizona Interscholastic Association's (AIA) support of USA Football's Heads Up Football program. The AIA's support of Heads Up Football is part of Arizona's comprehensive approach to student-athlete health. Following the press conference, high school athletic directors and football coaches from around the state attended an education session on the Heads Up Football program. Heads Up Football, which includes a focus on education and certification, equipment fitting, concussion recognition and awareness, heat and hydration, and Heads Up Tackling, was launched in 2012 by USA Football with the NFL's support. As part of the event, ESPN also announced their support of Heads Up Football by donating $30,000 towards the initiative to help Arizona-based high school coaches become Heads Up Football certified in 2015.

The list of Super Bowl Legacy Grant recipients being funded includes:

- Arizona Foundation for Women
- Arizona Science Center
- Assistance League of Phoenix
- ASU Foundation for a New American University
- ASU Preparatory Academy
- Balsz Elementary School District
- Barrow Neurological Foundation
- Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Scottsdale
- Challenger Learning Center of Arizona
- City of Phoenix FitPHX
- City of Tempe
- Crisis Nursery
- Ecological Restoration Institute - Northern Arizona University
- Elevate Phoenix
- Esperanca, Inc.
- First Things First Foundation
- Florence Crittenton of Arizona
- Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund
- Phoenix Indian Center
- Phoenix Public Library
- Playworks Arizona
- Positive Coaching Alliance
- Read On Arizona
- Rodel Foundation of Arizona
- Special Olympics Arizona
- St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance
- UMOM New Day Centers

SUPER BOWL XLIX AND RELATED EVENTS GENERATE AN ECONOMIC IMPACT OF $719.4 MILLION ACCORDING TO STUDY COMPLETED BY ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

A study completed by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University, determined that Super Bowl XLIX, the 2015 Pro Bowl and related events produced a gross economic impact of $719.4 million in the region.

That represents the largest economic impact of any special event ever held in the state of Arizona, as well as the highest for any Super Bowl on record. By comparison, Super Bowl XLII played at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2008 generated a gross economic impact of $500.6 million (2008 dollars) based on research also conducted by the W.P. Carey School of Business.

Commissioned by the Arizona Commerce Authority in partnership with the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee, the study focused on the nine-day period from January 24th through February 1, 2015 coinciding with the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl which were played at University of Phoenix Stadium on January 25 and February 1, respectively.

The gross economic impact is defined as the direct amount of spending by visitors and organizations arriving from outside the state to participate in or create events directly related to the Super Bowl, as well as the indirect and induced impacts of those expenditures, often described as "ripple effects." Resident and local business spending was not included.

To gather data about spending and duration of stay from visitors, on-site surveys were conducted at events around the Valley over the nine day period by teams of trained individuals from the W. P. Carey School of Business. Data was collected from out-of-town visitors who stated that the main reason for their visit to the Phoenix Metropolitan area was for the Super Bowl, Pro Bowl and/or associated events. The data was collected across multiple days at multiple sites to sample diverse socio-economic and demographic groups.

The indirect and induced economic impacts were calculated using an IMPLAN (IMpact analysis for PLANning) model originally developed by the University of Minnesota. This commercially licensed linear input-output model is widely used for economic assessment throughout the United States and is populated with local, regional and state data for Arizona.

Other findings from the Seidman Research Institute at W.P. Carey School of Business report:

- An estimated 121,775 visitors came to Arizona for Super Bowl XLIX and/or the 2015 Pro Bowl; those visitors stayed an average of 3.99 nights.
- An estimated 5,033 out-of-town media members came to Arizona and stayed an average of 7.1 nights (up from 4.1 nights for Super Bowl XLII in 2008).
- The $719.4 million economic impact for Super Bowl XLIX represents an increase of 30.8% over Super Bowl XLII in Arizona (adjusted using the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index, or BLS CPI, inflation calculator which expressed that the 2008 economic impact dollars have the same buying power as $550.1 million in 2015).

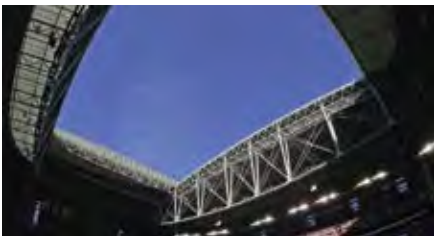

Previously released data relative to the success of Super Bowl XLIX include the following:

- Broadcast by NBC, Super Bowl XLIX was the most-watched program in the history of American television and averaged 114.4 million viewers.
- More than 1,000,000 people visited Verizon Super Bowl Central in downtown Phoenix and 500,000 people enjoyed events in downtown Scottsdale during the week
- Verizon Super Bowl Central was the first reduced waste event of its size at a Super Bowl; the Kick the Waste Initiative resulted in 73% diversion rate from landfill to recycling.
- 177,000 people attended the NFL Experience, a record attendance at the Phoenix Convention Center.
- On the day before Super Bowl XLIX, 126,000 people rode Valley Metro Light Rail, doubling the previous single-day high. Throughout the week, Light Rail ridership totaled 389,500 (also a record).
- Sky Harbor Airport served 175,000 passengers the day after Super Bowl, a single day record for Sky Harbor.
- Super Bowl XLIX was televised live in more than 170 countries and territories. More than 23 countries provided on-site coverage from Arizona and the game was broadcast in nine languages from University of Phoenix Stadium (Mandarin Chinese, Danish, English, French, German, Hungarian, Japanese, Portuguese, and Spanish).
- Arizona was the first host community to offer a website and social media in Spanish and to create cross-border partnerships with Mexico business and tourism entities.
- More than 100 stations broadcast live from Radio Row at the Super Bowl Media Center in downtown Phoenix.
- Legacy Grant Funds in excess of $2 million were awarded to 27 Arizona non-profits to benefit over 400,000 kids; this was made possible by sponsors of the Super Bowl Host Committee, the Arizona Cardinals and the NFL.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee. Changes have been made to the policy for the upcoming 2015 season.

Below is the excerpt from the 2015 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and AT&T Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

GENERAL POLICY

Until 90 minutes prior to kickoff, the home club will have the authority to determine if the retractable roof should be open or closed for each preseason and regular season game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others.

In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

If the roof is in the closed position for the first half of the game, the home club may elect to open the roof for the second half of the game, provided that such election takes place no later than 90 minutes before kickoff, the "NFL Retractable Roof Halftime Election Form" is properly submitted at that 90 minute meeting to the opposing club and the NFL Football Operations department, and the weather parameters set forth in the Election Form are satisfied when five minutes remain in the second quarter.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES

1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
2) Forty-eight hours prior to kickoff, the home club must submit to the Football Operations department its defined weather parameters for opening the retractable roof at halftime, assuming an election to do so has been made at the 90-minute meeting on game day. For the purposes of this policy, "weather parameters" include maximum and minimum temperatures, maximum and minimum wind speeds, and likelihood of any precipitation or hazardous condition for the remainder of the game.
3) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than 60 minutes prior to kickoff. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
4) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

HALFTIME PROCEDURES

1) If at the 90-minute meeting the home club elected to open the roof at halftime, the roof must remain opened if the defined weather parameters are in place when five minutes remain in the second quarter. The weather parameters will be verified by the Football Operations department utilizing its designated weather service provider. Final determination as to whether the weather parameters have been satisfied will be made by the Football Operations department with two minutes remaining in the second quarter.
2) The visiting and home Head Coach must be notified by a member of the officiating crew that the roof will be opened for the second half immediately after the conclusion of the first half.
3) The opening of the roof at halftime must commence as soon as the first half ends to ensure that the roof is fully opened prior to the start of the second half.
4) In the event the home club fails to open the retractable roof after: (a) an election has been made; (b) the defined weather parameters have been satisfied: and (c) receiving approval from the Football Operations department to open the roof, the club will be subject to discipline by the Commissioner for conduct detrimental, absent any exigent circumstances such as mechanical failure of the retractable roof.

IN-GAME PROCEDURES

1) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
2) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
3) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 1 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Cardinals Charities grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women and children's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities supported these programs through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Helping Hands for Single Moms, the Ronald McDonald House, Communities in Schools, The Wellness Community and UMOM New Day Centers.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $6.9 million to worthy charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

In 2014, Cardinals Charities distributed over $1.6 million to 160 worthy charitable organizations. Included in that number were Boys & Girls Clubs across the state, domestic violence shelters, and various educational programs.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR BENEFICIARIES

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year. Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is July 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts four signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Celebrity Golf Classic, Kingpin Challenge and Celebrity Golf Challenge.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

- Entering its 18th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2014, 480 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium in a talk-show style event featuring Cardinals players and emceed by team broadcasters Ron Wolfley and Dave Pasch.

KINGPIN CHALLENGE

- Entering 22nd consecutive season as a dinner/auction and eighth as the Kingpin Challenge at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- The seventh annual Kingpin Challenge was held at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes in 2014, featuring the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff.
- In 2014, 200 bowlers were grouped with a current Cardinals player or coach for the bowling tournament.

CARDINALS CELEBRITY GOLF CHALLENGE

- Entering its 11th consecutive season after previously being called the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge.
- A celebrity golf tournament during the fall partners Cardinals alumni along with local celebrities, fans and business partners.
- In its 10th year in 2014, the Cardinals Celebrity Golf Challenge had 40 NFL alumni paired up with other Valley sports celebrities and 140 other golfers to raise money through Albertsons to benefit United Food Bank.

CARDINALS CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

- Entering 27th consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with members of the Cardinals organization.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2015, the 200 golfers included Cardinals players and alumni along with Arizona's coaches at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass.

CARDINALS COMPLETE ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2014 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2014 season, 49 different players, 36 alumni players and 38 members of the women's club took part in 159 different community events and appearances that impacted over 32,000 adults and children. The Cardinals also donated more than 50,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2015 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 24 community events involving 18 different current and former players that impacted over 9,000 children and adults.

The Cardinals four signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps, USA Football's "Heads Up Football" and the NFL Flag Football program – continued last year and will all be back in 2015.

SRP/SAFEWAY MILK AND COOKIES PROGRAM

- Entering its 14th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday during the season, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red read to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributed book marks and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- 10 players visited 14 different schools and read to over 800 students in 2014.

GATORADE JR. TRAINING CAMPS

- Entering 18th consecutive season. During the 2014 season, the Cardinals put on clinics using Gatorade Jr. Training stations and interactive zones.
- Current and former Cardinals players and Big Red provided football instruction and guidance for students while hosting kids camps at Valley elementary schools and at University of Phoenix Stadium. The players and Big Red helped promote the NFL's Play 60 message to encourage kids to receive 60 minutes of daily exercise.
- 17 players participated in 31 Kids Camps impacting 3,100 students during the 2014 season.
- During the 2015 offseason, the Cardinals hosted 11 camps for over 2,200 children.

USA FOOTBALL'S "HEADS UP FOOTBALL"

- The Cardinals are entering their 3rd season of involvement with the program.
- "Heads Up Football" is a partnership between NFL teams and USA Football to help promote leagues that stress a smarter and safer way to play and teach youth football, including proper tackling and taking the head out of the game.
- The Cardinals are affiliated with seven leagues and 90 teams across the state with over 1,800 coaches and over 14,000 participants all currently certified or becoming certified in the program.

NFL FLAG FOOTBALL PROGRAM

- Entering its 13th consecutive season and presented by University of Phoenix and the Mayo Clinic.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the southwest with teams in Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and the Imperial Valley of California.

- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 21,000 players, one of the NFL's largest.
- For the 10th consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at University of Phoenix Stadium. In 2014 the tournament hosted over 725 athletes from California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Utah and Nevada participating throughout the weekend. Since its inception, 14 teams from the Cardinals NFL Flag program have been crowned as national champions, including the Tucson Turf in 2014.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2014 season. Both programs are back for the 2015 season.

"HIGH SCHOOL COACH-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 21st consecutive season.
- Every week during the high school football season, a local panel selects a High School Coach of the Week and awards him a certificate signed by team President Michael Bidwill and Head Coach Bruce Arians in addition to a $1,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities.
- In 2014, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $10,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2014 high school season and Shaun Aguano from Chandler H.S. was awarded an additional $2,000 for his school.

"HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 13th consecutive season and 10th presented by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a local panel selects a High School Player of the Week who receives a football trophy acknowledging the award at the players' school during an awards ceremony.
- In 2014, 10 players were selected and each was awarded at their school in front of their peers with team mascot Big Red and an alumni player.
- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and quarterback Bryce Perkins from Chandler H.S. was given a customized Cardinals jersey and a football trophy engraved with his season stats.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive presented by The Room Store to benefit Arizonans for Children and a game day canned food drive that benefitted St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are "Help Feed the Hungry" and "Teddy Bear Express."

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY

- Last year, Cardinals players and their families along with team President Michael Bidwill, front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 500 people.
- The 2014 season marked the 13th consecutive year of working with the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

TEDDY BEAR EXPRESS

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visits Phoenix Children's Hospital to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays away from home.
- Last year, eight players visited 400 children at PCH, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.
- The 2014 season was the 15th consecutive year of program.

The 2015 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade.

"FOOTBALL SKILLS AND EDUCATION CAMP" FEATURING A "MOM'S FOOTBALL SAFETY CLINIC"

- 14th consecutive summertime camp.
- Presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade.
- 800 high school football players and 100 moms from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at University of Phoenix Stadium.
- Cardinals players and alumni helped coach and instruct each individual position.
- A special "Mom's Football Safety Clinic" was held which was geared to mothers of the high school football players participating at the camp.

ARIZONA CARDINALS KICKING CAMP

- 11th consecutive summertime camp.
- Presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade.
- 150 kickers, punters, and long-snappers from Arizona high school had the opportunity to gain instruction from Senior Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas and a group of current and former Cardinals specialists.

In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

CARDINALS DONATIONS

- The Cardinals donated 50,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys, pants, shoes and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2014 raising over $140,000 for local charities.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 10,000 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations throughout the Valley.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

When the Cardinals embarked upon the task of building a new stadium they were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it hosts the annual Fiesta Bowl and has hosted the BCS National Championship game twice. It was also the site of two Super Bowls - XLII in 2008 (Giants over Patriots) and XLIX in 2015 (Patriots over Seahawks) in addition to the 2015 Pro Bowl.

Prior to the 2014 NFL season, University of Phoenix Stadium underwent a $20 million upgrade to help improve the game-day experience. As part of a collaboration between the Cardinals and the Arizona Sports & Tourism Authority (AZSTA), the videoboards at the north and south ends were upgraded and now feature high contrast technology for the clearest image quality. The Cardinals also undertook a significant project to upgrade the telecommunications systems for improved wireless coverage at the stadium. The team installed a state of the art Cisco HD Wi-Fi system to allow fans access to high-speed internet in their seats and in all public areas of the stadium, which now features seven times as many total access points distributed throughout the venue and 10 times as much bandwidth.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

SCOREBOARDS: As part of a collaboration between the Cardinals & the Arizona Sports & Tourism Authority (AZSTA), videoboards at the north & south ends were upgraded prior to the 2014 season. Both are more than triple the size of the previous ones. At the south end is a high-definition LED video display that measures 54 feet high by 164 feet wide and provides an additional 8,856 square feet of live video and replays. Featuring a 13HD pixel layout for crisp, clear imagery and 75% higher resolution, the display is capable of showing one large image to highlight live video and instant replays. It can also be divided into separate sections to show additional stats and information that fans want. The videoboard at the north end is also triple the size of the previous one, measuring 27 feet high by 97 feet wide. Both displays feature high contrast technology for the best in image quality.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: University of Phoenix Stadium has an IP infrastructure that supports telecommunications throughout the Stadium. The voice and data communication network infrastructure is built entirely on Cisco equipment. All telecommunications services for voice, data, and video broadcast distribution are provided by COX Business Services and are provided via redundant services to the stadium.

The stadium supports 2500 unique telephone DID numbers on a DS-1/PRI backbone. The stadium provides 3Gb of Internet bandwidth, which can be adjusted as needed to support any technology requests that come to the stadium, and additional bandwidth can be requested in advance to increase the capacity as needed.

In 2013 the Stadium DAS system upgrade began using Crown Castle and a neutral host system. In 2014, the system was completely finished and hosts all major carriers, Verizon, AT&T, T-Mobile, and Sprint, and has multiple 4G-LTE sectors for each carrier, according to the needs of each.

In 2014 the Stadium Computing Network and Wi-Fi Systems were completely upgraded by CDW. An HD Wi-Fi System was installed throughout the stadium, which includes approximately 800 Cisco AP's and antennas, and is supported by a Cisco Prime Network infrastructure running over a 10Gb fiber optic backbone. (An acceptable usage policy for the Wi-Fi system will be posted in the Press Box.) The stadium also upgraded the Cisco Unified Communications System, replaced all Core and Edge switches and servers, as well as upgraded all security systems.

In 2015 the stadium will be installing Outdoor Wi-Fi coverage, starting at the Great Lawn and South Lawn, where the majority of outdoor events at the stadium take place. In addition, there will also be a network of Bluetooth Beacons installed this summer. The beacons can be used for a variety of purposes, including information sharing, marketing and promotions.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted a pair of Super Bowls, the 2015 Pro Bowl, the Rolling Stones, U2, high school proms, the first-ever BCS National Championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, the West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other events. University of Phoenix Stadium will host the CFP National Championship Game in January of 2016 and was selected to host Arizona's first-ever NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four in 2017.

In a given year, Global Spectrum (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

MICHAEL BIDWILL AMONG SPEAKERS AT CAREER DEVELOPMENT SYMPOSIUM IN ARIZONA

Cardinals President Michael Bidwill was among the speakers and presenters at the annual NFL Career Development Symposium in Arizona this March.

The three-day program engaged aspiring head coach and general manager candidates through presentations, panel discussions, breakout sessions and networking opportunities with owners, club presidents, coaches, general managers and league executives.

Program sessions included: "Expectations of Ownership," "Building a Winning Culture," "Club Business," "Interviewing Techniques," "Managing Relationships," and two breakout panels – one for aspiring head coaches and one for aspiring general managers.

The program is directed by NFL Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer Robert Gulliver and NFL Executive Vice President of Football Operations Troy Vincent.

"The NFL constantly strives to make the best better," said Vincent. "We have assembled the most talented individuals available to our game. Our job is to educate in order to mesh that talent with potential, bringing forward the future of our game."

Career Development Symposium participants are selected by the NFL office after NFL clubs submit nominations from their staffs. The Career Development Symposium previously ran from 1998-2008 and returned in 2013. Attendees of last year's Symposium included new head coaches Todd Bowles (New York Jets) and Jim Tomsula (San Francisco).

CARDINALS MOBILE APP

Cardinals fans interested in following the team from their mobile devices can download the free official Arizona Cardinals application to use on their iPhone, Android, RIM and Windows smartphones. CARDINALS COMMEMORATE INSTALLATION OF SUPER BOWL XLIX FIELD AT TOLLESON HIGH SCHOOL

In March the Cardinals and the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee participated at a ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the donation and installation of the field that was used at Super Bowl XLIX at University of Phoenix Stadium at Tolleson Union High School.

Cardinals linebacker Lorenzo Alexander and center/guard Ted Larsen joined Nicole Bidwill, Chairman of the Super Bowl Host Committee David Rousseau, Cardinals Cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red for the field dedication at Tolleson High School. Also on hand were school administrators from Tolleson Union High School as well as members from the Tolleson Board of Education.

The installation of the sod at Tolleson High School was done by Chandler-based Evergreen Turf, a proud partner of the Arizona Cardinals. In all, approximately 90,000 square feet of sod was transported from University of Phoenix Stadium to Tolleson Union High School.

PFWA PHOENIX CHAPTER RECOGNIZES VELDHEER AND FOOTE IN 2014

Cardinals left tackle Jared Veldheer was named the team's most valuable player in 2014 by the Arizona chapter of the Pro Football Writers Association and inside linebacker Larry Foote was given the Good Guy Award.

In their first seasons with the Cardinals, both players were instrumental in the team finishing 11-5, tying the franchise record for number of victories in a season.

Veldheer anchored the offensive line as the Cardinals yielded only 28 sacks last season, tied for the sixth-fewest in the NFL in 2014. Foote, who is now serving as Cardinals inside linebackers coach, started 15 of 16 games and led the team with 105 tackles while adding 2.0 sacks, eight tackles for loss and an INT.

The MVP award is named after Lloyd Herberg, who covered the Cardinals for The Arizona Republic from 1988 until his death in 1994.

The Good Guy award is named after Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the Cardinals and the NFL for The Arizona Republic from 1988 to 2000. Schoenfeld was killed by a hit-and-run driver in 2000. The award in his name is given to a player who is professional, accessible and insightful in dealing with reporters.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public.

Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area.

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

CARDS OFFER PREGAME ENTERTAINMENT OPTIONS FOR FANS PRIOR TO HOME GAMES

CARDINALS FLIGHT DECK

The "Arizona Cardinals Flight Deck" takes place on the north plaza outside of University of Phoenix Stadium and opens three hours and 25 minutes prior to each home game. The "Flight Deck" is a pregame destination for Cardinals fans that is anchored by the Plaza Lounge, a 50' x 100' shade structure providing seating as well as cooling towers, Cardinals Cheerleader autographs and an oversized LED video wall for watching early NFL games. Food and beverage options are available for purchase through mobile gourmet concessions and portable bar service that fans could bring into the stadium. Other activities include a Kids Combine, football themed games and an interactive display by Verizon Wireless.

CARDINALS PREFLIGHT PARTY

The "Arizona Cardinals Preflight Party" takes place at Westgate's WaterDance Plaza, adjacent to the dancing fountains. The pregame festivities at the "Preflight Party" begin three hours before kickoff for each home game and include an outdoor beer garden in addition to live music, Cardinals Cheerleader autographs, Cardinals-themed inflatables, photo boards and other fan friendly interactive experiences.

CARDINALS GREAT LAWN

An eight-acre expanse of grass surrounded by sycamore trees, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians on the Hyundai Main Stage. The Great Lawn opens four hours prior to kick-off.

CARDINALS PARACHUTE TEAM

Sixty minutes prior to kickoff at each home game, the Cardinals parachute team jumps over University of Phoenix Stadium and lands on one of the nearby lawns in Sportsman's Park.

BIG RED AIR RAID SIREN

As part of a new gameday tradition at University of Phoenix Stadium, the Big Red Air Siren sounds off to help the crowd get fired up as the Cardinals take the field prior to kickoff.

For more information on game day activities on game day follow the Cardinals Game Day Twitter account @CardsGameday.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

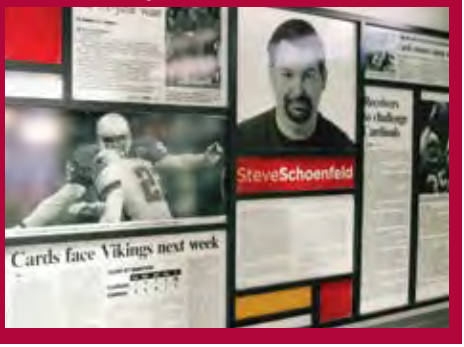

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Schoenfeld worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community, according to Brian Mueller, president of Apollo Group, the University's parent company.

University of Phoenix was founded over 35 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 112 campuses and learning centers in 38 states and four foreign nations.

UPCOMING EVENTS AT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

University of Phoenix Stadium, which hosted the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIX in 2015, will continue to have a prominent place in sports by hosting several other high-profile events in the coming years.

CFP National Championship Game

Date: January 11, 2016

The second-ever National Championship Game of the College Football Playoff will be held at University of Phoenix Stadium. It will mark the state's eighth National Championship game since 1987 and the third at University of Phoenix Stadium (Jan. 2007; Jan. 2011). The 2011 National Championship game drew a sellout crowd of 78,603.

Fiesta Bowl (CFP Semi-Final Game)

Date: December 31, 2016

The Fiesta Bowl is part of the New Year's Six bowl games, which host CFP semifinal games on a three-year rotation. The Fiesta Bowl is slated to host a semifinal for the 2016/17, 2019/20, 2022/23 and 2025/26 seasons.

NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four

Date: April 1 & 3, 2017

In 2017 Arizona will host its first-ever Final Four and the first Final Four held west of Texas since 1995 (Seattle). University of Phoenix Stadium will seat 75,063 fans and will be the seventh current NFL stadium (eighth overall) to host both the Final Four and a Super Bowl.

RECORD-BREAKING TV NUMBERS FOR CARDINALS IN 2014

The Cardinals enjoyed great success in 2014 and Valley television viewers turned out in record numbers to watch them.

According to the NFL & The Nielsen Company, the local telecasts of the Cardinals 16 regular season games averaged a 27.5 rating, 49 share and were watched in 504,000 households on average.

Those 2014 TV numbers shattered the club's single-season marks.

	2014	Previous record	Pct higher than previous record
Rating	27.5	22.6 ('09)	21.7%
Share	49	42 ('13)	16.7%
Avg Households	504,000	432,000 ('09)	16.7%

Nine of Arizona's 16 games had an audience of over half-a-million local households. Seven times the broadcasts generated a share of 50+, meaning more than half of Valley households watching TV at the time were tuned in to the Cardinals game. The team also had twice as many games in 2014 with a rating over 25 (14) than it did from 1988-2013 combined (7).

	2014	1988-2013
Games w 25+ Rating	14	7
Games w 50+ Share	7	2
Games w 500k+ HHs	9	3

Other notes on the team's 2014 TV ratings include:

- The Cardinals final TV numbers increased 28% from 2013, the largest such jump in the NFL.
- In a listing of the most-watched programs of any kind in the Phoenix market from Labor Day to New Year's, the 16 Cardinals game broadcasts occupy spots 1-16.
- The 12/21 home game vs. Seattle was the most-watched regular season game in team history with a 33.4 rating and audience of 612,000 households.
- Home games vs. Philadelphia on 10/26 and Detroit on 11/16 each had a 55 share; in Cards regular season history only the 12/27/98 finale vs. San Diego had a higher share (58).
- The regular season finale at San Francisco was seen in 531,000 Valley homes making it the team's most-watched regular season road game ever.
- Dating back to 2013, the last 20 Cardinals games have drawn a local TV audience of over 400,000 households, extending the longest such streak in team history (previous was four, 2009-10).
- To put in context, the average Cardinals game drew a larger audience than Phoenix's most-watched non-NFL program of 2014, the Academy Awards on 3/2 (27.0 rating, 49 share, 501k households).
- Those strong TV numbers are in addition to the 616,955 fans who attended games in person at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2014, allowing the team to extend its sellout streak to 93 (every game since the venue opened in 2006).

CAMPBELL NAMED CARDINALS WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Defensive end Calais Campbell was named the Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year for 2014, the second time in his career he has received the honor (2011).

The NFL granted $1,000 to the charity of Campbell's choice for receiving this honor and he was recognized by Cardinals President Michael Bidwill for his accomplishment following a practice last November.

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued last season, selling out all 10 games (including preseason). Entering the 2015 season, the team has sold out all 93 games played at the stadium. Arizona averaged 61,979 fans per game in 2014, totaling 495,835 fans.

Arizona finished last season with a 7-1 record at home, marking the eighth straight season with a .500 record or better while playing at home and giving them a 49-26 home record, including postseason, dating back to the stadium's inaugural season in 2006. The Cardinals seven home wins in 2014 were the most in a single season since 1925 (11 in 13 home games).

With an 11-5 overall record in 2014, the Cardinals have now gone .500 or better in six of the nine seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium, and they earned the franchise's third playoff berth in that span. They finished .500 or better just twice and made the playoffs only one time in the 18 seasons prior.

Before the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

CARDINALS CHEERLEADERS

Whether it's performing at all Arizona Cardinals home games, community service involvement, appearances at other sporting and civic events, or just signing autographs, the Arizona Cardinals Cheerleaders are recognized throughout the country for their talent, exciting dance routings and professionalism.

The cheerleaders have performed throughout the United States, Mexico, and Canada. At the invitation of the Pentagon, the cheerleaders also have entertained U.S. military troops in Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Bosnia, Egypt, Greenland, Kosovo, Bahrain and China.

Through their talent, showmanship, enthusiasm and dedication to their community and country, the cheerleaders have established themselves as an integral part of the Cardinals organization.

The cheerleaders are available for community service events, civic events, meetings, conventions or special occasions. Call the Cardinals (602/379–1874) for more information.

ARIZONA AT THE FOREFRONT ON CONCUSSION PREVENTION AMONG STUDENT ATHLETES

In August of 2011, the Arizona Cardinals, Barrow Neurological Institute at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center, and the Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) announced a major breakthrough in concussion prevention and research that immediately affected more than 100,000 Arizona student athletes.

Arizona became the first state to mandate all student athletes undergo concussion education and pass a formal test before play through a new program specifically geared toward students. Arizona ranked second in the nation for traumatic brain injury, and previously, there had never been a mandated education and testing program designed for student athletes to teach them about the dangerous effects of concussions. The program, designed by AIA, Barrow and the Arizona Cardinals, is changing the face of high school sports in Arizona.

"There are approximately three million sports-related concussions nationally each year," says Javier Cárdenas, MD, neurologist at Barrow Neurological Institute, who has taken a statewide lead in concussion prevention. "Players recognizing the signs and symptoms of concussion can prevent death and disability."

All student athletes through the AIA receive their concussion education through Brainbook, an interactive online site created by Barrow and Arizona State University. Designed to look like a social media site, the students are taken through a series of educational content, activities and videos. At the end of the module, the students are required to pass a formal exam before being cleared to play. The module is the first collaborative educational effort between a pro football team, a hospital, and an interscholastic agency. Brainbook is currently being evaluated for implementation in other states throughout the nation.

In addition to the education program, Barrow has received a $250,000 grant from the Maddock Foundation to develop a research registry which will track concussed student athletes. This will be a powerful tool for Barrow neurologists and researchers to make never-before-known insights into the long-term effects of concussion.

CARDS SUPPORT PROGRAMS TO CREATE AWARENESS FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

The Cardinals supported Domestic Violence Awareness month through various programs at last October's Cardinals-Eagles game, including the team's "Defense Against Domestic Violence" initiative.

As part of the "Defense Against Domestic Violence" program, for every 3rd down stop the Cardinals defense made during the 2014 season, Cardinals Charities donated $1,000 to Arizona Domestic Violence Awareness, education and assistance organizations, and the grand total donated for the season came out to $150,000.

Fans showed their support by making a one-time $10 donation to this effort and in return participants received a special purple silicone wristband.

Also at the game against the Eagles, table locations were setup on all concourses throughout University of Phoenix Stadium, staffed with volunteers from the Arizona Coalition to End Sexual & Domestic Violence, the O'Connor House and the City of Phoenix distributing domestic violence awareness and assistance information in both English and Spanish. The Cardinals also donated tickets to the game to Arizona domestic violence awareness, education and assistance organizations.

In addition, fans attending the Eagles game could donate their old wireless phones from any carrier to support the "Hopeline" program from Verizon. The "Hopeline" program connects survivors of domestic violence to vital resources, funds organizations nationwide and protects the environment. Verizon collects the no-longer used wireless phones and accessories and turns them into support for domestic violence organizations nationwide. Over 180,000 "Hopeline" phones have been donated to victims and survivors and $21 million has been given in cash grants to domestic violence organizations since 2001.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

CARDINALS ON THE RADIO

The Cardinals are pleased to continue their partnership with Bonneville/KTAR in 2015. KTAR has been the flagship radio station for the Cardinals since 2005.

Dave Pasch

Ron Wolfley

Paul Calvisi

GAME-DAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

In 2015, Cardinals games will air on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM. Arizona Sports 98.7 FM will also air pre-game and post-game programming for every contest.

Calling the play-by-play for his 14th straight season with the Cardinals is Dave Pasch. He joined the team in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA as well as college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for his 11th year as radio analyst is Ron Wolfley, former player and four-time Pro Bowl selection and special-teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Arizona Sports 98.7 FM talk-show host and Cardinals reporter Paul Calvisi offers sideline commentary during the game broadcasts.

Game-day programming begins four-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM with "Cardinals Early Bird," a half-hour look at the week of preparation featuring content from Cardinals Lunch Hour, Cardinals Underground, The Big Red Rage and more.

Three hours prior to kickoff is "The Arizona Cardinals NFL Kickoff Show" hosted by Arizona Sports reporter Craig Grialou. Grialou is joined by former Cardinals running back and current Alumni Programs Manager Damien Anderson and azcardinals.com beat reporter Darren Urban. The show spotlights the upcoming Cardinals matchup and the latest game day news from around the NFL.

Two hours prior to kickoff, Calvisi will be joined by former Cardinals linebacker Rob Fredrickson, former defensive end Bertrand Berry and Anderson for the "Pre-Game Huddle." Fredrickson played with the Cardinals from 1999-2002 and Berry spent 12 years in the NFL, playing for the Cardinals from 2004-2009. He is the host of "Off The Edge with B-Train" on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM.

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game fan-interactive program, can be heard immediately following each contest on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM. Hosted by Grialou, "Cardinal Talk" allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Fredrickson, Anderson, and Berry.

WEEKDAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

Grialou hosts "Cardinals Lunch Hour," a one-hour show airing each Monday at 11:00 a.m. on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM. The program takes a look at the previous Cardinals game, provides NFL updates and features guests from around the league.

The "Arizona Cardinals Two-Minute Drill" is a year-round look at the hot topics surrounding the Cardinals airing twice each weekday on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM. "The Friday Focus" examines the most pivotal storylines in the upcoming Cardinals game. The segment airs every Friday throughout the season on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM.

Check azcardinals.com for specific air times.

Returning to the airwaves for its 15th year is "The Big Red Rage." Live from Majerle's in Chandler for the eighth consecutive season, "The Big Red Rage" is co-hosted by Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley, who will be joined by DE Calais Campbell and another player for each program. The show typically airs from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings throughout the season on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM. If there is a scheduling conflict with a Diamondbacks or Suns game, the show will air on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM. Check azcardinals.com or @AZCardinals on Twitter for date and time changes. "The Rage" will re-air on Saturdays on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM.

SPANISH RADIO

In 2000, the Cardinals became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games – preseason and regular season, home and away - on Spanish-language radio. The broadcasts can be heard on Jose 106.9/107.1 FM. Game day coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff.

Gabriel Trujillo

Rolando Cantu

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play) and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst) return in 2015.

Trujillo is in his 16th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantu played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player (non-kicker) to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantu also serves as the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

In addition to the Phoenix market, the Cardinals Spanish-language game broadcasts can be heard throughout Mexico as part of the Grupo Larsa Network.

CARDINALS ON TELEVISION

PRE-SEASON TV

The Cardinals are back again on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) for the 2015 preseason in high definition. Dave Pasch (play-by-play) will be joined by Ron Wolfley (analyst), and Jody Jackson (sideline).

TEAM SHOWS

The team will produce four TV programs throughout the 2015 season: "Cardinals: Season In Focus," "Cardinals Flight Plan: with Head Coach Bruce Arians," "Cards OT," and "Cardinals Headquarters." The programs can be found on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV), NBC 12 News (KPNX-TV) and Fox Sports Arizona.

"Cardinals: Season In Focus" is a weekly half-hour program dedicated to providing a close-up view of the team, on and off the field. Each week, segments such as the popular "Wired," as well as the Emmy Award winning "Zoom" tell the story of the season, and shed light on the personalities within the team. The show is hosted by Paul Calvisi. (ABC 15, Saturday mornings at 9 a.m./FS Arizona, Sunday mornings).

"Cardinals Flight Plan: with Head Coach Bruce Arians" allows viewers to see and hear the inside story straight from the man in charge. Hosted by Ron Wolfley, the show will feature an in-depth look at key plays from the previous week's game with an eye on the upcoming opponent and the Cardinals plan for victory. (12 News, Sunday 12:00 am following Saturday Night Live/FS Arizona, Sunday mornings*)

"Cardinals Headquarters," airing exclusively on Fox Sports Arizona, will feature a recap of the previous game and a look ahead to the next opponent. The show is hosted by Jody Jackson. (FS Arizona, check local listings)

"Cards OT" is a live post-game show airing on Fox Sports Arizona after regular season home games, providing fans with an immediate breakdown of the game. Jackson hosts with former NFL players Bertrand Berry and Glenn Parker serving as analysts. The program begins approximately 15 minutes after the final whistle and typically re-airs Sunday evenings.

SPANISH RADIO

Over the last 15 years the Arizona Cardinals Football Club has reached out to its Spanish language speaking fans by becoming the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games on Spanish radio (2000) and launching a Spanish language version of the team's web site www.azcardenales.com (2007).

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantú (analyst) will be back again in 2015. Trujillo returns for his 16th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantú played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player non-kicker to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantú is also the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

The Cardinals broadcast in Spanish airs locally on José 107.1 FM. In 2008, the Cardinals expanded the content of their game broadcasts with "Conteo Progresivo" a one-hour Spanish language pregame show hosted by Trujillo and Cantú. In 2012, the pregame show was again expanded to further offer insight into the next opponent with "Primera Y Diez (First and Ten)", the one hour Spanish language program.

The Spanish broadcast team will be back on the web as they return for "Al Cronómetro" (On The Clock) a Spanish language web-show that recaps the last game and looks ahead at the next opponent.

For the eighth straight season, the Cardinals will also bring the Spanish language broadcast to fans in Mexico. The team has partnered with Larsa Comunicaciones (Larsa Communications Group), the leading radio network in northern Mexico to bring the broadcast to 41 stations in 20 cities throughout Mexico, including Guadalajara, Puerto Vallarta, Hermosillo and Mexico City.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING WINS SIX EMMYS FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

In October of 2014, Cardinals Broadcasting was awarded a franchise-record six Emmy Awards for the second straight year by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences in the Rocky Mountain Southwest Region:

Sports Program/Feature Segment
- Cardinals Chronicles

Sports Daily or Weekly Program
- Zoom

Sports – One Time Special
- Seasons In Focus: The Story of the 2013 Arizona Cardinals

Recognized for the award-winning productions were Executive Producer Tim DeLaney and producers Jonathan Hayward, Richard Mendez and Coby Rich. In addition, Mendez was honored with two awards for individual craft categories for Lighting and Sports Photographer and Hayward was recognized for Editing.

Cardinals Broadcasting received a franchise-record 10 Emmy nominations in the Rocky Mountain Southwest Region in 2014. The Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences includes the states of Arizona, Utah, and portions of New Mexico, Nevada and Wyoming.

ADRIAN WILSON TO ENTER RING OF HONOR

During halftime of the September 27 game against the San Francisco 49ers at University of Phoenix Stadium, the Cardinals will induct former SS Adrian Wilson into the Ring of Honor.

Wilson spent 12 seasons (2001-12) with the Cardinals after joining the team as a third-round selection (64th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft out of N.C. State. A five-time Pro Bowl selection (2006, 2008-11) and three time All-Pro selection (2006, 2008-09), he finished his NFL career with 987 tackles (716 solos), 25.5 sacks, 27 interceptions, 106 passes defensed, 15 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and four touchdowns in 181 regular season games (162 starts). Wilson and Hall of Famer Larry Wilson (1962-63, '65-70) are the only two safeties in team history selected to five or more Pro Bowls.

A five-time team captain (2007, 2009-12), the 35-year old Wilson is one of just six players in NFL history (Ronde Barber, Brian Dawkins, Rodney Harrison, Ray Lewis, William Thomas) with at least 25 sacks and 25 interceptions. His 181 games played rank as the sixth-highest total in team history and the second most among Cardinals defenders behind only Hall of Fame defensive back Roger Wehrli (193). Wilson's 27 INT's rank sixth in team history, his 25.5 sacks rank 12th on the Cardinals all-time list, his 508 INT return yards rank fifth and his four NFC Defensive Player of the Week selections are the most in team history.

Wilson signed a one-day contract to return to the team on April 20, 2015 and officially retired the next day, exactly 14 years to the day after he was drafted by the Cardinals.

Wilson becomes the 15th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor, the creation of which coincided with the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006. He is the third safety in the group whose 14 other members are: Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. (Owner), Jimmy Conzelman (Coach), T Dan Dierdorf, HB John "Paddy" Driscoll, HB/DB Marshall Goldberg, CB Dick "Night Train" Lane, HB Ollie Matson, HB Ernie Nevers, S Pat Tillman, HB Charley Trippi, QB Kurt Warner, CB Roger Wehrli, CB Aeneas Williams and S Larry Wilson.

Eleven of the 14 members of the Cardinals Ring of Honor are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
